

New Year Apples.—

Uncle Ves Veatch dropped in New Years morning all smiles, and after wishing the Nugget all sorts of prosperity, for the New Year, fished out two or three pretty apples as you will ever see, of the White Bellflower or Porter variety, which he picked along with several others from a young tree in his orchard. Mr. Veatch stated that they grew on the under branches and were protected from the birds which play havoc with fruit in the fall. He had noticed the fruit some time ago and told the members of his family that if the birds did not find them he would pick them New Years morning, which he did. The fruit is of delicious flavor, and the only regret Uncle Ves has is that there were not more of them. He also had the pleasure of plucking a number of squashes from his garden the same morning.

Hot Time.—

A couple of street toughs one named Evans, were thrown into the cooler by Marshal Miller New Years night, and they had a "hot time" right away. One was too drunk to sit up, and the other Evans was too devilish to keep still, so while the one puked and slumbered, the other coal oiled the stove, wood and floor, set fire to it, and then commenced a fantastic war dance and to kick the stove down. The flames from the burning oil in the stove and ashes attracted quite a number and it looked at one time as though the building would catch, and it is a wonder that it did not. Marshal Miller was soon notified and he came down and locked them up safe and sound.

Recorder's Court.—

Recorder Medley had quite a run of business this week, Tuesday morning, Robt. Benham was up on the charge of being drunk and disorderly and fined $2.50 and costs. "Mack" Evans was arraigned for disorderly conduct. Judge Medley made it cost him a fine of $2.50 and costs. He was also arraigned for for boisterous, abusive and profane language, and received a sentence of 2½ days in jail, sentence suspended during good behavior.

Milk Wagon.—

Mr. Rice has made arrangements to supply the long felt want and last Monday put milk wagon on the streets and is prepared to furnish the best of milk from the Cochran farm near town. Success to the enterprise.

He was brought before Squire Vaughn Tuesday morning and fined $5 the lowest penalty prescribed. Mr. Rouse paid the fine and some of his buds made up a collection and gave back to him.
