Local author releases new book, 'Lovestruck'

Cottage Grove-area author Margaret R. Blaine has released her latest book, "Lovestruck."

"Lovestruck" is based on real people and true events, with the names and places changed to protect the innocent.

In addition, coming later this year will be another new book, Creepy, which is based on monsters, ghosts, witches and other creepy things and places.

These and all other books authored by Blaine are sold at The Bookmine in Cottage Grove.

All of Blaine's books are written for young adults and based on monsters, ghosts and haunted houses.

Drivers urged to avoid travel when possible due to smoke

With heavy smoke and fog blanketing much of the state, ODOT is reminding drivers the best thing they can do to stay safe is avoid driving unless absolutely.

A number of roads remain closed throughout the state. Go to Tripcheck.com or call 5-1-1 for real time road conditions.

If you encounter heavy smoke while driving here are some steps you can take to help stay safe:

- Slow down and stay alert. Slow driving gives you more time to respond to unexpected conditions.
- Turn on your headlights. Even during daylight hours your headlights will help others on the road see you.

- Use fog lights. If you have them, fog lights can help cut through the smoke.

- Keep plenty of space between you and other vehicles.

Don't tailgate. Keep a steady, reliable pace.
