MINES & MINING.

Devoted to Bohemia Notes and Mining Items of General Interest to Mining Men.

I was over on the Monte Rico Ridge this week and will write you a few lines from this part of Bohemia District.

This section of the camp is showing up in fine shape as far as developed.
The ledges are large and well defined showing free and base ores containing, galena, copper and iron. Mr. Shane and Fisher have been developing their claims all winter and will continue work as the claims are showing up exceedingly well and the gentlemen are highly encouraged.

Mr. Hull and Fusion have a large force of men on their property and have a lot of fine ore on the dump from the Mammoth claim 30 feet in width, heavily mineralized with copper and galena assays range from $10 to $120 per ton. They have a bonanza.

There are quite a number of other persons owning groups of claims in this part namely, Hartly, Hughs' Richardson' Edwards, Stone Bros. Sears, A Hancock, B White and a Eugene Co. Also a company of Portland people owns a group of claims here.

This section will be a scene of lively times this coming summer. A number of persons have taken advantage of the early spring and have already made their appearances. We have had exceedingly fine weather during March and the forepart of this month. Wild flowers cover the mountain sides and the click of the prospectors pick can be heard in any directions.

The Henry Clay group of five claims have had a force of men at work since last Nov and will continue development work. They have 150 feet of tunnel on the Henry Clay claim showing a 12 foot vein of high grade ore. They are now excavating for a lower tunnel to tap the ledge 300 feet in depth. They have done considerable work on the other claims which also show good results. There are three locations on the main ledge. The Hancock, the Henry Clay and J. L. claims while on the northeast side line lays the Idyl Wild and Spotted Fawn claims, and on the southwest side line of the Albert Hancock lays the Pizzie Wizzie claim.

The fine timber and water inside the boundary line of these claims makes makes this a very desirable group.

All the boys who have locations in this part speak very highly of their claims and feel jubilant over assays and expect in the near future to realize enough out of them to reside on the sunny side of Easy street. There are reports nearly every day of other locations being made in this locality.

There are a number in Cottage Grove who will be glad to know that Mr.
Hancock is in perfect health and gave a sigh of relief when he was handed a package of photographs taken of two lady friends and himself at C. G. I hardly know how to repay Mr. H for his kindness in placing one of the photos on the wall of my cabin. I can now say I sleep well all night for the wood rats have all gone.

F. J. Hard who with Jas. Duval owns the Contention mining claim, let a contract this week for the sinking of a shaft.

Frank McEntyre and Frank Patterson had the good luck to kill two black bear last Monday. It is said the boys will quit mining and turn their attention to bear hunting. Some of the boys say they can't bear to have the boys do this.

Judge David Goodsell, of Portland, who has been visiting the Helena mine, had the misfortune to get a fall from his horse on the way to the mine, and bruised his leg considerably. The judge is getting along quite nicely at this writing.

POLITICAL SPEECH-

H. R. Skipworth, of Eugene, nominee on the "citizens" ticket for representative, made a political speech in this city last Saturday night at Martins hall. When the doors were first opened it looked as though Mr. Skipworth was doomed to speak to empty benches, but towards 8:30 a crowd gathered, variously estimated at from seventy-five to one hundred and fifty people, made up of populist, democrats and a goodly sprinkling of republicans who were desirous to know what the aspiring gentleman had to say. Mr. Skipworth spoke about two hours and by the time he concluded to close a large per cent of the crowd had likewise concluded to go home, hence the applause that greeted the speaker as he rounded off his last sentence was not of the nature that would inspire men on to victories (?). The gentleman put in one-third of his time explaining his own peculiar acrobatical feats, one-third in an attempt to roll a few boulders out of the path of the ex-secretary of state H. R. Kincaid, whose thirst for office is so great that he is now swinging around like an oyster can tied to a yearling pups tail, for the office of county judge, the other third of his valuable time extolling the virtues of Hon. R. M. Veatch, who, by the way, still handkereth for office likewise. Mr. Skipworth dug the republican party as might be expected, whenever he could quit talking about himself and his many commendable (?) traits long enough so to do; spoke about his great influence which he proposed to use to suppress the high handed robbery which he alleged is continually going on under the republican administration of the state, harangued about the trusts, commented upon how he would do away with the state printing office if elected; that the state printer not only got a good salary, but made something like $50,000 on the side, lauded "Honest" Harry Kincaid some more, telling how he fought the state printers allowance bill which passed the legislature through republican crookedness (of course), but, incidentally, failed to say anything about how "Honest" Harry unhesitatingly made out a bill against the state for forty years subscription at $2.00 per year to the State Journal, "Honest" Harry's paper, and wooled it through the legislature, notwithstanding that it was strongly opposed by the republican members. Then he said some more things quite nice about Skipworth, Veatch and the "Honest" Harry, and quit. He presented no argument, offered no proof of any of his outlandish assertions, and in fact made a dismal failure as a campaign orator. When Mr Skipworth closed he received a very tame applause the first of the evening.
