FRIDAY, JULY 14 -1899.

It has been suggested that people in the valley towns contribute something to the Portland reception fund to be used in the entertainment of the Oregon Volunteers when they reach that city. This is hardly right, and Portland should not expect any outside aid. Portland is patriotic—in this we are proud of our metropolis; Portland wanted the boys—so did other towns—Portland got 'em—let her entertain 'em. Salem is a patriotic city—so is Eugene. Either of these towns are just as much interested in those volunteers as Portland, but were they first to receive those brave boys just home from scenes of strife, neither one would have thought of asking Portland to put up for the good time. We are all proud of our boys and their achievements, and we want them to be royally received at Portland, and its Portland's place to see that they are properly entertained, without outside help. A few days more and these boys will come "marching home" to Salem, Eugene, Cottage Grove and every little hamlet in Oregon from five to one hundred and fifty bronzed warriors of southern wars. Every town and hamlet will then upon itself take the responsibility of receiving and showing the sterling appreciation of the populace, and we will all need our pin money. Portland will have the honor of securing them first, so let Portland foot the bill. We'll keep our money at home and if we haven't soldier boys come home to honor with such an humble reception as we can give, we can put it into a monument fund in sad sweet memory of those who should, but alas, did not come.

The arrival of Frank Smith at the state prison from Jackson county increases the number of lifetimers there to thirty-one. Lon Swartz is the only Marion county man among the number.—Salem Sentinel. The Sentinel seems to be proud of Marion county's record as to life penitentiary birds; but are we to understand by the above that all of Marion's murderers are either hanged or imprisoned for life?

The editors who have just toured the Willamette valley have without doubt been well entertained and will go home with a favorable impression of the hospitality of Oregonians. But no matter how great the impression as to the social and hospitable demonstration, the predominant impression will be that when they reached Oregon they struck the greatest county in God's earth, the Italy of America.

Bohemia Nugget is under obligations to ex-Secretary of State Harrison R. Kincaid for a copy of the secretary's biennial report for 1897-8. It is a beautiful book and contains information statistical and biographical that demands its recognition in the best of libraries.

The boys up in Bohemia are not only digging out a good honest living, but they are digging out the corner stone of one of the greatest mining camps on the Pacific coast.

Only a little while boys and we will talk with you over the wire.

A telephone line to Bohemia is now an assured fact. The sooner the better.

For the size of the town Cottage Grove can put up as good an all-round athlete as any town in the state.

Why shouldn't the citizens of Cottage Grove feel proud of Bohemia? It takes Bohemia to make Cottage Grove, and Cottage Grove to make Bohemia. Stand together. Get that phone line up.

A short time now and we will have soldier boys at home. Shall we not arrange for a little banquet on our own hook? Cottage Grove has several sons in that line of blue coats yonder! Shall we welcome them?

The Eugene Register which has been successfully and ably edited by C. D. Edwards for the past two years has been leased by Messrs. W. G. and W. F. Gilstrap, two able and well known newspaper men of this state. While we regret to see Mr. Edwards leave the journalistic field, we cannot help but feel that he has left his paper in the hands of gentlemen who will maintain the Registers present good standing, and who will be favorably received by its patrons.

LATHAM LINES.

Farmers are busy haying and the merry music of the mower sounds in all directions.

Walter Garoutte and Gus Gross spent Saturday and Sunday on Row river.

William Scott and Elmer Brooks came up from Crawfordville Wednesday. They went to Bohemia and located claims and will soon return and do some development work. They are pleased with this county.

Misses Etta Vaughn and Stella Adams visited Mrs. Lane Shortridge of Coast Fork Wednesday.

Mrs. Cleo Lewis of Cottage Grove is spending a few days at Mr. John Jackson's.

Mrs. Mounts has had a new roof put on her dwelling house and John Hull has treated his house to a coat of paint which looks very well.

How strange a change has come about in regard to the Bohemia mines within the last few years. We used to see a herd of pack horses start off with heavy loads to tread their weary way in single file, but now we have such good roads that some men left Cottage Grove on bicycles for Bohemia. They say they ride most of the way to the warehouse. SCRIBBLER.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Arrangements have just been completed for a subscription school, consisting of 10 grades, to begin October 2nd and continue within one week of the opening of public school allowing one week for the holidays.

In all, three teachers are provided for, giving to each of the first two, three grades. If occasion requires, another will be added, and the 11th grade given an opportunity.

As complete a schedule will be allowed each of the grades as is possible to maintain with good results. By this method, it is hoped, a majority can be given school advantages during the long intermission of public instruction. A moderate tuition of $1.50 per month will be charged.

Respectfully submitted,
F. S. DAY, Prin.

Bad Fall.

Frank Knox the little son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Knox of this city, got a bad fall Wednesday. He was shinning along a pig pen fence when he fell striking the fence with his cheek and breast, making a couple of ugly wounds, Frank will be more careful next time, he plays "mid de pigs."

Mrs. F. L. Keenan, of Portland who has been the guest of her brother Mr. Darwin Bristow for several weeks, left for Eugene Thursday where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hendricks and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Preston for a few days before returning home.

Special offer, 21 photos for 45c, 7 different positions.

THE RAIN DOPS.

Did you ever consider the effect of the rain drops on Mother Earth and her vegetation? As they descend from the clouds they are charged with the gasses of the air. Thus they carry life's own energy to the soil and all vegetation. Radams' Microbe Killer, a combination of disinfecting gasses and water, has the same effect upon the human body, that the rain drops have upon the soil and vegetation. Call of send for pamphlet.
