

A BOHEMIA MINER.

The following is from the Toronto World, all about one of the Helena mine owners: In the person of Mr. R. J. Jennings of Portland, Oregon, The World yesterday came across an incarnated proof of the wisdom of the old saying, "Go west, young man." Mr. Jennings, who is now a big, hearty man on the right side of life's meridian, was born and brought up in Spencerville, a small village back of Prescott, Ont. Nearly two decades ago he arrived at manhood and started out to pursue fair and fickle fortune. By a singular coincidence he recrossed his father's threshold just eighteen years to a day from the date on which his wanderings began. He found his father and mother grown very old, but still alive to welcome him home. The little hills about the old place had grown small in comparison with the big mountains of the Pacific coast, but his worldly wealth had developed in inverse ratio.

All the time he was away he followed mining, and today he is a chief owner in the Helena gold mine, situated in Bohemia camp, on the Southern Pacific railway, 149 miles south of Portland. This is a free milling proposition, boasting a vein from 6 to 50 feet in width, and carrying the precious metal in a form plentifully visible to the naked eye.

According to Mr. Jennings, the Helena is a wonder, for from ore taken out in development work it is with a five-stamp mill, paying $5,000 a month in dividends. The milling capacity is being doubled.

Mr. Jennings has a brother, P. J., who is first vice-president of the Portland Mining Exchange. His visit east is one of pleasure, and while in town he is being entertained by Mr. F. G. Morley of the Toronto Mining Exchange.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, But Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read His Editorial.

From the Times, Hillville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man to-day and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. WALKED IN HIS SLEEP.

Last Friday morning a man who answers to the name of John Dent, met with a serious accident near Saginaw. He was enroute to Roseburg with his wife and children and was riding on the day coach. The wife had between $2,000 and $3,000 on her person and the man had something like $175 on his person. On Friday morning he came to Saginaw and told the operator that he had been slugged, robbed and thrown from the train. He claimed that he had removed his shoes and gone to sleep in his seat, his wife remaining awake. The next thing he knew he was setting upright near the track about a half a mile north of Saginaw holding his right arm which was broken. He was otherwise badly bruised. Word was sent to this city for a physician and Dr. Snapp responded, setting the fractured arm and otherwise making the unfortunate man as comfortable as possible. He could account for the affair in no other way than that he had been slugged and robbed. He claimed that he had exhibited considerable money when buying his tickets at Portland for Roseburg and was of the opinion that he was watched and followed aboard the train. The family was enroute from Mountain Home, Idaho. When questioned as to the possibility that he might have walked off the train in his sleep he said that could not possibly be as he was not a victim of somnambulism. However, recent reports from his wife are to the effect that he is a somnambulist. Dr. Snapp is of the opinion that the man was thrown from the car and gives as argument in favor of his theory that the man was struck on the right temple with some sharp instrument, inflicting a dangerous wound. Be that as it may, the man joined his family at Roseburg the next day and probably considers himself lucky at getting off with his life.

It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c.
