liest, and best thought of boys who reports were received on has even entered the district and he people acquainted any jus worked away on his new location a joke, but Warner of her with firm determination which was The adventurer had a rewarded with success. He soon portunity to get to con struck flattening prospects, which nothing. He laid by the promised to develop into magni- start well, but his average. ficient showings. In the mean time, desire not only to get med being without money, he decided to get three or four par de to sell a interest in the Helena to perchance, a stampe me in Jennings Bros in order to develop addled him. the property The Jennings Bros He was without fine and having considerable means, develop- case and so he huste in the was menced. From the very first great whom he told a smore, by leads of marvelously rich free mill- made out a good carame of ing ore was struck. There is al- About this time Jara ways a vagabond in every com- and Bruneau applied to the munity, and in this instance it Then the fun begundling proved to be this man G G Warner about concocting littles prot who had come here and made him- dirty schemes to get tow of self generally obuoxious to the the Helena into but takin working class in the mines by create public sentors, at being instrumental in beating them them. out of a portion of their pay About this time thew for labor performed for Mr McGee with one Herbert Leighed who was then running the property larged sized warts of appoint now known as the Noonday Co. boasts of the guns is the Warner watched the progress of the grave yards he has a in Ik rich strike at the Helena with hawk cides he has cause none like eyes and as good prospects upon the money fure in were reported he sent out rumors to sister, who it is the effect that he had prior location charming and prise the t and that the Helena was his. These who expends a certain these had a

immediately com- capital and legal to of