...NEW BRIDGE.—
...J. P. Currin is building a sub...stantial foot bridge across the river ...to his residence, thus enabling ...him to cross to his property on the ...other side. The bridge is six feet ...wide.

...Something for nothing!—that's ...what is offered you by the Lion ...Coffee premium display in Benson ...Drug Co's front window.

WINDOW DISPLAY.

An attractive Lot of Lion Coffee Premiums in Benson Drug Co's Window.

We frequently hear the claim, "something given for nothing," but do not often see an actual demonstration of the principle, like the display of Lion Coffee premiums now on exhibition in Benson Drug Co's window.

Here are many valuable articles, all given free for the lion-heads, cut from Lion Coffee wrappers. These are not cheap articles, but comprise clocks, umbrellas, watches, gold rings and jewelry, besides many things useful and ornamental in the household, or will be enjoyed by the children. Lion Coffee fully deserves the popularity which it has gained, because of its superior strength and flavor.

DECORATION DAY.—
The decoration day services Wednesday, under the auspices of the G. A. R. were pronounced by those who witnessed them a success. A very interesting feature was the representation of the 48 states by as many little boys and girls, who had been very nicely drilled by Miss Hunter. Miss Foss represented "Columbia" and many were the pleasing compliments passed upon her. The hall was crowded with people and many could not find seats. Upon the whole the program was well rendered.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.
