ABOUT DALY.

The following is another chapter from the Lakeview Examiner regarding Dr. Daly, the man whom the fusionists present to the people of this district in opposition to Hon. Thos. H. Tongue, for congressman. Since the above was published in the Examiner it is announced that Daly has declared himself on the side of silver—another substantial and all important reason why the level headed voters of this district should not support him.

At times he would be a "sound money man," and again he would denounce the "gold bugs" and say that the only salvation for the country was the adoption of the silver standard at the ratio of 16 to 1. For the life of us, we of Lake county, who know Dr. Daly, are quite uncertain to this day what his opinions are regarding the financial question. However, in this campaign, it is to be hoped that the fusion candidate for congress will unmask and display his true colors. The people want to know.

Dr. Daly came to Lakeview in 1887, from where, nobody appears to know. He claims to have been born in Ireland, and we presume he was as his sworn statement upon taking out his naturalization papers hurriedly one day in June, 1892, bears out that fact. Still, in the face of that, Dr. Daly's citizenship is in question. The law is emphatic upon the matter of citizenship—it is peculiarly explicit inasmuch as it demands that upon taking out the second naturalization papers a man must show his first papers or a copy thereof. This Dr. Daly failed to do, and has ever since June 3, 1892, failed to produce those mysterious first papers. However, just before entering the field of state politics, the fusion candidate for congress became a full-fledged citizen of the United States.

The former life of Dr. Daly is a mysterious as the meteors of the heavens. He wills that no man shall open the pages of his veiled life in the past, and read therefrom his secret so closely guarded for years and years. It is his right to keep this secret, however, and according to the laws of the country no man has a right to wrest it from him.

It has been charged, and The Examiner presumes justly so, that Dr. Daly had assumed the prerogative of an American citizen before he was naturalized by the Lake county court—if he was ever duly naturalized—and held office, that of public school director, in his adopted town. If this be so it was a flagrant breach of the laws of the country, and still we are told by the fusion candidate's subsidized press at home that "in all matters of public nature Dr. Daly has always been right, even sacrificing his own interests always for the public." Also, that "Daly has always been on the side of right. Though one of the largest property owners in the county he always works and votes for any measure for the schools or the public good, though it raises taxes and hits his pocket harder than any other person in the community." Let us see about the tender regard Dr. Daly has for the right, but let us first commend him for the interest he has taken in our schools.

Dr. Daly is reputed to be worth anywhere from fifty thousand to one hundred thousand dollars. In his magnanimity he swears to the county assessor in 1898 that he is worth property and money to the amount of sixty-one hundred and fifty dollars. The tax roll of 1899 shows that he is assessed on fourteen thousand and thirty seven dollars worth of property, seven thousand five hundred and seventy five dollars of this amount being stock in the bank of Lakeview, the remainder, six thousand four hundred and sixty two dollars going in as individual property tax. During the administration of Boyd as town recorder Dr. Daly swore to the valuation of his town property at about $1800. From this property he was reaping a reward in rentals of about two thousand dollars annually. The recorder raised this assessment valuation from about eighteen hundred dollars to seventy eight hundred dollars.

The poor farmer who labors hard in his field, while his good wife works from sun up till dark, pays his full quota of taxes to support the county and state government, while the banker and fusion nominee for congress, whose property wealth and bank stock is unlimited and draws for him thousands of dollars annually without turning his hand to manual labor, gets off with a few paltry dollars tax upon his thousands.

Dr. Daly, fusion nominee for congress, cuts an unholy figure in this campaign.

BOOTH VS VEATCH.

In the candidates of the republican and union parties for joint senator of Douglas, Josephine and Lane counties, we find the extremes in many respects. In the former, Hon. R. A. Booth, we find a man who has spent his lifetime, energy and capital in developing the resources, and advancing the interests of this section and its people, in fact, a real public benefactor. In the latter, Hon. R. M. Veatch, we find a genial, intelligent, obliging gentleman, but an obstructionist in every sense of the word, the very principles he espouses being antagonistic to progress and prosperity, and his whole career, both in a public and private capacity, blend in harmony with these principles. We have known Mr. Veatch personally for twenty years and have always respected him as a neighbor but opposed his non-progressive policy and principles. True he made somewhat of an alleged record for economy in the Oregon legislature as a representative from Lane county several years ago, but how did he make it? Simply by voting in the negative on every measure that came up. We have known Mr. Veatch as a farmer, country school teacher, pillar and politician, and it is only in the latter capacity that we can credit him with more than very ordinary success. However, he will soon be going about the country dispensing wisdom to the masses and telling them how to vote. While on the other hand, as we said before, in Mr. Booth we find a real public benefactor who instead of howling calamity and doing everything in his power to retard progress, has put his shoulder to the wheel and has not only prospered exceedingly himself but has brought prosperity to our country and to its people through his energy, enterprise and liberality. For which man will you cast your ballot on June 4?—Roseburg Plaindealer.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

Harrison Rittenhouse Kincaid refers to the last state campaigners as "lying imported speakers and hired local liars." Mr. Kincaid didn't speak that way when he was a candidate on the republican ticket for secretary of state and was elected to that lucrative office by republican votes. But as soon as he assumed the duties of that office he thought he was the state government, the whole show, and because others thought differently he changed his coat, ran next time on a fusion ticket, was overwhelmingly defeated, and sent back to his home a defeated and disappointed old man. This accounts for his vaporings.—Forest Grove Times.

Quick delivery—The Weekly Oregonian.

The newspapers of Cottage Grove are loath to keep up a continual comment regarding the steady growth and general advancement of this city. Too much of such work, no matter how truthful the writer may be, sounds to the stranger like "boom" talk. However it is not necessary for the newspaper to do it all—people coming and going are doing the talking just now, especially the drummers, who sell the merchants of this city goods. They are in a position to know the condition of the cities in which they do business, and they never fail to put in a good word for Cottage Grove—God bless 'em. Long may they live.

"He is the best clerk that Lane county ever had." These are the words used in speaking of County Clerk Lee by a man who worked for many years on the records of Lane county but who is not now connected with that office. What better assurance than that could be asked for that the records will be well kept if they are entrusted to his care for the two years commencing July 4, 1900—Florence West.

The present good weather is indeed encouraging to the miners and freighters of Bohemia district. If this weather continues—and there is no reason to think otherwise—in two weeks freighters can load to their limit and no trouble will be experienced in getting into the hills. Let the sun shine—that's when old Bohemia "shines" and Cottage Grove will "shine" along with it.

There is little opposition to the re-election of Geo. M. Brown to the office of district prosecuting attorney. Mr. Brown has made a splendid reputation since his incumbency, and as an attorney, particularly on criminal law, he is today second to none in the state.

G. W. Griffin nominee on the republican ticket of Lane county, for coroner is one of the most popular and thorough business men in the county, and should he be elected to the office, he will fulfill the duties to the letter.

Two years ago Tongue carried Yamhill county by a majority of 231 over Veatch, the fusion candidate of the democrats, populists and silver republicans.

A VOICE OF GREAT JOY

Good Things Always Speak for Themselves

Two Ladies Made Happy and They Want Their Friends to Know It.

Through the advice of friends I recently called at a number of dental offices in the city to learn what I might expect to pay for upper and lower sets of teeth, also to ascertain if painless extraction that I had heard so much about was a reality. I had nothing but snags and poorly filled teeth left for unobscuring purposes. Well, it is unnecessary to add that I dreaded the operation. I had one large tooth that had pained so badly I could not sleep for several nights, so I concluded to have it out first. I tried at a large advertising dental office and they gave it up. Having heard that Dr. Hullinger the manager of the Gold Medal Dental Parlor, on the second floor of the Washington building, corner of Fourth and Washington streets, is the inventor of the only successful method of extracting teeth without pain, I called in to see him. He assured me after diagnosing my case that he could extract my teeth and adjust new ones without causing me any pain. I told him to go ahead, so he took me under his own supervision. Everything seemed to be handled with precision and yet he was as careful as one could possibly be. I have since learned that he does not handle any of his patients as roughly as some dentists do, thus modifying pain in a great many cases. I told the doctor to take out first the old "acher" which had kept me awake for a week. He used his application on the gums and in 10 seconds had the tooth in the forceps, and holding it up said: "Did you feel it?" I was surprised to say the least. It didn't hurt any more than pulling a hair from my head would. The doctor went right on and extracted the other 22 teeth. My gums were not sore in the least afterwards, and the work all the way through was most satisfactory. Even the price was as low as some who claim to be the lowest-priced work in town. My friends acknowledge equally as good treatment. Friends or strangers can write to or call on me regarding the painless extracting at 615 Guild avenue.

MRS. IDA BRUNNER.

If you wish to hear from another person having a similar experience, address Mrs. E. Sternhoff, 503 Williams avenue. This lady had 16 teeth extracted at one sitting.

Dr. Hullinger has met with unlimited success in painless extraction since opening office in this city in the Sherwood hotel.
