GRIT, COURT TV, LAFF, AND MYSTERY ON SLTV

Several years ago, the Eugene CBS affiliate dropped their subchannel affiliation with GRIT-TV, and aligned with their corporate-owned darling: Charge!, which is carried by SLTV on channel 13.2. Many local viewers were unhappy about the change from GRIT, and asked us to check into bringing GRIT back to Cottage Grove. Negotiating "Permission To Air Agreements" are always difficult, and initially we were told "no thanks". There are just too few eyeballs in South Lane County to matter to the big guys. But we do represent the Eugene, Oregon television market, so that often gets a conversation started.

Subsequently, after finally reaching the actual affiliation manager, we were able to negotiate an agreement to carry GRIT-TV on SLTV translator channel 47.2. Additionally, we discovered three more channels: LAFF-TV (ch 14.3), Court TV (ch 39.2), and Mystery (ch 14.2) were available that could be added to the SLTV translator system.

For viewers in the Dorena/Culp Creek area, Grit was also added to the Hawley Butte (Dorena/Culp Creek) SLTV system at 11.7. Grit features classic TV series and feature films, a mix of action/adventure television series and westerns such as Death Valley Days, Laramie, The Legend of Wyatt Earp, and Dick Powell's Zane Grey Theatre, largely targeted at men of a wide range of age. Most of the movies are Westerns in blazing color making Grit an immediate family hit in many area households.

South Lane Television has worked hard over the years to provide Cottage Grove with the most comprehensive line-up of television options that we can. And for a town our size, the selection is very good. In more rural South Lane County, SLTV operates smaller systems in London and Dorena/Culp Creek. Without SLTV, television in these rural communities is impossible.
