

POP STUMPED.

A gentleman told us the other day that his ten year old boy asked him a question that with all his wisdom and experience he was utterly unable to answer.

USEFUL INVENTION.

Dr. Clinton Cook, formerly of this city, but now residing in the state of Minnesota, has recently obtained a patent for an invention that will undoubtedly prove invaluable to the medical profession.

While the democrats are still jubilant over the Nebraska election results, the St Louis Globe Democrat thinks the republicans have more reason to be jubilant over the returns from that state than the democrats.

It will delude the democrats into anticipating Bryan next year, and will incite them to make a final expansion. Here are two figures which will make a fine business they would mourning rules around the election figures from Nebraska.
