

COW ORDINANCE.
It is said that the ordinance prohibiting cows from running at large on the streets of Cottage Grove, recently passed by the city council, will go into effect April 1. There is some argument as to the advisability of retaining such an ordinance, some contending that there are many families within the corporate limits of this city, to whom a cow is an actual necessity who cannot afford to keep a cow up. It may work a temporary hardship on some cow owners on this line, but by judicious feeding the increase in milk and butter will more than make up the difference. It is a foregone conclusion that Cottage Grove will never be considered much of a town and never have decent sidewalks until cows are ruled off the streets.

A GOOD SHOWING.
The Cottage Grove Republican Club has now 107 members. Much enthusiasm is manifest among the republicans of this section and a rousing old vote is sure to be polled this fall. A democrat of long standing, a laboring man by the way, was heard to remark the other day, that he could not afford to run the risk of voting for a repetition of the times prior to the election of McKinley and therefore would have to abandon his old line democratic ticket.

MAD UP $20.
Mr. Ike Taylor whose team ran away Tuesday, becoming frightened at the Jennings-Bruneau demonstration, called at the Nugget office and gave information that a subscription of $20 had been made up for him to defray the expenses of repairs. Mr. Taylor was highly pleased at the interest taken and extends his sincere thanks to those who so kindly contributed.

THE BEGINNING AND THE END.
A reporter happened into Jennings & Lawson's paint depot the other day and noted a peculiar incident. The gentlemen had in their paint room the hearse of Cochran & Bevin undergoing repairs and a baby buggy taking on bright new finish. It was a good reminder of the beginning and the ending of life's fitful journey.

RUNAWAY.
Ike Taylor's team ran away Tuesday noon. The horses were frightened by the hearty reception given the Jennings Bros. and Bruneau upon their return from Roseburg. Some damage was done to the wagon and one horse was considerably bruised. They ran into a shed near the planing mill and sang up.

WILL SOON START UP.
In all probability the Helena pump mill will start up in the course of a week or to days. This means the employment of from 20 to 40 hands. The owners have lots of free milling ore on the dump running all the way from $50 per ton, and the property will make a tremendous record for Bohemia District.

BOHEMIA MINER.
Louis Betters, who sold his interest in the Bohemia mines in order to prospect in the Philippine lands, is now in the United States Army in Luzon. Mr. Betters says that the army furnishes the only occupation for an American in the Philippines.—Guard.

ON THE SCARP.
The handsomely embroidered water piece, the handiwork of Miss Rose Williams which was drawn at Lurch's store last Saturday was on by Mrs. E. A. Sears. The piece is very pretty as well as useful.

NEW SIDE WALK.
A new side walk is being laid along the Cochran & Bevin furniture store to Jenkins & Lawson paint depot. A good improvement.

LOYD HIS BARBER SHOP.
E. R. Case has removed his barber shop from R. S. Smith confectionery and cigar store to the Bohemia Hotel.

SUDDEN DEATH.
Tuesday evening, March 13, 1900, J. W. Arnold, of this city, died at the hotel at Roseburg, of heart disease, aged 40 years and 22 days. John Wesley Arnold, accompanied by his family, came to Cottage Grove from Canton, Illinois, October 15, 1899, and immediately engaged in his chosen profession, cigar manufacturing. He soon built up a profitable business, and made many friends. Last Monday noon he left on a business trip south in his usual good health. Tuesday evening he was stricken with heart failure at the hotel in Roseburg, and in two hours he was a corpse. Mr. Arnold was an earnest and conscientious worker in the M. E. church, and had already gained a reputation for honor and business integrity in his new home of only four months. His body was interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery Thursday, March 16, Rev. M. O. Brink officiating. Deceased leaves a wife and three children, besides many warm friends.

QUITE A DEMONSTRATION.
When Tuesdays northbound noon train brought the Jennings Bros "Pat" and "Dick" and Chas. Bruneau home from Roseburg a large crowd of enthusiasts were at the depot to receive them. After the usual handshaking and hearty congratulations, the crowd centered upon "Dick"—big-hearted jolly "Dick"—as the hero of the hour, and accordingly a big turkey feather was stuck in his hat and he was loaded upon the shoulders of his admirers and packed off toward town. However his avoirdupois told on on the boys and their physical enthusiasm went back on them before they had carried the big fellow a hundred yards.

GOOD HELP.
Col. W. H. Blair the new proprietor of the Hotel Sherwood is surrounding himself with first class help to the satisfaction of his guests. O. B. Evans of this city has charge of the dining room while his brother C. T. Evans looks after the culinary department. The gentlemen are capable men in their line of business and many of Col. Blair's guests are speaking very complimentary of their work.

MARRIED.
Wednesday, at high noon, at the residence of the bride's parents on Cedar creek, A. M. McKibben and Miss Ega Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kelley, were united in marriage. Rev. M. O. Brink officiating. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present. An elegant dinner was served after the ceremony, and happy expressions were numerous. The contracting parties are among the best known young people here, and congratulations galore await them.

It is very hard to stand idly by while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country.
