It is very hard to stand idly by see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. NEARLY SNAKE BIT.—

R. W. Veatch, who has the reputation of having killed more snakes than any other man in Oregon has added 12 to his list already this spring; but has about made up his mind that he will take up the task of writing spring poetry or some other vocation here after. His reasons for this is his close call the other day. He was pretty well surrounded by rattlers and was using his 22 rifle with much success when a limb of a tree upon which he was supporting himself broke and pitched him upon a vicious snake over two feet long. The snake struck at Bob twice but failed to reach him. Mr. Veatch tried to grab his snakeship each time but failed. However he succeeded in getting out of reach of the snake and secured his rifle. The snake was on the fight and took his ground until a well aimed bullet took his head off. Bob says he was actually scared and thinks he'll quit the business.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK.—

The enterprising firm of Eakin & Bristow have decided to organize their bank into a First National, and have already made application with that end in view. It will require some little time to effect the organization as a somewhat lengthy process has to be followed out to the letter before the change can be made. Messrs. Eakin & Bristow have carried on a successful private banking institution here since 1887, and have a standing in banking circles that is only attained by thorough and successful business methods. The change will undoubtedly meet the approval of the business men of Cottage Grove.

ANDROMEDY IMPROVED.—

The Catholic Church of this city has been handsomely improved during the past few months. Rev. Przybylski is an untiring worker for the Catholic cause, and has been the means of raising funds to complete the church which was started several years ago but not finished. Eight handsome, stained glass windows have been put in and the side has received an artistic finish. Rev. Przybylski is making a effort to build a school building here and open a school.

DISPOSED OF HIS GROCERY.—

C. J. DeLassus sold his grocery business last week to J. M. Stark Elkton. Mr. Stark accompanied his wife arriving and taking possession last Saturday. Mr. Stark is an old and successful merchant and he will undoubtedly build up a snug and profitable business here. Mr. DeLassus will spend the summer in the mountains in view of benefiting his health which has been poorly for a number of months.

A. Parker was an arrival from Bohemia this week.
