LANE COUNTY MINES.

Something About Recent Developments—The Woods Full of Them.

And now it appears that not only Bohemia and Blue river in Lane county abound in gold, silver, copper and other minerals, but new discoveries and the development thereof gives authentic report that Lane county is amply supplied with mineral deposits, even to the very edge of the Willamette valley.

For a number of years croppings of coal have been discovered at various places throughout Lane county, some about Cottage Grove, Eugene, and down on the Siuslaw river. However no one has looked for gold quartz to be brought conspicuously to the front in the lower foot-hills of the Willamette valley, but a Nugget man was informed through reliable sources a few days ago that parties were at work upon a newly discovered ledge a few miles south of Eugene and that the ore taken out there at a depth of some 20 feet had assayed as high as $20 a ton, and that development work was going right along.

The latest discovery which is attracting considerable attention just now comes from a short distance from Creswell a thriving little town about twelve miles north of Cottage Grove on the Southern Pacific railroad.

Mr. J. M. Sherwood, proprietor of the Hotel Sherwood, of this city, was a visitor to that town last Friday, and upon his return he brought several specimens of very rich ore from the newly discovered ledge, and from that gentleman the Nugget man is indebted for the following:

A relief map of Yellowstone Park. Printed on firm paper, and suitable for mounting or framing and for use in schools, class rooms, etc. The best map of the Park that is publicly distributed. Mailed in pastboard tubes. Send 10cts.

MAZAMA PAMPHLET—
A nicely illustrated pamphlet, descriptive of Mount Rainier, Washington, the grandest ice-covered peak in the United States. Send two cents.

KOOTENAI FOLDER—
An illustrated folder and relief map of the Kootenai Region in British Columbia north of Spokane. Send two cents.

ARMY AND NAVY BOOK—
Tells about both the U. S. and Spanish armies and navies at beginning of Spanish-American war. Map of Cuba and adjacent islands. A vest pocket history well worth preserving for reference. Send ten cents.

In sending for these write the address carefully, and state where advertisement was seen.

The Oregonian.—

And the Bohemia Nugget for $2 per year, cash in advance. This is without doubt the greatest clubbing offer offered by Oregon newspapers today. The Oregonian is without doubt excelled by none, in point of news both local and foreign, is a clear print, and besides has that great redeeming feature, devoid of sensational and disgusting literature. Remember the two papers, the Weekly Oregonian and your home paper the Bohemia Nugget for $2.

of ore he would have as good a thing as he need want. The miner took the hint and returned to Creswell and did his best to retrace his steps to the place where he found the specimen he gave the assayer, but could not locate the place again. He knew that it was in a little branch near an old house but as he did not give it much attention at the time, and being a stranger in the locality he did not take his bearings. It is said that the work now going on is thought to be in the identical spot where the miner 10 years ago picked up the rock that promised so much.

Miners are beginning to cast their eyes Bohemiward, and as soon as the weather will permit, work will be pushed in that rich mining district in a manner that is sure to bring about most satisfactory results. As an old miner said the other day. As far as the quality and quantity of gold producing ore is concerned, no discoveries of recent date can surpass to any extent those developed in the Bohemia camps; but the difficulty heretofore has been the inability of those who were the first to prospect in the Bohemia district to interest capital. As everyone knows who knows anything at all about mining, it takes capital to bring a mining district to the front and make investments there profitable. With one or two exceptions capital thus far is an unheard of thing in the Bohemia camps, but in those instances where capital has been secured, no failures have been made, and every camp that has been sufficiently developed to cause one to expect returns at all, dividends have been realized.

Superintendent J. W. Cook, of the Musick mine, who arrived in Cottage Grove a few days ago will go into the mines as soon as the weather settles and will have the new 10-stamp mill under full blast by the first of June. Prospecting has been going on at the Musick all winter and Superintendent Cook is very much pleased with the result.

In an interview with Superintendent Cook a reporter was informed that he was of the opinion that prospects were very bright for the Bohemia camp, that they were gradually growing in popularity, and that mining men throughout the several cities he had visited the past winter were beginning to take an active interest in them, and as it is authentically stated that the development work shows a grade of ore at least on a par with the other great mines of the county, he can see no reason why capital once directed this way will not become fastened in the mines and produce the results long desired.

The following miners who have been visiting in Cottage Grove for some time returned to Bohemia this week: Jack Klopeneiste, Henry Johnson, Al Byrne, Al White, Will Lees, and Ed Jenks, foreman of the Noonday. Good luck to you, gentlemen.

John Walter of the London Times, left as a legacy to his daughter one of the advertising columns of the Thunderer. It is said that this legacy brought the lady a steady income of $150 per day.
