

About the Vesuvius.—The following is an extract from a letter received from C. H. Park who is attending the sale of the Vesuvius, addressed to Attorney Chas. A. Harly, Eugene, as printed by the Guard of Sept. 4: "Northampton, Aug. 30. I am pleased to learn that good ore has been struck in the Vesuvius. I leave today for London to close up the deal I have made with a very strong English mining company, on the Vesuvius group, I shall bring the strongest mining company to Bohemia that has yet entered the field there, and hope to return to Oregon about October 1, prepared to mine old Fairview mountain inside out. It shall be about three weeks in making the round trip from here to London and back again. The trade is all made, but I must go there to sign the contract agreement, etc. Very Truly, C. H. Park."

Hardly Enough to Go Around.—A car load of watermelons from Southern Oregon was laid over at the S. P. depot Monday evening, and a goodly number were sold to Cottage Grove merchants. An old knight of the truck was heard to say in commenting upon watermelons, boys and "sich": "I'll be — if there aint more boys in Cottage Grove than any place I know of. Why, I'll be blowed if there wasn't a boy hanging around to every watermelon in that car."

Here to Reside.—R. W. Newland and family of Brownsville, have arrived here and taken up their home in the De Wald property, north 4th street. Mr. Newland is of the firm of Newland & Garman of Brownsville, soon to occupy the Sherwood block with a full stock of general merchandise. Mr. Newland is well pleased with Cottage Grove, his new store building, the people and surrounding country.

Returned Home.—J. E. Brooks, David Letsinger, Ivan Mahalon and W. H. Scott of Crawfordsville, who have been prospecting several weeks in the Bohemia district, returned home last Saturday, having located a claim to their entire satisfaction near the Ridge hotel. The ore assays $157.48 to the ton, at a depth of 25 feet on the ledge which has a width of 3 feet.

Enlisted Again.—Myron Hicks of this city, who was a rough rider in the Spanish war, and who was discharged owing to having received a hurt which disabled him for several months, has again entered the service of Uncle Sam. He enlisted in Co. F 35th U. S. Volunteer Infantry, at Marysville California, on August 12, and is now at Vancouver awaiting orders to go to the Philippines.

Oyster Supper.—Last Friday evening the Rebekahs gave an enjoyable oyster supper at their hall immediately after the business session of the lodge closed. Oysters galore and other "fixin's" to correspond were in evidence. Good music and street songs also added to the enjoyment of the evening and all enjoyed a delightful evening.

Returned.—James Hemenway, who recently made a trip to Colorado with the view of trading Oregon for Colorado property, returned last week. Mr. Hemenway enjoyed his trip very much but got all out of the notion of trading. He expresses himself all the more pleased with Oregon upon his return.

Returned to Oregon.—Joseph J. Webber formerly of this city but who sold out his interests here a couple of years ago and with his family went to Minnesota, has returned here and expresses himself well satisfied with Oregon and glad to get back. He has decided to have made the remark, that he would rather be dead in Oregon than alive in Minnesota. Mr. Webber has already invested since returning, having bought Jas. Millers cigar and collection store on Main street, and two lots in McFarland's addition upon which he will commence the erection of two neat dwellings in the near future. Mr. Webber's friends are pleased to see him return to Oregon, and trust that he will remain this time.

Returned Home.—Attorney J. E. Young, who has been looking after his mining properties in Bohemia the past three weeks returned home last Tuesday night. Mr. Young reports work progressing nicely on the Gold Cross claim. He says he has three men at work, that they have built a cabin and tool house, and got in supplies for about a three months run. He is well pleased with the prospect thus far and looks forward to a time when he will realize a pretty good thing.

Too Moist.—G. R. Christman and family arrived here Sunday from Eugene, by private conveyance bound for an outing in Bohemia. Mr. Dave Markley accompanied them, but Gabe found a little too much Oregon damp in the hills and so the party returned here Tuesday.

Wanted.—A copy of Bohemia Nugget under date of August 12. Please bring it in.
