The Scorpion Cleaned up

By W. G. Hawkins of Portland, Oregon

Mr. W. G. Hawkins, of this city, is in the habit of very pedantic housekeeping and so by his side at Manito, O. C.
Second Oregon. Among them were three
Spanish rifle shells, one set as a present from three men who were drawn from the shells, and the other 2 were made into knives with brass handles.

Mr. Hawkins observed, however, a certain vivacity of the gun's element. Here's good news for all Portland home owners.
