GINA SANTOS

Gina was nominated as student of the month because she has been a great student to have all year. Whether we have been distance learning or in person, Gina shows up to class and gets her work done, and the quality of the work she turns in is wonderful. She hasn't been one to turn in half-finished assignments and say "eh, it's good enough". I can always count on her to participate in any group discussions or work that we are doing, and she doesn't hesitate to ask if she is unsure about how to do something. I can always tell when something clicks for her, which is a fun thing to see as a teacher. Hobbies: Horseback riding, Painting, Hiking, Future Goals: Study astronomy at University of Hawaii.
