BOHEMIA NOTES.

Devoted to Mines and Miners—A Nugget Correspondent's Batch of News.

At present three mills are pounding away in the Bohemia, the Stock & Harlow, five stamps, the Musick, 10 stamp, the Noonday 20 stamps.

The Noonday Mining Company started up their 20 stamp mill last week. They have many thousand tons of ore in the cribs and it is the intention of the company to crowd the mill to its full capacity.

Al Churchill has returned to the Helena after a few days lay off at Cottage Grove.

Development work is still going on at the Broadway. Mr. F. J. Hard, mining expert from Colorado, was looking over the Broadway property last week, it is said with the view of purchasing the same. He is reported as very favorably impressed with it, and he is on record as saying that Bohemia is in many respects a Cripple Creek.

Superintendent I. H. Bingham after a few days visit to Portland arrived at the Musick last Sunday.

The recent rains has had a tendency to check travel in and out of the mining district, but there is consolation in the fact that a few days sunshine will line the mountain roads with travelers again.

The freighters are to be commended for the very wise position they took in pulling off freight teams as much as possible during the recent rains. This leaves the roads smooth and with a few days sunshine, they road will be found to be in almost as good shape as before the "moisture." Had travel continued, it would have required considerable work and not a little time to smooth them up again.

Bert Nunn is now employed as amalgamator at the Noonday mill. Bert is alright.

E. S. Adams of New York who has been looking after mining claims in the hills has, it is stated located 7 claims near the Ridge hotel, and the assays run from $14 to $28.

Considerable excitement exists at the Ridge hotel owing to the rich discoveries recently. Among the many glowing prospects is that of the Helms Bros. about a half mile north of the Ridge, hotel. The ore is free milling and is chuck full of the yellow stuff. It is said that it assays way up into the thousands. A crosscut is being put through and the last report says they were 6½ feet into the ledge and not near through yet. According to the croppings the ledge is about 14 feet wide.

Visitors galore are in the camp each week, demonstrating the general interest taken in the mines throughout the several mining sections.

Chester F. Lee, mining expert, who has been in the diggings for several weeks, left Tuesday for your city, having finished his labors here for the present.

KANSAS IS PROSPEROUS,

The people of Kansas have no reason to complain of conditions this year. The corn crop of the state is phenomenal. The great problem is how to store and ship it when it is husked, for the volume of the crop is far beyond the crib capacity and transportation facilities of the state.

This is but one element of the state's prosperity. Everybody is making money. The farmers have fat balances in bank. A veteran buyer says: "I have been in the state thirty years, and I have never known the farmers to be in the condition they are now. Heretofore when I have contracted for corn or for cattle or for hogs the farmer has wanted his money as early as possible. He has not been able or willing to wait until the crop was delivered or the stock
