SUMMER RESORTS.

"To the mountains our people in increasing numbers yearly look for days of relaxation and recreation necessary to maintain the human machine in fair working condition. The languor sloth of the seashore proves very productive while it lasts, but many decided that the annual outing provide not only radical change and surroundings, but also such stimulation of flagging energies as will provide brawn and vigor for the return labor. For this they urge the mountain climb and ramble, the balsam of mountain pines, and the clear, adulterated mountain air."

"In this direction the Shasta Route now affords a wealth of attractions. The entire line of road from Ashland to Redding is studded with charming and accessible hotels and camps, where cheer and comfort and healing reasonable cost, and where you can hunt, fish, ride, loaf, or play with equal facility."

"Or if you look for healing waters none better can be found, hot or cold, than the springs of Ashland, Colestin, Anderson, Bartlett, Byron and Paso Robles."

"Before visiting Europe, the people of the Northwest should see the glories of Yosemite Valley, and the wonderful groves of Mariposa and Calave as; the Parisians are likely to make inquiries concerning these attractive resorts."

Send to Mr. C. H. Markham, General Passenger Agent, Portland, for booklets on Castle Crag, Shasta Springs, McCloud River, Yosemit, and excursion rates thereto."
