FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1900.

A disgraceful drunken escapade in which four well known parties were the principals occurred in this city Tuesday night. The two girls have been considered "wild" for many months. The men are of the "good fellow" sort, good hearted and generous, in the eyes of the world, but being lost to morn'y, forget that it is their duty as men to strengthen those who are weak and apt to fall, by giving good advice based, upon their own downward experience. These two men in question are not bad at heart but they have started off on the wrong foot, and perhaps may never change step. However they should remember the tender mother who watched them grow from infancy to maturity, and then start out on the path of life at a pace that kills; and, no matter how they live, protect and give good advice to the weak and erring. It is not pleasant for a newspaper to publish sensational news of a local nature, but sometimes it might serve as a restraint if the papers would give a little more attention to the "flashlight" views of the city.

There are a number of young men around Cottage Grove who have an idea that in order to attract attention they must indulge in a certain amount of booze and make public asses of themselves to the disgust of the better class of people. A fine is altogether too good for such trash who attempt to pass themselves off as kin to the animal kingdom. It is to be regretted that they do not run up against some one who will take particular pains to pound the face of them a few times and then turn them over to the city authorities who should make it their duty to give the disturbers of the peace about nine weeks under a shed pounding rock.

The fact that the republican party carried the state of Oregon by about 8000 majority, gives rise to the fact that in the November election the state will give the republican presidential candidate a majority far in excess of that of 1896. This may surprise the conglomerated mess of fusionists but the republicans of Oregon have known this for a good while.

STOCK AND FARM.

W. W. Irwin, of Barlow, is making a success of raising goats on his farm. He says that each goat produces on an average four pounds of mohair annually, producing about $1.30 per head. The kids at 2 months old bring $1.50 to $2 per head, and there is no lack of demand for the young animals. Mr. Irwin says that goats require but little feed, provided, they can have a change of pasture, keeping in good condition on browse. The goats thrive better where a supply of brush is kept freshly cut for them to feed on during the winter months.—Oregonian.

The prunegrowers of Oregon and Washington have perfected permanent organization under the name of the Cured Fruit Association of the Northwest. Seventy-five per cent of this year's output of dried prunes has already been subscribed, and it is thought that 90 per cent will be subscribed before the end of the season. The purpose of the organization is to prevent a fluctuation in the price of the dried fruit, to find a market for it, and to see that it is properly crated and shipped. There will be no trouble in marketing the cured article this year as the crop is small, and there is an increased demand for it both in the Philippines, the East and in the gold regions of the North.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. M. Thompson, in this city Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, June 12, 1900, Mr. Joseph Best a prominent young business man of Gervis, Marion county, to Miss Hattie Thompson, one of Cottage's well known and popular young ladies, Rev. The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the family home on River street, shortly after 9 o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Mrs. Pet Sanford of this city, and Miss Eva Burton, of Eugene acted as bridesmaids, and Mr. Theodore Gallond, of Spokane, Wash., and Mr. Willie Thompson, of Cottage Grove, were groomsmen. The bride was dressed in a lovely suit of gray, trimmed in white silk and pearl passmentary, and held in her hand a beautiful bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern. Mrs. Pet Sanford wore a dress of white dotted swiss over lavender, while Miss Burton's gown was of pale blue silk.

The rooms were prettily decorated, and a profusion of Oregon's sweetest flowers were everywhere.

At 10:30 an elegant wedding supper was served, amidst the many congratulations showered upon the happy couple.

Those invited were. Rev. and Mrs. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. James Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Burton of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. James Barneburg, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Howard, Mrs. Benhan, Grandma Oliver, Miss Knowlton, Miss Sanford. Messrs. McKinley Mitchell of Gervis, Theodore Gallond of Spokane, Wash., Foster Phillips and James Chappins.

DIED.

Ethel I. Lewis only daughter of Clark and Cora Lewis aged 7 years, 1 month and 2 days died June 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Barneburg of this city. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. O. Brink, after which the remains were laid to rest in the J. O. O. F. cemetery. A father, mother and one brother with many friends are left to mourn for little Ethel. Well done of God to halve the lot, And give her all the sweetness; To us the empty room and cot— To her the heavens completeness.

To us this grave; to her the roses The mystic palm trees springin. To us the silence in the house— To her the choral singing. For her to gladden in Gods view; For us to hope and bear on. Grow, Ethel in thy garden new, Beside the Rose of Sharon.

AT SULPHUR SPRINGS— Levi Geer, proprietor of the sulphur spring some thirteen miles from this city on the Black Butte road, has made up his mind to improve the property and bring it before the public as it should be. Accordingly Mr Geer is now building a splendid summer house near the springs and will also erect bath houses and equip them, with the view of entertaining those who shall seek benefit from the pure sulphur water.

A SMOOTH ONE.

Chrisman & Bangs mourn the loss of a good saddle, bridle, saddle blankets and halter, and Fred Jones of Hart's restaurant $2.75 all on account of a "smooth boy" who happened this way last Monday. He gave W. S. Chrisman his name as Spaulding and claimed to be the son of Spaulding the well known cattle dealer of Portland. He engaged a horse to go into the country to "buy cattle" Tuesday morning. He took the horse from the barn shortly after 2 in the morning. Then he stopped at Hart's restaurant ate breakfast and wrote a check for $3 on Eakin & Bristow, and asked Fred Jones to cash it less his meal as he did not have quite money enough to close a certain deal for cattle that morning and couldn't wait to get into the bank. As he had other money Mr. Jones thought nothing of it and took up the check. The check was signed E. M. Wait, and when it was presented at the bank, it was not honored. Later in the day the horse was found in a pasture at Latham, but the saddle and blankets and halter are still missing. Constable McFarland is still looking for him, but so far has not been able to locate the man. He sailed under three different names while here, that of Spaulding, Hogan or Hague and Wait.

HERE AND THERE.

Japan is taking American flour in constantly increasing amounts.

The prospect of a big crop of wheat is favorable. The acreage of spring wheat is large.

Penches will be plenty, subject to the loss that may come through extreme drouth and a heavy June drop.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the Department of Agriculture to increase exports of butter, it has been very light for several months.

Our next door neighbor, Mexico, has a little war of her own, and is buying Texas mules for her army. A new generation of mules is needed right away.

Last year's corn crop was evidently smaller than the estimates made it, and this explains the better prices now prevailing. A big crop of corn is never a burden, and it will be well to look carefully after the crop now growing.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Reaper to thrust His scythe in the Grange and remove from our midst our beloved brother John Newell. Therefore be it resolved, That we bow in submission to His will, and that the Charter of this Grange be draped in mourning for the space of 30 days; also that these resolutions be printed in the local papers and a copy be sent to the bereaved family of the departed brother.
