SUMMER RESORTS.

"To the mountains our people in increasing numbers yearly look for their days of relaxation and recreation necessary to maintain in the human machine a fair working condition. The largest amount of the seashore proves very unproductive while it lasts, but many have decided that the annual outing should provide not only radical change of air and surroundings, but also such a gratification of flagging energies as will give brain and vigor for the return to labor. For this they urge the mountains, the climb and ramble, the balsam of the mountain pines, and the clear, invigorating mountain air. In this direction the Shasta Route now affords a wealth of attractions. The entire line of road from Ashland to Redding is studded with charming accessible hotels and camps, where cheer and comfort and healing in reasonable cost, and where you can hunt, fish, ride, loaf, or play with equal facility. "Or if you look for healing waters none better can be found, hot or cold than the springs of Ashland, Coltonia, Anderson, Bartlett, Byron and the Rockies. "Before visiting Europe, the people of the Northwest should see the glories of Yosemite Valley, and the world-famous Park of Mariposa and Calaveras. Parkians are likely to make inquiries concerning these attractive resorts. Send to Mr. C. H. Markham, General Passenger Agent, Portland, for booklets on Castle Crags, Shasta Springs, McCloud River, Yosemite, and excursion rates thereto."
