

Typhoid Fever.

A letter to J. M. Sherwood from his brother George at Weiser, Idaho, announces that Mrs. Sherwood is now on the road to recovery from an attack of typhoid fever which has held her but since the middle of May. It also chronicles the death of Miss Cora Hendricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lefebrere, well known in Lane county, at whose home Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood are staying. Chester Hendricks' brother of the deceased girl is now bedfast with the same disease. Since Mrs. Sherwood's illness she has been a witness to three deaths in the household. Mr. Sherwood writes that as soon as his wife is able to be moved they will visit the Willamette valley.

Married.

Sunday at 12:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father Mr. Robt. Griffin in this city, Mr. G. W. McQueen and Miss Bertha Griffin were united in marriage, Rev. M. O. Brink officiating. Those witnessing the ceremony were Dr. and Mrs. Petrie, Messrs. Ivan and Wm. McQueen, Misses May and Zaida McQueen, Mrs. Geo. Wm. McQueen, Mr. C. Morrow, Miss Bessie Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Potts, Mr. Jesse Griffin, Mr. Albert Griffin, Mrs. Lottie Olson and daughter Miss Lottie Olson. Mr. and Mrs. McQueen will take up their residence in the new home on the West side, where they will be pleased to see their many friends who wish them all sorts of happiness.

Will Bring Him Back.

U. G. Walker swore out a warrant Tuesday for the arrest of M. C. Campbell who formerly ran a bakery and who left some weeks ago for the southern part of the state with the understanding that he would return and settle up. He worked into the confidence of Mr. Walker and borrowed money from him mortgaging some personal property. After he had departed it was discovered he had taken with him some of the mortgaged property hence the warrant for his arrest. Constable McFarland left on the local expecting to catch his man in Jackson county Tuesday.

Copper Showing.

Last Saturday Messrs J. M. Sherwood and Albert Zineaker accompanied by C. H. Park of the Vesuvius group went to Yoncolla to inspect a showing of copper formation which has been known for some time on the Applegate property about five miles from that place. Upon their arrival they found an exceedingly good showing of copper, but hardly in sufficient quantity to justify taking hold of it at the present time.

Home From Alaska.

Thomas Hunt a member of the Alaskan geological survey corps who left here to join his party last spring returned home and was shaking hands with his many friends Tuesday. Mr. Hunt looks as though he had been treated pretty nicely in the land of gold nuggets and icebergs, but talks of having had a more unpleasant territory over which to travel this season than the preceding one.

After 29 Years.

After 29 years residence in Douglas and this county, some weeks ago M. Bidwell and family of this city visited their old home and relatives near Hubbard, as well as Portland and other way points. Mr. Bidwell came here from Hubbard 29 years ago and this was his first visit home. He noted many changes in Oregon City and other towns once so familiar to him.

New Management.

The Black butte quick silver mine which has been under the management of Wm Harris is now under the direction of W. B. Dennis of Spokane, Wash., who is now on the property making active operations for continuous work. The recent strike made in the new tunnel is very promising.

Satisfactory Season.

Superintendent B. E. Hawley accompanied by his wife returned to his mining interests this week after a two weeks visit at Eugene. Mr. Hawley will work a shift of men on the Anacosta property this winter, as well as leave several men doing development work on the Calipsoa group. He speaks in favorable terms of the result of this seasons development work on the Calipsoa mine, which has added to the work already done 110 feet cross cut and 120 feet drift. The ore uncovered has gone higher in value than was expected and the members of the company are well pleased. Mr. and Mrs. Hawley will remain in the camp during the winter.

The Lecture.

Rev. W. S. Gilbert, the famous chaplain of the brave Oregon regiment, lectured at Martin's Hall Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League to a well filled house. The lecture was one of interest from start to finish and Chaplain Gilbert held the close attention of his hearers during the entire two hours. He took up the incidents of war from the sighting of Guam, on to the close of the eventful trip. Chaplain Gilbert is a magnetic speaker, which, rounded out by a splendid education, coupled with the noble record made in the service of his country, makes him a most popular and interesting lecturer.

DIVIDE ITEMS.
W W Taylor pretended miner was taken sick a short time ago while his partner was absent. He was cared for by kind friends, said he was dying and made his will leaving money to all of them. It now appears that he is a swindler of the first magnitude, without a single cent. Mr Simpson is out about $100 and somewhat mad. Mr Talyor has now left here much regretted by his many friends. [Mr. Taylor could hardly be called a swindler as he has been adjudged insane and taken to the asylum—Ed.]
Mr. Jacob Geiwity made a three days visit to Yoncolla last week.
School opened last week Monday with Miss McDole as teacher, but as she was taken sick Tuesday night it stopped for a few days.
