

A HANDSOME CANE.
Tom Blew is the proud possessor of a most handsome cane, presented by a Portland firm. It is so arranged that by simply pressing the button you get a most brilliant light from a battery enclosed inside the cane. Tom will use the cane mostly for the purpose of finding the key hole to his private residence when returning home in the wee small hours, after the city lights are out.

BUILD MORE HOUSES.
Both business and dwelling houses are in demand and not to be had in our thriving little city. Almost every day strangers are seen on our streets looking for business locations or dwelling houses and are obliged to go away because there is not a vacant house of any description in town.

BOUGHT IN.
J. H. Davidson, of Eugene, has bought of John Nokes his interest in the boot and shoe shop, and the firm name will now be Lewis & Davidson. Mr. Davidson will take charge next week, but owing to the fact that he is unable to get a dwelling house will not move his family here at present.

WORK COMMENCED.
Work has commenced on the M. E. Church building on the church property adjoining the river on the East side. The building will be a spacious wooden structure sixty feet square with a stone foundation. It will contain three large classrooms besides the chapel. It is expected to be completed by the first of August.

DEATH.

Also to draw an ordinance providing for cows running at large from April 1st to September 1st each year, from sunrise until sun down.

ARBOR DAY.
Today is Arbor Day. Nothing is more appropriate than the planting of splendid shade and ornamental trees on the school grounds. Let the surroundings of the valued institution of learning be made attractive and pleasant to look upon in coming years.

LEG BROKEN.
Harold Fredrickson, a youth of 17 years, while climbing over the fence at the Sherwood hotel Sunday, accidentally caught his foot and fell, breaking his right leg at above the ankle. Mrs. Schieffel Dr. Snapp attended the little sufferer and he is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

ACCIDENT.
Wm. Nelson was thrown from a horse east of the depot and severely bruised by the horse falling on him. Drs. Job and Wall attended him and found him seriously but not dangerously hurt.

AT THE CHURCH.
At the Christian church Sunday a pair of ladies kid gloves. The donor will please leave at this office.

MEMORIA VOTING PRECINCT.
It is announced by County Clerk E. Lee that a voting precinct has been established at the Stocks & Harlow struts mill on Fairview mountain. It is as it should be, as it will be a great convenience to residents of Bonanza district wishing to vote, as they now do so without the loss of valuable time and the expense of a trip to Cottage Grove.

WORKERS.
Workmen are now busily engaged remodeling the old church building lately moved to the vacant lot adjoining Vander & Casson barber shop. It is expected to be finished by the 15th of the month. The east room will be used as a west room and the east room will be supplied as a news stand.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by BRN SON DRUG CO., Cottage Grove. LYONS & APPLGATE, Drain, Druggists.

Parties desiring to build barns, sheds or other outbuildings would do well to take advantage of the low figure at which The Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. are offering some cull lumber in 1 inch and 2 inch thickness. Call on them or write them for particulars.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.
We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisement in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by BRN SON DRUG CO., Cottage Grove. LYONS & APPLGATE, Drain, Druggists.
