

On The Record

POLICE LOG

Nov. 2

An officer working performing routine parking enforcement observed a vehicle parked near 830 Benjamin on the south side of the street. The vehicle had pine needles and leaves all of the vehicle as well as a flat on the driver's side rear tire. The vehicle was marked and tagged for storage.

Two juvenile females were cited and released at Cottage Grove High School for O.R.S. 166.065 Harassment. The students were contacted by school staff after administration discovered a digital video of Harassment and Bullying that occurred the day before on Nov. 1.

An unknown person was reported to have stolen an item valued at $200 from 5 Flying Monkeys on Main Street.

Nov. 3

An individual caused a scene in the Vintage Inn restaurant by yelling profanities at the wait staff, customers, and police officers. When asked to leave the business, she cursed and threw drink cups of water onto the table, then continued to delay her exit. There were more than 10 patrons in this area of the restaurant and the individual's actions and yelling caused public inconvenience and alarm. After being advised that she was under arrest for disorderly conduct, the individual actively resisted arrest, kicking and trying to bite the arresting officer.

Nov. 4

Cottage Grove Police were dispatched to the business of Chevron market in regards to a disorderly subject call for service. Ultimately, the subject was contacted and taken into custody for Disorderly Conduct in the Second Degree and was later lodged into the Cottage Grove Municipal Jail. The vehicle involved was towed from the scene after the arrest as no one could respond to retrieve the vehicle for the suspect in a timely manner. The case was closed by arrest and a report was forwarded to the City Attorney's Office and OLCC for review.

Nov. 5

While preparing to release an individual from the Cottage Grove Municipal Jail on bail for an unrelated charge, it was discovered he had a valid warrant for his arrest out of Douglas County, Oregon. Cottage Grove Dispatch confirmed the warrant and Douglas County subsequently advised officers the subject could be provided a citation with a new court date rather than being taken into physical custody. The individual was cited and released for the warrant without incident.

A resident reported that she could not leave her residence as her driveway was physically blocked by a vehicle. A responding officer attempted locating the owner at the nearby residence, but no one could be found to take ownership of the vehicle in over 45 minutes of looking. The registered owner had no local contacts or phone information. The vehicle was unoccupied and cold to the touch. An officer requested a towing company to respond and tow the vehicle. A tow form was completed and the vehicle towed to the company's lot.

Officers made contact with an individual who reported his vehicle being taken overnight on the 200 block of North 10th Street.

LCC seeking applicants and nominations for president

EUGENE, Ore. — Lane Community College moved forward with the next step in the process to find a new president for the college. With the 15-member advisory committee confirmed and a presidential profile developed, the process now moves to opening the application process.

The posting for the LCC president position is now available through ACCT Searches, a division of the Association of Community College Trustees. ACCT Searches will coordinate and manage the application materials for the presidential search. While applications will continue to be accepted throughout the remainder of the search process, the priority date for application review is Jan. 19, 2022.

A profile was developed for approval by the Board of Education in October that details the desired skills, abilities, qualities, and experience of the next president, as well as opportunities and challenges he or she will face in the role. Overall, the candidates should have a deep commitment to Lane Community College's strong values of student success, academic excellence, diversity, equity and innovation.

Following the previously announced timeline, confidential applications will be reviewed with the selection semi-finalists to be contacted and interviewed either virtually or in person in February 2022.

From that group of semi-finalists, three to five candidates are expected to be invited to campus in March to interview with the full board, tour campuses, participate in open public forums and meet with direct reports.

The Board of Education will deliberate and select its first-choice candidate. An announcement of the selection is anticipated to be announced in April with a start date of July 1.

Jean Marie Miller September 5, 2021

Jean Marie Miller died peacefully on September 5 at the age of 87 surrounded by family in her home in Keizer, Oregon.

She was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Juanita and Ray Falk. She and her sister Darlene and brother Ron lived across the US, as her father played in bands and worked as a handyman. She attended Eugene High School and continued friendships made there until her death.

She married Gary Miller, the owner of the Cottage Grove-Eugene Freight company, and lived in Cottage Grove, raising their children, Lisa, Tami, and Todd. She was married to Vern Coop, of Cottage Grove, during midlife. The last years of her life, she enjoyed the companionship of Gary Leslie, of San Diego, in Keizer.

Jean worked at Lane Community College in the counseling department while raising her children. She undertook the ambitious challenge of becoming a nurse during midlife. She prided herself on being her own property manager for several rentals.

She had a lifelong passion for Dixieland Jazz and big band music. She enjoyed a challenging game of Bridge, and became a football fan, especially following the U of O. Back in the day, her children recall her cutting a rug at the Rod & Gun club and the Elks in Cottage Grove with friends, enjoying drinks and laughs together. During her last years, she enjoyed European cruises with Gary and relaxing with him on the patio of her home, watching the golfers on the 17th green.

She is survived by daughters Lisa Sargent (Jim) of Sacramento, Tami Nikitins (Dahn) of Creswell and son Todd Miller of Cottage Grove; grandchildren Heather Casey of Cottage Grove, Adam McCarty of San Diego, and Tahni Nikitins of Bothell, Washington; and great-grandchildren Emilia and Eliana Casey and Harrison, Francis, and Charlie McCarty.

A private remembrance gathering at the graveside for immediate family will be held. The family has requested that remembrances be made in the form of contributions to Meals on Wheels and Willamette Valley Hospice.
