

Kiwanis donates bike helmets for local youth

COURTESY PHOTOS

On Jan. 15, the Coast Fork Kiwanis donated 47 bike helmets to the Lane County Sheriff's Office to be distributed to local children in need of safety gear. In addition, Coast Fork Kiwanis President Don Erich (right) presented a certificate of appreciation to Lane County Sheriff (far right) Cliff Harrold. Youth in the Cottage Grove and Creswell communities can pick up a helmet at 13 S First St. in Creswell. The Coast Fork Kiwanis serve Cottage Grove and Creswell youth and meets the first Wednesday of the month in Cottage Grove and the third Wednesday of the month in Creswell. Guests are always welcome. For more information, contact Don Erich at dwerich@gmail.com.

Cottage Grove men honored by Oregon Assoc. of Loggers

Greg Schmitz, President of Associated Oregon Loggers, recently honored Dick Gilkison for his 65 years as an active and continuous logger during the association's 50th annual convention held Jan. 23-25 this year at Valley River Inn.

Gilkison was also awarded the association's "Oregon Logger of the Year."

Wilbur Heath, a lifetime resident of Cottage Grove, was also recognized for his dedication to the association during Saturday's lunch. Heath is a past president of Associated Oregon Loggers and a long-time board member of the group serving on the board until his retirement from logging a few years ago.
