

Orphans' Home.— A meeting of the delegates from all O. O. F. lodges in Lane county was held in Eugene last Saturday, for the purpose of considering a proposition to change the location in Lane county of the Orphans' Home adopted by this venerable order. At that time the proposition from the Cottage Grove lodge proposed to donate 10 acres of land for that purpose, and we are informed that it was the most liberal, not the only proposition made the evening. The land in question is situated near this place, being a ten acre tract of the Shield's estate, lately purchased by Mr. J. I. Jones; and is a healthy and beautiful location. The object suggests a united effort upon the part of our citizens and Odd Fellows to secure the location of this institution in a thriving city.

Good Investment.— Dr. Snapp has an eye to business. Last week he bought a young cougar from about Roseburg and had it shipped up here. His cougarship was a fine specimen, although a little vicious. He is manager of the Vitascopes show which played at the Davis hall Saturday night. He heard of the doctor's purchase and as he was looking for the same kind of an article, and as the doctor had just come to the conclusion that this particular cougar was just a little too much on the scrap for domestic association, a sale was made and it is said the doctor realized a handsome profit hereby. The Vitascopes people were very pleasant people but of course it takes everybody feel better to think that they didn't carry away any of Cottage Grove's money.

High Class Concert.— The concert given by the Bernard-Walther Concert Company last Friday evening at Davis' hall under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias of this city, was fairly well attended and was pronounced a success by all. Mr. Walther is all that one could wish to hear or see in a violinist. His very soul is in his work and while in this instance his numbers were in advance of the audience, from a classical standpoint, still they never tired of listening to him. Madame Walther's powerful yet sweet voice, will long ring in the ears of those who had the pleasure of listening to her, while Miss Ada Cosgrove in her "Living pictures" and Franklin Laura Eschelman, as piano accompanist were all that could be desired.

In Town.— Mr. Mumps arrived in town recently and at present is making himself quite familiar with a number of our citizens. Editor Howard mourns his acquaintance, since he has been confined to his room since Tuesday morning, the result of too much sociability with his mumps. Jack's many friends will be pleased to know that his handsome physiognomy is much improved by his late acquaintance. The unusual poor appearance of the Nugget is proof of the fact that he has been unable to attend to office duties this week.

Refer You to Al.— Al Churchill is down from Bohemia, and the chief bottle washer of the Nugget is mighty glad of it, for Al is grinding out this week's sheet, while that man Howard is dumping about home with the mumpety mumps. If anyone has a grudge against us, please vent your wrath upon Mr. Churchill, and it might be well to lick him a time or two in advance.

Drowned.— Ralph, the little four year old son of Mr. Ed Cole, of Row river was accidentally drowned last Friday and was buried Saturday. It appears that the little fellow was playing alone on the banks of a small stream of water near the house and in some way fell into the same. When found about fifteen minutes after disappearing, life was extinct, but the most strenuous efforts failed to resuscitate him. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Died.— At Phoenix, Arizona, Monday, March 20, 1899, Mr. John Lebow, of consumption of the throat. Mr. Lebow left his home on Mosby Creek about six weeks ago for Phoenix, Arizona, hoping to be benefited by a change of climate, but a telegraphic dispatch informs his relatives here that grim death has claimed him for its victim. The remains will be embalmed and returned here for interment.

Married.— At Eugene, Oregon, Wednesday, March 22, 1899, Hon. W. F. Gray and Eva Russell, of Corbett, Oregon. Judge E. O. Potter officiating. The Nugget congratulates.

Homeseekers Coming West.— A dispatch from St Paul, Minnesota, March 21 says: The homeseekers' half-fare rate on the transcontinental lines went into effect today and the Northern Pacific and Great Northern were compelled to double their facilities in order to handle the crowds. Not less than 5,000 people took advantage of the low rates, and the Great Northern sent out an extra train at noon, while the Northern Pacific was compelled to add a second section to its through trains. The railroad officials report that many of the travelers bought only one way tickets, which is taken as an indication of an intention to locate permanently in the West.

In a Sling.— Harry Barnett met with a very unfortunate accident at the Booth-Kelly mill Wednesday in consequence of which he now carries his arm in a sling. While engaged in falling timber, a limb from the tree upon which he was working fell, striking him on the right arm, dislocating the same at the elbow. Harry, with his usual nerve, reduced the fracture himself, then walked to Cottage Grove for medical treatment, and is now getting along as nicely as could be expected under the circumstances.

Good Show.— The Wonderland and Vitascopes Company, opened at the Davis hall last Saturday evening, to a fair house. The show was all it claimed to be and those present seemed well pleased. "Romeo" the trained Shetland pony, proved to be a very intelligent little horse, and furnished much amusement in his mathematical calculations. The Vitascopes illustrations were particularly good, and the music was all that one could wish.

Accidental.— Willie Ward, the only son of R. H. Ward, about 15 years of age, living near Comstock, was seriously if not fatally injured last Monday evening while attempting to board a wood train while under motion. His brother was killed near the same place by the southbound local several years ago.

Another Business Change.— This week F. B. Phillips purchased the hardware store and business of W. W. Treat. The new proprietor is not a stranger to our readers, but is well known as one of the most enterprising and honorable business men of our city. The Nugget wishes him, and all such, success.

Married.— At the residence of Mrs. S. A. Rowe, four and one-half miles south of Cottage Grove, March 16, 1899, Mr. Harvey Taylor and Miss Myrtle B. McDaniel, Justice Vaughn officiating. A few relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony, after which supper was served in honor of the occasion. The Nugget extends congratulations.

Fire at Roseburg.— The Abraham warehouse at Roseburg was destroyed by fire Monday night, March 20. It was valued at $8,000 and about $4,000 worth of grain stored in the building was consumed. Only $2,000 insurance on the building and a small amount on the grain. The fire was no doubt of incendiary origin, and the loss of the warehouse is a serious matter to the business of that city.

Died.— At the family home near town, Thursday evening, March 16 1899, of typhoid pneumonia, Hallie, the 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ostrander. Funeral services were held at the Christian church Friday afternoon Rev. R. A. Cople officiating.

Will Remodel the U. B. Church.— Monday morning's local took Bert Wood to Goshen, where he will commence remodeling the U. B. church of that place. Mr. Wood was accompanied by Geo. Lea, who will assist him in the work.

To Trade.— A well developed case of mumps. Will trade for most any kind of a case of brain fever, gout, or sciatic rheumatism. For further information call at Nugget office.

Change of Date.— The city convention that was advertised to be held on Saturday, March 25th, will be held on Monday March 27th at 2 o'clock p. m. instead, at the Masonic hall.

The Dawson Medicine Co.— Are having a crowded house each evening at their free entertainments at the Opera house. They give a very creditable and pleasing show.

Other One Goes.— The other young cougar belonging to Wm. Cutbirth and Ernest Lockwood, went dead last Saturday night, after a few days illness.
