FRIDAY, AUGUST 11—1899.

Editor Howard left Monday morning bright and early for the golden hills of Bohemia and the former editor of The Messenger is this week left in charge. Now if the readers of the Nugget this week find a silver tinge of democracy in place of the golden hue of republicanism, we say don't wait to lay the blame upon the absent editor for he will be able to prove an alibi; just scratch our back! But kind reader you must not feel more surprise that we did (you know editors always say we, we suppose to avoid punishment) upon entering the office Monday morning to find a note from "Jack," cautioning us not to work too hard. Surely the dear-boy don't know our failing or this caution would have been entirely unnecessary. Work! Why friends work has no terror for us, just pile it on as heavy as you may, its something we never lose sleep over. Editor Howard's trip to the great Bohemia district we have no doubt will be pleasant and more than that, we believe it will be both conducive to good for Bohemia and for the Nugget, as no doubt the public will be informed reliably of developments in the camp when he returns.

The Lewiston, Idaho council recently passed an ordinance licensing gambling houses, which is contrary to the state statutes. The sheriff of the county who is described as a resolute officer notified the gamblers if they opened up their games all would be arrested. As a result Lewiston is a wide open town which is not open.

Premier Laurier declares that war over the Alaska boundary would be criminal. The plain alternative was arbitration on disputed points concerning the Lyun canal district.

Canada has no hope of compromise on the Alaska boundary according to David Mills, minister of justice, and Sir Chas. Tupper, who say in interviews America fears arbitration, the only hope.

Quay has found a candidate for treasurer of his state. It is Lieutenant-Colonel Barnett, just arrived with the Tenth Pennsylvania from Luzone. Quay was hard up for a candidate who would have a chance of election, since there is a disposition in the state to give the boss a setback; so Barnett's arrival as a war hero is lucky. It has been telegraphed from San Francisco and published all over Pennsylvania that during one of the later engagements Barnett was struck in the breast by a bullet, which, however, hit a testament in his pocket that deflected the ball, which made only a superficial wound. This ought to elect Barnett and pull Quay out of the hole. Of course, upon specific inquiry it would be found that the testament was a pack of cards; but the skeptic and sinner who says it will be frowned down.—Oregonian.

When Congress meets matters in Cuba, should be settled; it should be annexed to the United States and organized into a state or territory. We want no more carpet-bagism in this country.

Robert G. Ingersoll left no will for the gratification of lawyers. He was too good a lawyer himself to submit such a proposition.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

A Worthy Compliment.

The Urbana (Ohio) Citizen pays Oregon and the Oregonians the following well deserved compliment:

"Some of the peculiar matters here are the things the people eat and drink. They have baked salmon, mountain lamb, with mint, highly cultivated frogs, spiced crawfish, which are very palatable, but which look horrid; oyster toddies, spring chicken, clams from the soft Pacific seas, etc, and in fruits, plums, peaches, cherries, prunes, strawberries, raspberries, all very fine some of them superior to our Ohio products, especially the cherries. In drinks they use native wines, white and red, a peculiar beverage which is spelled b-e-e-r, orange cider, another which they call Manhattan roostertail, Bull Run water. Mrs. S says that the Bull Run water is the only article that equals the splendid crystal of Urbana, and also the only one fit to drink.

"The phenomenal peculiarity of these people of the Northwest is their amazing hospitality. We know little of it in the East. When you realize that these people came more than 500 miles to meet us, that they chartered the hotels to entertain us, that the great Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has not only furnished us free transportation over their road, but sent out their engines, engineers, passenger agents and commissariat to meet us and ask us to take these courtesies and to carry us free of all charges over the Columbia valley, you will begin to understand something of the nature of our welcome to Oregon.

"We thought that Ohio was 'the whole thing' and we hear good words for the grand Buckeye state from all quarters, but it really does lack the snowcapped mountains and the magnificent flowers and fruits and the heavy drapery of foliage and the equable temperature of this wonderful land. As the colored brother remarked, 'I am powerfully taken with Oregon' and 'the slope.' Judge W. D. James, formerly of Pike county, but now of Cincinnati, once curtly remarked when I was descending on Portland and the slope: 'D—it, there isn't any slope. I have been there and know.'

"Cattle, wheat, hay, horses, oats, swine, lumber, gold dust, apples, hops and cheese are the principal products, all going up in the value beyond a hundred thousand dollars of production last year.

"Joaquin Miller, the distinguished poet of the Sierras, formerly lived in Eugene, and for a time edited the Eugene City Review.

"We venture to say that nowhere on earth do roses grow in such perfection as in Oregon. The climate seems to be just right. The ladies of the delegation have simply gone wild over them. Every Eastern lady you see has an armful of roses."

They are now sending mules to the Philippines, but from past indications one is lead to believe Gen. Otis has been mule—enough.
