MAuled Down a Spanish Flag Captain Kin, of the Spanish, required an interview
New York, Dec. 15.—A dispatch from Havana says: Captain Kin, of the Spanish bark "Catca," of 300 tons,鲁 caught yesterday by the schooner "Constament," 200 miles south of here, was conveyed to this city yesterday. After a brief but sharp contest, the schooner had to give up the flag.

Wonders of the World

Jan. 15.—A dispatch from Mano has just arrived, containing the statement that the "Monte Carlo," a steamer of 4,000 tons, had been captured by the Spanish schooner "Diploma," 50 miles north of the entrance of the harbor of Cartagena.

Wishes, etc.

Life of a Fisherman

Jan. 15.—The New England

Schooner and Fisherman's Magazine, published at Boston, is published every six weeks.

Wonders of the World

Jan. 15.—A dispatch from

Marseilles, France, says: The

"Monte Carlo," a steamer of 4,000 tons, was captured by the Spanish schooner "Diploma," 50 miles north of the entrance of the harbor of Ca-tagena.

Wonders of the World

Jan. 15.—A dispatch from

Marseilles, France, says: The

"Monte Carlo," a steamer of

4,000 tons, was captured by

the Spanish schooner "Diploma," 50 miles

north of the entrance of the harbor of Ca-

tagena.

Wonders of the World

Jan. 15.—A dispatch from

Marseilles, France, says: The

"Monte Carlo," a steamer of

4,000 tons, was captured by

the Spanish schooner "Diploma," 50 miles

north of the entrance of the harbor of Ca-

tagena.

Wonders of the World

Jan. 15.—A dispatch from

Marseilles, France, says: The

"Monte Carlo," a steamer of

4,000 tons, was captured by

the Spanish schooner "Diploma," 50 miles

north of the entrance of the harbor of Ca-

tagena.

Wonders of the World

Jan. 15.—A dispatch from

Marseilles, France, says: The

"Monte Carlo," a steamer of

4,000 tons, was captured by

the Spanish schooner "Diploma," 50 miles

north of the entrance of the harbor of Ca-

tagena.