FRIDAY, FEB. 2, 1900.

Every voter should make it his special business to register as soon as possible. The object of the law is to do away with illegal voting and in order to assist the law every honest voter should come up and register. If you do not register you cannot vote. Don't put it off. If no one registers there will be a mighty small vote cast the coming election. Residents of outside precincts should look into this matter. It is fair to presume that every available voter living in the cities and large towns of the state will be registered. If they do and you don't, they are pretty apt to have things going their own way. Walk up gentlemen and register. It only takes a moment.

The Review of Roseburg, undoubtedly the biggest (?) paper on earth, also edited by one of the biggest scandal mongers and blackmailers on earth, making two of the biggest things on earth, is very much exercised that the Nugget should dare to comment upon the Harvey abduction case, and then laments the fact that the Oregonian thought sufficiently well of the article to give it space. The Nugget has said nothing it cannot substantiate, and has not reflected upon railroad men who are gentlemen, but upon the class to which this man Harvey and, undoubtedly, Patterson, belong.

FREE ADVERTISING.

Tuesday, The Twice-A-Week Review received five new subscribers, one from Roseburg, one from Yoncalla, two from Coles Valley and one from South Dakota. All came in without solicitation. Two new subscribers to the Daily Review, were also received. Since the beginning of the month the Twice-A-Week Review has added 30 names to its subscription list. Last year was the most prosperous in the history of the paper, but the new year opens with still brighter promises.—Roseburg Review.

The editor of the Review, evidently, in his anxiety to appraise the public of his growing subscription list, admits that these are prosperous times and still getting better, and yet, in nearly every issue of his paper, he complains of the present administration and laments the passing of the good old democratic days; with its, closed factories, suspended banks, idle laborers, disastrous strikes, and Coxy armies marching to Washington asking for employment and bread. Does the Review want these times to return? Would it exchange the Philippine army for a Coxy army. Would it exchange the hum of the factory wheel for the murmur of hungry laboring man? Would it exchange the screech of the engine whistle for the cries of suffering women and children? Is the Review aware that others as well as itself are prosperous these times?—Medford Eye.

HADN'T HEARD OF IT.

Lots of people are wondering what will be the next development in the Plummer-Geer penitentiary case. The general impression is that if the governor lets the matter rest as at present it will result in his political undoing.—Polk County Itemizer.

Well we hadn't heard of it. There is a very small minority, who take any stock in the stories which originated in the brain of Plummer, a man who is recognized in his own party as one of the lowest reprobates that ever disgraced politics. If the public will read the literature of recent circulation, emanating from this broken down politician of Polk, giving Governor Geer credit for being a man of ordinary business sense, without any effort to believe him honest, the conclusion will be readily reached that the stories are a lie from beginning to end. The only thing to wonder about just now is what will be the magnitude of the next lie the Plummer outfit will coin.
