JENNINGS BROS--BRUNEAU

in The Famous Helena Mining Case---The Most Interesting Litigation in The Mining Northwest.

The great mining law suit which has demanded the attention of Judge Hamilton's Court at Roseburg Douglas County, went to the court Monday forenoon and after several hours deliberation that body rendered a clear verdict in favor of Jennings Bros and Bruneau.

The title of the suit just decided is G. G. Warner, et al vs Jennings Bros and Chas. Bruneau, and was filed in court over a year ago to decide the title to the "Helena" the richest mine on the Pacific coast located in

BOHEMIA MINING DISTRICT.

Warner set up that he had a prior location known as the Badger and that Chas. Bruneau, the locator of the Helena, jumped his claim. However this angel of truth (?) (Warner) let Mr. Bruneau go on with his prospect and development work without making any resistance, and in fact few people knew that he made claim to the property for nearly three years after Bruneau located and commenced development work.

Chas Bruneau is one of the man-
