Wythe's Oreganian announces that the U.S. grand jury has found indictments against J. J. Lemmings and J. J. Lemmings for preventing Deputy U. S. Surveyor Collier from surveying a private lands claim.

In conclusion, Mr. H. Pek, the well-known mining man now interested in the Veins and Stocks & Harbors in mining that in all his mining experience he has nevervisited a more sweeping mining district than Bohemian, judging from the character of ores and adequate supplies of timber and water.

While the average American cannot help feeling admiration for the Shumock and her crew and skipper, still all sport-loving natives of this side of the big pond are shaking hands with themselves on account of the Cunliff's easy victory thus far in the great yacht race. The Shumock was calculated for a winner and she "looked the part" so well that many of Cunliff's proud admirers were a little sorry for the result. But the win is off. Cunliff will be the cup next year! Mr. Timperly will stand his ground and an appropriate cable to you in the Nugget this week. For quality and cheapness no need to seek in the Central market.
