

"Hard" on Him.—E. J. Hard, the mining man made a quick trip to Bohemia and returned last week, covering the distance in 19 hours. On his return trip he met with quite an accident. It was about 12 o'clock at night as his horse was nosing out the night just above Bohemia Sharp's place, that his saddle turned throwing Mr. Hard to the ground. His head came in contact with some hard substance, presumably a rock and not quite a gash but above the left temple, and he was otherwise badly shaken up. His horse went about half a mile down the road from the place where the accident occurred, where Mr. Hard found him, and completed his journey without further incident.

Got the Worst of It.—John Cochran of the furniture firm of Martin & Cochran went against a new spring bed the other day and got the worst of it. It was a one round bout, and John got put out with what looks like a left jawing on the eye. He was switching a new wire across the frame when one of the end pieces slipped, the result of the wire landed the cleat on John's left eye with such force as to blind him for the time, and blackened his eye in a manner calculated to lessen much of his beauty. He will carry a damaged eye for some time.

Will Locate.—Tom Jenkins, who for eleven years has been in the carriage, sign and house painting business in Eugene, and considered one of the finest workmen in the Willamette valley arrived here last Tuesday and has decided to locate. He will erect a paint room and use for him as soon as the lumber can be procured, on his property in the rear of Martin & Cochran's furniture store.

From the Wall Street.—C. A. Mann foreman of the Wall street mining property, arrived Sunday night for his summer's work developing the property. Mr. Mann says they have driven a 200 foot cross cut this year and he feels the summer's work will result in much good to the company. He left Monday for Portland where he will spend the winter.

Charge of the Boarding House.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones have taken charge of the Musick mine boarding house, and hereafter will provide for the luncheon at that camp. Mrs. Jones has the reputation of being a first class cook and will no doubt treat the boarders right.

Laying In Stock.—Ed Davidson the Jeweler, is laying in well selected stock of jewelry, which is on exhibition at his establishment on Main street in attractive show cases. His goods are from the best sources and calculated to please the most fastidious.

Married.—At Lorane, Oregon, Nov. 19, 1899, Mr. Roy Rogers to Miss Ida Davis, Rev. O. O. Brink officiating. The contracting parties are well and favorably known in that vicinity and their many friends wish them much prosperity.

Struck It Big.—Chas. Clay reports that he has struck big on his property in Bohemia on Monte Rico ridge. He has a ledge something like 28 feet in width chock full of the right kind of stuff. Good luck to him. He is deserving of it.

On Furlough.—L. Van Fleet son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Fleet, who enlisted as a heavy artillery man about a year and a half ago, stationed at Fort Canby, arrived home last Saturday on a furlough.

High Water.—High water is reported on Sharp Creek and tributaries to Row river. The other night the water came up to the seats on the stage, while fording Sharp's Creek.

For the Winter.—Bobt. Veatch and family who have been in charge of the Music mine boarding house for a few weeks have removed to Cottage Grove where they will spend the winter.

Hines Sold.—The mining property in the Blue river mining district owned by Chancy Hines was sold to F. H. Osgood a Seattle capitalist for $8270.

Heard From.—It is now generally conceded that a letter has been received from the missing deputy sheriff, H. J. Day, and it was mailed from Great Falls, Montana, although the contents of the same shows that it was sent to that place to be forwarded.—Guard.

Epworth League.—Saturday night Epworth League will have a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Boyd. An enjoyable time is anticipated.

A good old Mason made the remark the other day that the reason no street light was placed in front of the Masonic temple, this city, was to protect visiting brethren from forming an unfavorable opinion of the hall, this on the basis that if one man got inside they would be favorably impressed—all that is necessary is to keep them from seeing the outside. Well never mind, next year will see an improvement in the outside appearance no doubt.
