

His 21st Birthday.

Last Saturday, Jan. 6, 1900, was his 21st birthday, and in honor thereof his mother Mrs. Ella Wall gave her son Ralph D. Whipple, a party, that is yet spoken of by those present as one of the most pleasing events in the history of their social life. The elegant home of Dr. and Mrs. Wall is a charming home of entertainment at all times, and on this particular evening nothing was overlooked that would add to the comfort and pleasure of guests and son alike. Whist and other parlor games were indulged in until about 12 o'clock, when the dining room doors were thrown open and the guests invited to partake of as delicious a supper as was ever spread. One of the attractive features of the supper was the doctors' famous plum pudding, which never fails to please the most fastidious. The supper was discussed until nearly 2 o'clock when the guests showered congratulation after congratulation upon Mr. Whipple and departed for home to dream of plum pudding and happy cheerful faces. Among the useful and highly appreciated presents given Mr. Whipple was a handsome gold ring, made of Bohemia gold with a garnet setting. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Wall, Misses Mary Curran, Lulu Curran, Ermine Veatch, Nora Perkins, Robie Baker, Nina Ostrander, Grace Hemenway, Benetta Whipple, Ida Thomas, of this city, and Ethel Murray of Eugene. Messrs. Jesse Griffin, Roy Hemenway, Theodore Jennings, Frank Jennings, Winters Wallace, Geo. Griffith, Frank Whipple, and Ralph D. Whipple.

The New Proprietors.

The changes in proprietorship of the Fashion Stables of this city have been frequent of late. On the 1st Duncan Scott of Eugene bought out Chas. Henderer & Co and before the week was over Eli Bangs the pioneer stable man of Eugene and Scott Chrisman of this city, former owner of the business, purchased the same. This throws the business into the hands of the two best livery men in the Willamette valley. Eli Bangs hasn't a peer in Oregon in his line of business, and Scott Chrisman has the reputation among the drummers—and they know a thing or two about livery service—of being one of the best in the state. It is understood that everything in the barn will be overhauled and new and up-to-date improvements will be made preparatory to the spring trade. Another guarantee of faithful and systematic service is the quartering of Harrison Bristow, one of Mr. Bangs' most competent drivers and stable men, at the Fashion Stables. Success and prosperity is sure to come through the efforts of the new firm.

Republican Club.

Last Thursday night Jan. 4 1900, a republican meeting was held at the city hall and a republican club was organized with a membership of over 100 to commence on the 1st of the month at the Cottage Grove Republican Club. The officers elected for the ensuing two years were C. J. Howard, president; C. H. Burkholder, vice president; James Hemenway, secretary; Darwin Bristow, treasurer. Upon motion the club adjourned to meet Thursday January 13, at which time the delegates to the state League will be elected. The membership of the club at present entitles the Cottage Grove organization to five delegates. Every republican should be present, and take an active part in the election of delegates. The membership roll will also be open for signers. Come out gentlemen and swell the list.

Got 25 Days.

Saturday evening Marshal Miller was telephoned from Creswell that a tramp had stolen a coat from a bridge carpenter in the employ of the Southern Pacific. A description was given of the man and Marshal Miller found him in the hobo camp near town. He had traded the coat to another knight of the road, but the marshal claimed the coat. The relative stated that he had traded the coat and stated that he had bought it from another member of the free and easy fraternity. He was arraigned before Judge Vaughn that evening. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Harris who happened to be in town appearing for the state, and found guilty. He was given 25 days in jail, and Robt. Veatch was deputized to escort the gentleman to Eugene to serve out his sentence.

Nashville Students.

Last Friday evening the Nashville Students played to one of the best houses Cottage Grove ever turned out to a traveling company, at Martin's Hall, while the entertainment was not just what many of the patrons expected and the price of admission was a little high, still for the kind it was quite creditable.

Sensational.

Winnie Thorn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thorn of Latham, disappeared Sunday afternoon. Search was made for her but no trace could be obtained until Tuesday morning when she returned from Roseburg from where she had been sent home by her uncle. The girl is said to tell a pitiful story. She claims that when on her way home from this city Sunday afternoon she was forced into a box car attached to a freight train. From that time everything was a blank to her. Upon her return home she was found to be in a very excitable condition and it is alleged that evidences of the commission of a most foul and dastardly crime is at hand. Prosecuting Attorney Brown and his able deputy, L. T. Harris of Eugene have been at work on the case. However at present, no arrests have been made. The girl's testimony regarding her treatment is said to be sensational and her condition upon her return home shocking. The young lady is of a respectable family and has always borne a good name. If the reports which have been circulated are true the penitentiary gates stand ajar for the black hearted whelps who committed the crime.

Died.

At his home in Eugene, Jan. 9 1900, H. C. Owen, one of the pioneers of '44 after a general breaking down which has been undermining the once powerful constitution, for the past three years, passed over the border to mingle with his early day associates the majority of whom preceded him. Deceased was one of the best known pioneer characters in the state; was prominent in the early political history of Oregon and was known from one end of the state to the other. He leaves four sons and one daughter, J. W. and Clay Owen of Monroe; Benjamin A. and Nesmith Owen of Lane county, and Mrs. Henrietta Mansfield of Nampa, Idaho.

Official Visitors.

The Modern Woodmen of America Camp of this city received Major Wilsie, of Wichita, Kansas, Supt. Deputy counsel of the organization, and Deputy Organizer Chas. Biglow, last Tuesday on official business. Major Wilsie has headquarters at Eugene for the present and is doing some very effective work along the line of fraternal insurance for his camp, and is ably assisted by Deputy Biglow, who will have temporary headquarters here with the view of looking after the interests of this camp. Mr. Biglow is a worker and will no doubt do some effectual service for the local camp.

Funeral of Hon. Robt. Clow.

Dr. G. W. Wall and Mayor Darwin Bristow of this city attended the funeral service for Hon. Robt. Clow held at Eugene last Sunday, conducted by the Masonic Grand Lodge assisted by the Eugene Masonic Lodge. Mr. Clow was also a member of the Elks and that lodge attended in a body. Mr. Clow was a 32nd degree Mason and was prominently spoken of as one of the best posted members of the fraternity, having served for years as a member of the committee on Law and Jurisprudence.

To Look After Their Property.

J. M. Sherwood is in receipt of a letter from D. R. Ladd, of San Jose, California, who represents his mother's interest in the Knotts property, Bohemia, the first patented mining claim in the district, which has laid dormant for a number of years, and asks for information regarding this section, stating that he and his mother will probably visit this section and their mining interests this coming spring.

Trouble on Row River.

Judge Vaughn had the case, State vs Elsy Van Schoiack before him last Saturday, John Redford being the complaining witness. It seems that trouble had existed between the two gentlemen for some time, and Friday, it was alleged that defendant assaulted plaintiff on the high way and the charge filed against defendant was that of assault. Mr. Van Schoiack was fined $5 and costs.

Acme Sold.

Mrs. E. J. Humphrey who has successfully managed the Acme restaurant for several months, this week purchased the business and will hereafter assume the entire responsibility. Mrs. Humphrey is a splendid cook and has been quite successful in the management. There is no reason to believe that she will not, with her determination to run a first class up-to-date eating house, succeed in every sense of the word.

Slipped and Fell.

Miss Pearl Smith of Walker met with a painful accident one day last week. She was stepping into the buggy at the home of Mr. Wright, when she slipped and fell, injuring her hip quite severely.

Seriously Hurt.

The little 8-year-old son J. L. Borneburg, met with a serious accident this week. He was on a horse power while it was in motion and fell off. His knee was caught in the cogs and the flesh was severely mangled and torn from the bone. Dr. Wall was called and dressed the wound, and at last reports the boy was doing nicely.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's parents Mr and Mrs Frank Veatch, near Divide, Mr. Casper Lea of this city and Miss Nora Veatch were united in marriage Rev. Wallace officiating. The contracting parties are well and favorably known here and their many friends hasten to tender congratulations.

Married.

January 8, 1900, at the home of the groom Mr. Shelby Testers and Miss Hattie M. Van Schoiack were united in marriage, Judge Vaughn of this city officiating. Congratulations.
