FACTORY BROKEN INTO. Maj. Gen. Albert J. Smith, commander of the Army of the Potomac, in his

TRUISM. SIR, — I beg to state that I am a full blooded Patako Indian, and I have lived in this country since I was born. I have never seen a white man, but I know that they are not very good people. They are always fighting and killing each other. I prefer my own way of life to theirs.

SIGNED,

John Patako, Chief of the Patako Indians.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Huron Senate, meeting today, voted to establish a new department of education.

The department will be headed by Mr. John Smith, who has been a teacher for many years.

He will be assisted by Mr. William Jones, who is a native of Huron and has taught school there for many years.

The new department will be responsible for the education of all children in the district.

The Huron Senate has always been concerned with the welfare of its children, and this new department is a step forward in the provision of education for the young people of the district.

LOST IN THE SMOKE. Captain B. D. Smith, U. S. N., was lost in the smoke of a hawser that broke away from the ship in which he was serving.

He had been on duty for many years and was well known in the Navy.

The hawser was carrying a large quantity of material and caused much damage to the ship.

The search for Captain Smith is still in progress.

THEY WILL CARRY ON. The fishermen of this town have decided to continue their work despite the heavy losses they have suffered.

They believe that they must continue to provide food for their families and that they cannot afford to give up their trade.

They have been supported by many citizens of the town who believe in their cause.

THEY WILL FIGHT ON. The residents of this town have decided to continue their fight against the war.

They believe that the war is wrong and that it must be stopped.

They have been supported by many citizens of the town who believe in their cause.

THEY WILL RESIST. The farmers of this town have decided to continue their struggle against the war.

They believe that the war is wrong and that it must be stopped.

They have been supported by many citizens of the town who believe in their cause.

THEY WILL NOT GIVE IN. The workers of this town have decided to continue their struggle against the war.

They believe that the war is wrong and that it must be stopped.

They have been supported by many citizens of the town who believe in their cause.