

Entertained.
Last Sunday night, when the excursion train arrived on the return from Salem Mr. Ed Hebard of this city invited his friends from Drain and Yoncalla, who were patrons of the excursion, to become his guests until the arrival of the overland. Accordingly the Yoncalla-Drain party laid over and partook of Mr. Hebard's hospitality. Mr. Hebard's headquarters are at the Hotel Sherwood, and there escorted his guests, and the interval between trains was most pleasantly spent, in the discussion of a daintily prepared lunch. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Yett, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ross King, Miss Locke, Miss Madge Wilson, Messrs. Chas. and John Meizer, Alva Wise, Galen De Vere, and Alex Wright, of Yoncalla. Messrs. Dickson, Archie McQuire, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stocker and Miss Stocker of Drain.

From Iowa.
Mr. Chas. Dority of Creswell, and Mr. E. A. Morse, of Monticello, Iowa, who came out here a short time since to attend his father who is quite ill, were visitors in Cottage Grove last Friday. Mr. Morse coming to call upon Mrs. C. H. Cottle, formerly of Monticello, Iowa. The gentleman speaks in the highest terms of Oregon and what he has already seen of this section, and the chances are that before he gets through looking at the country with his old friend Mr. Dority a. his side to spur on the already well developed intention he will pull up stakes back yonder and make his home here. Let 'em come, Oregon will make room for the entire population of Iowa if they want to come.

Sold Out.
Lewis Betters, who has been identified with the Bohemia mines for the last seven years, and who was a partner with Geo. Knowles in the Sweepstake group, has sold his half interest to Messrs. John Brand and Chas. Gettys for $2,000. Mr. Betters came in from the mines Tuesday and in conversation with a Nugget man stated that he is settling up his affairs with the intention of starting for Mexico, P. I., E. S. A. about July 1, with the expectation of entering the mining districts of the islands. Mr. Betters is a mining man of large experience, a rattling good fellow and has many friends who will wish him good health and lots of riches in the far-away islands.

Misplaced Confidence.
Dr. Schief of Eugene is a victim of misplaced confidence. Some time ago he fitted out a man and his family with a team and wagon, two tents, and all necessary paraphernalia for gathering chittem bark and started them out. They were in the vicinity of Cottage Grove and have sold some of the outfit, including one of the tents. The doctor has sworn out a warrant for their arrest, and Constable McFarland is looking them up. The doctor was of the opinion that they had left the county but no trace of their exit has yet been found. The man's name is F B Rouse.

Exciting Runaway.
While Mr and Mrs Will George were coming to town from the warehouse Wednesday, a pole strap broke letting the tongue down. Mr George was thrown in front of the vehicle between the horses, Mrs George was thrown out behind and the harness was scattered for three miles along the road. Mr and Mrs George escaped without broken bones but were both badly bruised as well as scared. They arrived in town Wednesday evening.

Pretty Receivers.
Mrs Elmer Doolittle was in the city Tuesday and was selling some very pretty card receivers made from fish scales and put together in an artistic manner. The material is a Manila production, and Mr Doolittle who has been in service there with the Oregon boys, sent his wife material sufficient for nine receivers.

School Teachers.
The directors of this district have chosen the following teachers for the Cottage Grove public school for the ensuing year: J. P. Holland, principal; F. S. Day, assistant; Miss Pearl Hunter, Miss Charlotte White, Miss May McQueen, and Miss Josephine Foss.

Fell From a Wagon.
Mrs. Chas. Bowen, of Latham, while riding in a wagon last Saturday to the residence of Mr. Adams, had the misfortune to be thrown out of the wagon. The wheel passed over the thumb of her left hand crushing the first joint badly.

The M E Sunday school of this city held a picnic near Latham Wednesday. An enjoyable time was reported.

IN MEMORY.

To the memory of Thos. F. Nichols, who died at his home in this city Thursday morning, June 8, 1899.
He was, a kind and affectionate husband, a true friend, and an exemplary Christian, who gained the confidence and esteem of those with whom he was associated. He had been ailing for some time, but was dangerously sick only a few days. Yet he was found with the armor on, a firm disciple of the Lord and is without doubt resting with him in the paradise of God.

Whereas, In the mysterious dispensation of divine providence, Comrade Nichols has been removed from our midst.

Resolved: That we bow in submission to our Heavenly Commander, who doeth all things well, and

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the wife, in this, her hour of deep grief, and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Sister Nichols, also to the papers for publication.

ROBERT GRIFFIN
GEO. WARNER
GEO. THOMPSON } Committee.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Thomas F. Nichols was born near London, England, June 10th 1826. When but a small boy he left home and became a sailor. For some years he followed this occupation during which time he became acquainted with most of the principal seaports of the world. He finally landed in the city of New York where he engaged in the mercantile business. When the Civil war broke out he enlisted in the army of the North. His first engagement was in the battle of Bull Run. After the war, he engaged in boating on the Erie canal.

He was married to Miss Elda Jane Lang in Indiana April 11, 1870. Later on he moved to Iowa, where he gave himself to Christian life and has ever proved to be a worthy member of the M. E. Church. In the spring of 1898 he moved to Cottage Grove, Oregon, and on June 8th, 1899, God called his servant home. This true saint of God was found ready, and often expressed his confidence in his Savior. He leaves a bereaved wife who has a host of friends to share in her sorrow.

Remember the place: Phillips' old stand, Cottage Grove Oregon.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, MRS.
