The official head of this paper, Mr. C. J. Howard, early last Sunday morning shook the dust of the valley and is now doing the excelsior act on the hillsides of the higher altitudes in and about the Black Buttes.

Years of hustling and worry made a rest necessary, and he has gone where he can enjoy close communion with Nature, fill up on ozone and limped liquid from babbling brooklets, catch the speckled beauties that dwell therein, hunt the soft-eyed deer and sprint from the ferocious bear. The arsenal and paraphernalia he surrounded himself with would make envious even an English globe-trotter, and it is expected that great will be the trophies of the chase.

Mr. Howard was accompanied on the trip by his wife, two young sons and budding daughter, his mother and sister. They expect to be gone until about August 1st, and a full realization of all their looked for pleasure is earnestly to be hoped.

We bespeak the friends of this paper for leniency in judgement for all sins of omission or commission during the absence of its chief.

In announcing the arrival of the steamer San Jose, the San Francisco Bulletin says the San Jose brings a tale of woe from Cape Nome; a story of death by disease and promise of starvation and poverty. The beach mines of Nome have proven to be the worst kind of fake and the public is warned to keep away from the place, as nothing but misery and suffering can be visited upon those who go to the new district without ample means wherewith they may work the mines as they should be worked.

Disease is making inroads on many of the camps and if something is not done to better the sanitary conditions of the district many will die. The newcomers are swearing vengeance. They will attempt to hold the fake transportation companies liable for the "boom."

C. H. Markham, general passenger and freight agent for the Southern Pacific Company, is deeply interested in the advancement of the creamery industry of Oregon. He will lend every effort possible to the vicinity that shows an interest in the establishment of such an enterprise. He is a capable business man and a gentleman whose word can be relied upon. The people of this section should show their appreciation of Mr. Markham's interest and efforts along this line by at least showing an inclination to consider such enterprises. Let us have a meeting and appoint a committee to look into the matter.

In last Friday's Oregonian mining stock report the Helena was credited with a sale of 10,750 shares at 29 1/2 to 30 cents. Helena No. 2 disposed of 15,250 shares at 5 to 5 1/2 c. Oregon-Colorado Mining Co. 7,000 shares at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 c. This speaks well for the exchange and the efforts made by its managers to promote sales. The Oregon Stock Exchange is mapping out the future prosperity of Oregon mines.

It isn't necessary to forget the mining interests of this county, but it is highly essential that we should not forget the advantages that would be ours if we could secure a good creamery.

A million-dollar fire at Prescott, Arizona, on Sunday last swept away the entire business portion of the town and many private residences. A feeling of deepest gloom pervades the stricken town and desolation reigns.

How about a creamery?

THE BOYS AT BALL.

On Saturday afternoon last the youngsters who are vieing for baseball honors met on the diamond and put up an extra good game. The nines are known as Scooters and Cracker Jacks, and the score for this game was 35 to 40 in favor of the Scooters, who were the much larger boys, and although the Scooters outclassed the Cracker Jacks in size and age they did not outgeneral the little fellows in a knowledge of the game and energetic and good playing.

Frank Knox was the star score getter and came triumphantly over the home plate eight times.

Daniel Thomas plays like a veteran and displayed the ease, grace and tactics of a born ball player.

Chester Vandenberg made a brilliant play in the field, catching a long-range luer and putting the third man out.

Several of the other boys deserve special mention for exceptional good work and the enthusiasm they imparted to the play, and all done well.

When the play was called at 2:30 o'clock the line-up was as follows:

CRACKER JACKS.	SCOOTERS.
Claud Swan	C. Willie Martin
Earl Eby	P. Albert Griffin
Mert Hemenway	FB. Earl Hill
Harry Benson	SB. Clarence Clow
Daniel Thomas	TB. Miller
Chas. Martin	SS. Orval Taylor
Frank Knox	LF. Clyde Nokes
Chester Vandenberg	CF. Oliver Nelsie
Willie Sherwood	RF. James Harms
Umpire—Roy Hemenway.

An interesting descriptive letter from our Bohemia correspondent arrived too late for this issue, our columns being already overcrowded, and will be given space next week. The same course will of necessity be taken with the contribution of E. S. A's.

ALL THESE WHITE MEN

Near Warm Springs Indian Reservation a herd of 200 elk has been discovered. Unless proper precautions are taken the Indians will kill a number of the animals, although by so doing they violate the law. It is understood that one Indian killed an elk a few days ago, and that a deputy game warden is looking for the offender.—Eugene Guard

If such a band of elk are yet in existence in the United States the government should not wait to get after the men who kill them, but prevent them from being killed. The Indians are not the only men to watch in an affair of this kind. White men are just as bad. The protection of big game was deferred too long, and only by giving the animals of the several varieties the most rigid protection can an increase be established.

IN MEMORIAM.

DIED—At Doreno, Oregon, July 12, 1900, Mrs. Hattie Teeters, wife of Shelby Teeters and daughter of Elza Van Schoiack, aged 22 years 6 months and 5 days.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low;
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrows know.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled—
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

BORN—July 19, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. Sproy, a daughter.

It is conservatively estimated that there are at least 550 cows in and within a radius of 10 miles of this city. Think of it, and no creamery here.

County Commissioner H. D. Edwards came to town on Wednesday from his home in Springfield, and will inspect the Bohemia road and the working of the rock crusher.

M. E. PICNIC.—

On Thursday a most enjoyable Sunday school picnic of the M. E. Church was held about a mile from town on the Saginaw road, under the direction of J. I. Jones, the efficient teacher. Over 100 of the little folks of that denomination were assembled together, all provided with big baskets of delicious good things to eat and drink. Praises, songs, games and a general good time was had and most heartily enjoyed by all. The delights of the outing will long be remembered by all those who were fortunate enough to participate in its pleasures.

THE WEATHER.—

During the past week the weather here has been all that could be wished, even though it were made to order. The days have been bright and balmy, the evenings cool and delightful and the nights clear and calm; the sun has made a record for warmth, and the full, round orb of night has lit the bicycle paths to the delight of the lovers of the wheel, and lovers who didn't care to ride a wheel have watched the man in the moon from shady nooks on vine-clad verandas and such.

GOING BACK.—

On Sunday morning five teams with canvas-covered wagons, containing families and household goods, passed through town on their way to Lebanon, their old home. They came through from Jackson and had been much over Southern Oregon, but had failed to find a spot that was superior or even equaled their old home surroundings, and hence with added experience and more content they were gladly trekking back to the pastures they knew.

HAY.—

Load after load of new hay is daily coming in and finds ready sale at good prices. The livery and feed-stable men are laying in large stocks, and the business and professional men, who keep horses and cows, are filling their barns against the days when the hills will be barren and the rains will fall.

F. S. Day, who has made the canvass of this city and surroundings as Census enumerator in a thorough and efficient manner, is now to dwell in the mountains for a time at the Helena mine, whither he went on Thursday.

Geo. O. Knowles came into town this week from the foot of the mountains. He has been working on the new hotel being put up by W. W. Hawley, and says that development work on the Sweepstake grouse on the south side of Elephant mountain is progressing finely. The drift, 135 feet below the surface, is showing up good under the management of S. J. Brund.

C. L. Fitchard, the hop-buyer of Salem, who owns a half interest in the Bonanza mine, located about three miles on this side of the warehouse, returned on Wednesday from an inspection of his property and is much pleased with the showing in the development tunnel now being run. He expects to put other men to work on other property he is about buying.

LORANE ITEMS.

Edgar Kelley returned home from a trip to Prinesville.

George Schneider went to Grants Pass Tuesday, where he will work this Summer.

Mrs. McNary returned to her home at Salem after a three week's visit with friends here.

Miss Eva Wentworth, a teacher at the Warm Spring Agency, is spending her vacation at her home here.

Mrs. Chas. Lott went to Cottage Grove and spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Francis Ozment, before she left for Eastern Oregon.

Miss Ida Smith returned to Cottage Grove Thursday, after a week's visit with relatives here. Her cousin, Miss Runk, accompanied her and returned home Friday.

There was a social party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ward, in honor of their son William's 18th birthday. There were about eighty guests present and all enjoyed themselves immensely.

Three runaway accidents at this place Sunday and fortunately no one hurt very badly. Mr. Devaney's buggy was broken up some, while Mrs. Seal's buggy is a total wreck. The third rig belonged to some strangers and escaped with no serious damage.

Talk, work, hustle and convince one and all that a creamery for Cottage Grove is necessary and that we must have it.

A HAPPY VOYAGE —AND— SAFE RETURN

Dr. A. J. Hullinger, the leading Dentist of this place, who has enjoyed an enormous business in his line of work since his arrival here, has returned from the Coast to day's sooner than he expected, due to the fact that he is anxious in securing remodeled rooms for office quarters in the Sherwood brick building, and has returned to push the matter so he can attend to the crowded cases with much ease to both him and the patient. If water can be conveyed to his new office rooms an electric engine, fountain cuspidor and electric fan will predominate as useful novelties, rendering each and every operation less painful, and saving time and avoiding unnecessary waste of time in individual operations.

DR. A. J. HULLINGER, D.D.S.
Graduate Northwestern University of Chicago; Post Graduate American College of Dental Surgery of Chicago.

It is unnecessary to add that Dr. Hullinger came to this place from Portland some few months ago with the very best letters of recommendation as a leader in the dental profession. He being the only dentist between San Francisco and Portland that has abandoned the use of rubber plates entirely, using a celebrated plate that he guarantees to be "non-breakable," which does away with the chief trouble of plates. Teeth never come loose and will stand against all misfortunes of dropping, while it is of a transparent nature.
