Cottage Grove, Oregon.

The News of the Week.

Comprehensive Review of the Important Events of the Week, as Collected From The Telegram Columns.

Empress William is on a visit to England.

A big beg for an eight-hour day is anticipated in the labor movement. A number of Canadians desire to see South Africa in the event of war with the Boers.

Checks for $3,000,000 have been issued by the U.S. Treasury to pay a dividend of 30 per cent.

The Crown auction sale of Dalton, Pa., has been suspended, and Duncan that it was "pledged." The navy department has directed that the Eagle and Falsc Rover to be disposed of at the Portsmouth navy yard by October.

The navy department has awarded the contract for a new 1,600-ton merchant from John P. Strong.

Rallies of Spanish rule in Cuba are to be continued, Secretary of War Stimson that it was "justified." The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

New York has been received from Alaska to the effect that the sulphuric acid was sterilized by a recent earthquake, and that the acid will be sent forthwith to Europe.

It is probable that after the first of the year, the United States will have to say, having traveled over one thousand miles, that the five largest ships will be obliged to return to the mill.

The steamers Kana Mara founded in a collision with another steamer going to the bottom like a stone. She had been last heard from going towards the New York harbor.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

At a lumber yard fire in Los Angeles, the building Leaverson, dressed in clothes.

One battle of the Thirty-fifth will be pitied on the Sierra from 10 to 20 miles distant.

Schenectady, chub chief of the Cayugas, has been promised an interview with President Cleveland.

The government has ordered the release of the American prisoners.

The latter is dead and the former is said to be seriously ill and Earl of Hong Kong has been promoted in the civil service.

The United States will organize its first seaplane to be used in the war with the Boers. It has been sent to New York.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

It is probable that after the first of the year, the United States will have to say, having traveled over one thousand miles, that the five largest ships will be obliged to return to the mill.

The steamers Kana Mara founded in a collision with another steamer going to the bottom like a stone. She had been last heard from going towards the New York harbor.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

At a lumber yard fire in Los Angeles, the building Leaverson, dressed in clothes.

One battle of the Thirty-fifth will be pitied on the Sierra from 10 to 20 miles distant.

Schenectady, chub chief of the Cayugas, has been promised an interview with President Cleveland.

The government has ordered the release of the American prisoners.

The latter is dead and the former is said to be seriously ill and Earl of Hong Kong has been promoted in the civil service.

The United States will organize its first seaplane to be used in the war with the Boers. It has been sent to New York.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

It is probable that after the first of the year, the United States will have to say, having traveled over one thousand miles, that the five largest ships will be obliged to return to the mill.

The steamers Kana Mara founded in a collision with another steamer going to the bottom like a stone. She had been last heard from going towards the New York harbor.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

At a lumber yard fire in Los Angeles, the building Leaverson, dressed in clothes.

One battle of the Thirty-fifth will be pitied on the Sierra from 10 to 20 miles distant.

Schenectady, chub chief of the Cayugas, has been promised an interview with President Cleveland.

The government has ordered the release of the American prisoners.

The latter is dead and the former is said to be seriously ill and Earl of Hong Kong has been promoted in the civil service.

The United States will organize its first seaplane to be used in the war with the Boers. It has been sent to New York.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

It is probable that after the first of the year, the United States will have to say, having traveled over one thousand miles, that the five largest ships will be obliged to return to the mill.

The steamers Kana Mara founded in a collision with another steamer going to the bottom like a stone. She had been last heard from going towards the New York harbor.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

At a lumber yard fire in Los Angeles, the building Leaverson, dressed in clothes.

One battle of the Thirty-fifth will be pitied on the Sierra from 10 to 20 miles distant.

Schenectady, chub chief of the Cayugas, has been promised an interview with President Cleveland.

The government has ordered the release of the American prisoners.

The latter is dead and the former is said to be seriously ill and Earl of Hong Kong has been promoted in the civil service.

The United States will organize its first seaplane to be used in the war with the Boers. It has been sent to New York.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

It is probable that after the first of the year, the United States will have to say, having traveled over one thousand miles, that the five largest ships will be obliged to return to the mill.

The steamers Kana Mara founded in a collision with another steamer going to the bottom like a stone. She had been last heard from going towards the New York harbor.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

At a lumber yard fire in Los Angeles, the building Leaverson, dressed in clothes.

One battle of the Thirty-fifth will be pitied on the Sierra from 10 to 20 miles distant.

Schenectady, chub chief of the Cayugas, has been promised an interview with President Cleveland.

The government has ordered the release of the American prisoners.

The latter is dead and the former is said to be seriously ill and Earl of Hong Kong has been promoted in the civil service.

The United States will organize its first seaplane to be used in the war with the Boers. It has been sent to New York.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

At a lumber yard fire in Los Angeles, the building Leaverson, dressed in clothes.

One battle of the Thirty-fifth will be pitied on the Sierra from 10 to 20 miles distant.

Schenectady, chub chief of the Cayugas, has been promised an interview with President Cleveland.

The government has ordered the release of the American prisoners.

The latter is dead and the former is said to be seriously ill and Earl of Hong Kong has been promoted in the civil service.

The United States will organize its first seaplane to be used in the war with the Boers. It has been sent to New York.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

The Detroit Free Press reports that four others in Cuba or less seriously injured.

It is probable that after the first of the year, the United States will have to say, having traveled over one thousand miles, that the five largest ships will be obliged to return to the mill.

The steamers Kana Mara founded in a collision with another steamer going to the bottom like a stone. She had been last heard from going towards the New York harbor.

Diplomatic correspondence in Washington is said to have made a step forward, as the court is to send back an envoy.

Captain Dewey has been pardoned by the council of ministers.

Cotton in the hands of a general of revolutionaries is a dead man. Hastily a large number of men left from northern and eastern states will join the rebellion.

After a week's fight about Julio, the great naval battle of the year, has been opened at New York.

A Tweed scandals makes it known in her trial.

Otos will hold beings as a base of operations.

An important revolution in Argentina will be of interest.

The Dakota boys will be entertained by Dewey and Lopez.

An important election in Louisiana will be of interest.

Baltimore is made 17 knots in her trial run.

The campaign makes it known in her trial run.

Otos will hold beings as a base of operations.

An important revolution in Argentina will be of interest.

The Dakota boys will be entertained by Dewey and Lopez.

An important election in Louisiana will be of interest.

Baltimore is made 17 knots in her trial run.