follow state covid protocols.

Plans will be made for Lorane Cemetery clean-up day towards the end of the month.

• Happily, in-person classes in all grades are going very well in our Crow-Applegate-Lorane School buildings.

Teachers love hearing students in the hallways and classrooms; students are glad to be back.

While it may be different; staff, teachers, and students are doing everything to make this work, to keep everyone safe, in both buildings.

They are now moving on to spring sports in Crow Middle/High school.

Most of the work is on the new section, but still drive slowly and carefully, as there is also excavating on the upper side.

They are calling for rain the end of the week into the weekend, so PLEASE Slow Down.

• Lorane Grange meets next on Thursday, May 6, at 7 p.m.

Even though most have had their vaccines, masks and distancing will still be observed to

Betty Kaiser: Chatterbox: Senior 'Jeopardy!' Ready in 2021

Betty Kaiser

Hello, everyone! Today's column is mostly just for fun. And heaven only knows we need a little fun to counter some of today's horrible news.

As of April 18, 2021, deaths in the U.S. from the Covid-19 pandemic had exceeded 567,000 people. These horrendous numbers are heart-breaking.

Fortunately, there is hope of slowing or stopping the virus with a vaccine as we all cooperate with sensible prevention measures.

Keep up the good work everyone!

Unfortunately, killings, via mass shootings, continue to plague this country. According to forbes.com more than one mass shooting per day has occurred already in 2021.

I don't get it. We are all born with the ability to know the difference between right and wrong.

Wanton murder is wrong. Working together, we should be able to control this awful, on-going, senseless killing of the innocent.

In the midst of all this bad news, a friend sent me an email questionnaire. It's called "Jeopardy for Seniors," AKA a test for older kids (That would be me.)

These simple questions from my childhood were harder than I thought. It tested my memory and confused my brain.

I also giggled a lot. Try it!

Jeopardy for Seniors

The answers are printed below (after the questions)

Have fun but don't cheat!

1. After the Lone Ranger saved the day and rode off into the sunset, the grateful citizens would ask, "Who was that masked man?" Invariably, someone would answer, "I don't know, but he left this behind."

What did he leave behind? A _____.
