

SONIORITY.

"Right Avenged" is the title of a four-act play to be produced tonight at Martin's Hall by a company gotten up of well known town's people to support Mr. Verne Alderman, a knight of the foot-lights. A Nugget reporter was privileged to witness a partial rehearsal one evening this week and, judging from the work done, feels confident that the play will be creditably produced and will merit the approval of all who go to see it. It is one of those melodramas so true to everyday life and so often being enacted in the lives of many. Love and jealousy, passion and repentance, sorrow and destitution, trials and fortitude, the mercenary villain, the devotion of true friends, reconciliation and the happy climax. Programmes have been printed and well distributed giving a synopsis of the play in detail and a cast of characters, which should insure a packed house. All who attend this entertainment tonight will no doubt go to their homes feeling well compensated for the time spent and the trifling fee of admission and will cherish a growing pride for the high order of talent that is budding out and dwelling in Cottage Grove.

CLOSED DOWN.

Having finished all the work laid out for this season on the Knott property, the party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Finnican, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ladd and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Meagher, arrived here Sunday. The party will leave here some time this week for Portland, where they will visit friends and relatives for a time and then will return to California for the winter, with the view of making the necessary arrangements for the shipping of a five stamp mill to be placed on the property at the earliest moment in the spring. The work this season consists of a 55 foot shaft sunk on the ledge, and in which they made the great strike at the depth of 29 feet and 3 inches. At the closing down the shaft was 55 feet deep and the last assay taken at this depth, taken from the scrapings after "mucking" out for the last time, gave a return of $785.20. Next year Mrs. Finnican will put in the 5 stamp mill and make other necessary external improvements, as well as crosscut the ledge and drive a tunnel.

PLEASANTLY REMEMBERED.

Ninety years old and surrounded by her children, grand children, great grand children and great great grand children. Such an occurrence happened at the residence of J. W. Crow on Sunday Aug. 12, when about 90 or 100 of Grandma Crow's relatives and neighbors came to help her celebrate her birthday. Propped up in her bed which she has been unable to leave for several months, she smiled and talked with her friends and seemed to enjoy herself nicely. Especially did she enjoy the singing, with Mrs. Folsom of Junction and Mrs. Bambridge of Elkhead presiding at the organ. After a very pleasant afternoon refreshments were served and the guests departed for their several homes each one wishing that grandma may see many such happy birthdays.

NEARLY A RUNAWAY.

Wednesday morning there came near being a serious runaway accident at the bridge at the mill dam. A lady was driving a horse hitched to a hack, just in the rear of a team driven by a man. As her horse came upon the bridge it became frightened and almost backed the buggy off the bridge which is without railings. The man seeing the trouble jumped out of his conveyance to the assistance of the woman, and his team, becoming frightened, almost plunged into the race at the other end of the bridge. Fortunately, the teams were controlled before any serious damage was done. Several farmers have spoken about that bridge and the one at the mill being without railings, and the county or city, which ever is responsible, should see to it at once.

THE BRICK YARD.

A good many bricks have been shipped into Cottage Grove during the past few years for the reason that this city has not been provided with a brick kiln. C. H. Wallace & Sons, who some years since burned brick here, this spring started up their yard again, on the Dave McFarland estate, and are now completing the first kiln of the season, and intend to fire the kiln Monday. The kiln contains 85,000 bricks and it will require some eight days to complete the burn. Another kiln will be built and burned this fall which will contain some 60,000 brick. This product is not intended for contract work, but for local trade. These gentlemen have had years of experience in the matter of brick making and laying and will undoubtedly put out an excellent article. Hereafter it will not be necessary to go abroad for brick to build a six foot flue. The builder can buy just as good an article at home and keep his money in his own community. Patronize home industry.

THIRY "FIT."

S. C. Mills and Enoch, one of the celebrated Siwash characters who has ornamented this thriving little city for many years got into a dispute "over money matters" last Saturday morning and a scrap was the result. Enoch claimed Mr. Mills owed him 15 cents and Mr. Mills claimed he had paid the bill to Enoch's illustrious father. Enoch became abusive and Mills tried to look pleasant and avoid him. Finally Enoch said some awful swear words to Mills and the little fellow pealed away at the "Injun" but missed. After a warm mix-up and any quantity of wild swings during which Mills landed on the Indian's mug a hot right, Marshal McFarland made his appearance and put an end to an affair which would undoubtedly, if allowed to go on, ended in the red man being pounded into an unrecognizable black and blue pulp. It will be gratifying to Mr. Mills' friends to know that he was not brow beaten into paying that 15 cents over again.

ENTERPRISE.

Geo. Lea, of this city, who was awarded the contract for the grading of the streets, being disappointed in his effort to secure one of the county's rock crushers, went to Portland last week and purchased one outright. Mr. Lea is an enterprising, progressive and up-to-date business man and he don't propose to let a little thing like the purchase of a $600.00 rock crusher stand in the way of fulfilling his contract. The crusher is now set up and ready for business.

FINED.

Fred Jones, who runs the Hart Cafe on River street, got drunk again Monday night, and in creating a disturbance in his own house, was promptly pulled by Night-watchman Miller, and landed in the city sweat box, where he did a good job making the night hideouts for those who were unfortunate enough to lodge within several blocks of the jail. Tuesday morning he was taken before Judge Medley and fined $5.00 and costs.

INTERNALLY INJURED.

Rev. C. H. Wallace met with a serious accident Monday afternoon. He was in his barn loft pitching hay, when he fell through the floor, striking across the manger, breaking two ribs and sustaining internal injuries. Dr. Job was summoned and reduced the fractures and at last accounts Mr. Wallace was resting as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

DISCONTINUED BUSINESS.

Mrs. E. J. Humphrey, who has so successfully conducted the Acme restaurant, owing to ill health, has decided to close her place of business and, in company with her daughter, Mrs. Perry Long, will leave the last of the week or the first of next for Florence, where they will take up their residence for the time being.

The town has presented a lively appearance this week.

Don't forget it! The play's the thing, "Right Avenged" tonight. Superintendent J. W. Cook, of the Musick, was in the city this week. Miss Nannie Spong, who has been quite sick, is again in good health. Cy Bingham has returned from a visit to Portland and is again in the hills. Morse McKibben came in from the hills last Saturday and will remain for some time. Miss Nora Carson of Portland, arrived here Monday, on a visit with her cousin, T. W. Blew. John Holland of the Cottage Grove Hotel made the round trip to Black Butte yesterday. John Cardwell left for the hills Monday, where he will put in the next three weeks prospecting. O. F. Knox has been under the weather this week, suffering with an attack of rheumatism. Attorney A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene, was in Cottage Grove last Tuesday, transacting legal business. Dr. Petrie, Willard Martin and H. Yaney, are spending a week on the head waters of Mosby creek. Mrs. N. E. Rodeheim, of Row River, is visiting in this city, the guest of her brother, Dave McFarland. Mrs. Martha McCarty, of Boise City, Idaho, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to her home. R. A. Sanders has moved his family from the Jordan property on Main street to the Hemenway cottage.

There is every reason to believe that the fall trade of Cottage Grove will be heavier this season than ever before. Wm. Orrell had the misfortune to get his hand caught in a grab hook last week wrenching his thumb quite badly. Howard Beagle accidentally scalded his hand last week and then got poison oak into the burn, making a painful wound. J. E. Andrews, formerly of Eugene, but now of Corvallis, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. D. T. Aubrey, of this city, last Saturday. Dr. Snapp is in receipt of a seven dollar gold nugget from a friend in Dawson, which he has mounted, making a beautiful watch charm. Dude Miller, of Saginaw, fell from the rear end of a wagon backwards, last Monday and sustained a dislocated ankle and came near breaking his leg. Jack Lawrence, formerly of the Musick mine, came in the last of the week bid his many friends good-bye, and left Sunday for Bisbee, Arizona. The postoffice at Cottage Grove has been raised from a fourth class to a third class. A better evidence of the growth of the Bohemia metropolis could not be named.—Eugene Register.

Harlie Ziegler and Miss Grace Ziegler of Eugene, George Small of Albany and Miss Tena Roach of Harrisburg drove here on Sunday from Eugene and were guests at the Cottage Grove Hotel. G. H. Crusan and son Earl, accompanied by Jack Baker, returned home Sunday from a trip to Bandon, where they have spent the last two weeks hunting. They report a pleasant time. Attorney A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene, was in the city Monday in consultation with Attorney Jerome Knox, in the matter of the Citizens vs City of Cottage Grove, relative to Wall street improvements. Sanford mills and family have gone to their former home at Woodburn, where the family will remain this winter and the children attend school. Mr. Mills expects to go south on a business venture. Today's Oregonian says: "The Chicago Typewriter, manufactured by the Chicago Writing Machine Co., was awarded the gold medal," Paris exposition. C. J. Howard, agent for Cottage Grove.

A. J. Cooley of Woodburn, who has been in the live y business at that place, has sold out his belongings there and is now here looking for a business location. He is very favorably impressed with the outlook here and will probably cast his lot with Cottage Grovelites. J. C. Johnson and Henry Lincoln were hunting on the head of Mosby creek, near Perkin's prairie, on Sunday last and brought down two fine bucks—a spike and a two pointer. Lincoln shot the deer and Johnson used up his ammunition shooting at white spots, but he earned his share of the game by packing one of the bucks for about three miles through the brush and over the roughest kind of trails.
