Wells in the Sand.
The Mexican burro has sense enough to provide for its own needs, if a story told by a traveler in that country be true. We had found in an arroyo a sufficient quantity of water to make coffee, when we observed three burros looking for water. They passed several damp places, examining the ground carefully, but deciding against it. Near on the leader halted, and began to paw a hole in the hot, dry sand with his right forefoot. Having dug a hole something over a foot in depth he backed out and watched it intently. To our surprise it soon began to fill with water. Then he advanced, took a drink, and stepped aside as if inviting his companions to follow his example. At all events, that was the light in which they seemed to view his action, for they promptly advanced and quenched their thirst at the shallow well. When they had gone away we got down and tried the water ourselves. It was cool and refreshing, much better than any we had found for many a day. We came to the conclusion that the burros had plenty of "horse sense."—Youth's Companion.

Was in the Wrong Office.
Agent—My dear sir, do you know how much time you lose dipping a pen into the ink? Ten dips a minute means 600 dips an hour, or 6,000 dips in ten hours, and each dip consumes—
Business Man—Yes, I know; I have worked it all out.
"And yet I find you still writing in the old way?"
"Yes, I am using the fountain pen you sold me about a month ago—using it in the old way because it won't write any other way."
"Beg pardon; I'm in the wrong office. Good-bye."—Pearson's Weekly.

Exhibits at Paris.
There will be a large exhibit from this country at the Paris exposition in 1900, which will prove very interesting to all, but no more so than the news that the famous American remedy, Hostetter's Stomach-Bitters, will cure dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation. "There is a cat sits every night on our back fence," he explained to the lawyer, "and he yowls, and yowls, and yowls. Now, I don't want to get into any trouble with my neighbor, but I would like to know if I am not justified in putting a stop to it." "Certainly," replied the lawyer. "I am well within my rights if I shoot the cat then?" he inquired, gleefully. "Um, well, I would hardly say that," answered the lawyer; "the cat does not belong to you, as I understand it?" "No." "And the fence does?" "Yes." "Well, then, I think I may safely say that you have a perfect right to tear down the fence."—Chicago Post.

Grocer to shopman—Peter, I owe about three hundred pounds." "Yes, sir." "I have two hundred pounds in the safe, but the shop is empty; I think it is the right time to fail." "That's just what I think." "But I want a plausible pretext for my creditors. You have plenty of brains; think the matter over to-night and to-morrow morning." The clerk promised to think it over carefully. On entering the shop next morning the grocer found the shop next morning the money gone and in its place a note which ran as follows: "I have taken the two hundred pounds and am off for America. It is the best excuse you can give your creditors."

STORIES OF RELIEF.

Two Letters to Mrs. Pinkham.

Mrs. JOHN WILLIAMS, Englishtown, N. J., writes:
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I cannot begin to tell you how I suffered before taking your remedies. I was so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without falling. I had womb trouble and such a bearing-down feeling; also suffered with my back and limbs, pain in womb, inflammation of the bladder, piles and indigestion. Before I had taken one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great deal better, and after taking two and one-half bottles and half a box of your Liver Pills I was cured. If more would take your medicine they would not have to suffer so much."

Mrs. JOSEPH PETERSON, 513 East St., Warren, Pa., writes:
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have suffered with womb trouble over fifteen years. I had inflammation, enlargement and displacement of the womb. I had the backache constantly, also headache, and was so dizzy. I had heart trouble, it seemed as though my heart was in my throat at times choking me. I could not walk around and I could not lie down, for then my heart would beat so fast I would feel as though I was smothering. I had to sit up in bed nights in order to breathe. I was so weak I could not do anything."

"I have now taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and can say I am perfectly cured. I do not think I could have lived long if Mrs. Pinkham's medicine had not helped me."

An old man named Gregor Berds of Erlan, in South Hungary, committed suicide because a little grandson had broken his favorite pipe. Near his body was found a note on which was written: "My pipe is dead; I will die, too."

GREAT TAMMANY LEADER

Congressman Amos J. Cummings.

New York, Oct. 11th, 1898.
Pe-ru-na Drug M'fg Co., Columbus, O.
Gentlemen—Pe-ru-na is a good for catarrh. I have tried it and know it. It relieved me immensely on my trip to Cuba, and I always have a bottle in reserve. Since my return I have not suffered from catarrh, but if I do I shall use Pe-ru-na again. Meantime you might send me another bottle. Yours, Amos J. Cummings, M. C.

Summer catarrh assumes various forms. It produces dyspepsia and bowel complaint. It causes biliousness and diseases of the liver. It deranges the kidneys and bladder. Summer catarrh may derange the whole nervous system, when it is known to the medical profession as systemic catarrh. Pe-ru-na is a specific for all these forms of catarrh. Pe-ru-na never disappoints. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book on summer catarrh.
