

IN EMBROID.
The early-day mining and border melodrama that is in preparation by an amateur company, under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World, is to be resplendent in scenic effects if it can be made so by the untiring exertions of the manager J. C. Johnson and his able and accomplished assistant Tom Jenkins. In order to produce this play in realistic pose and environment, new and handsome stage settings are being formulated that will add interest and spirit to the acting and make the play the piece de resistance of the season. Nothing is being left undone that can be done to enhance the production of this romantic and fetching little piece, and when all is in readiness the night of its rendition will be announced. It will merit and undoubtedly will have a crowded audience.

BACK FROM COWHORN.
J. H. Quinn, Cy Bingham and Henry Johnson have returned from their trip of exploration into the fastnesses of the mountains 40 miles beyond Bohemia. They took with them seven pack animals. A great part of their way was impeded with dense underbrush, which had to be cut down before passage could be had. They found plenty of float rock and think well of that hidden country, so much so that they intend next summer to take a larger outfit, revisit the same region and make a more diligent and thorough search for treasures they have every reason to believe abound there. No accident marred the trip, and aside from its hardships they feel well repaid for the time and expense by what they saw and found.

STOCK-GROWERS MEET.
A called meeting of the South Lane County Stock and Wood Grower's Association was held on Saturday last in the office of the secretary, Jerome Knox, at which much enthusiasm was manifested and important business was transacted. A committee was appointed to draft new bylaws and constitutions; also a committee whose duty it shall be to promulgate the association's interests through the local papers throughout the county. The next regular meeting will be held on the first Monday in December. The members of the association are earnest workers and look forward to the time when much good will crown their efforts in the means and methods they are undertaking for the welfare of all.

IN THE COOLER.
Lafe Shelby, the wilom bunch-grass horseman, who has recently been assisting the cause of temperance by trying to deplete the stock of liquor on sale in this city, last Friday surrounded more than his share and more than he had space for, and a good portion went up to his head. He pranced around the main street, used obscene and blasphemous language and generally made himself very obnoxious, and the marshal gathered him into the official net and stowed him away in the city bastille until Saturday, when he was taken before Recorder Medley and fined $2.50 and costs and presented with the court's advice to go and sin no more.

LUCIOUS APPLES.
Mrs. E. A. Cottle went to Eugene last week on business connected with her interests there and to renew old and pleasant friendships. She visited one of her properties on which is grown some of the largest and most luscious apples one could wish to look upon. They are of the Northern Spire variety. This office was the recipient of two of the specimens Mrs. Cottle brought with her on returning, for which many thanks are tendered.

MONSTROUS PEARS.
C. W. Sears, whose ranch is three miles east of town, brought to the Nugget office this week specimens of the fine pears he raises. One of them measured 10 1/2 inches around. This fruit is very pleasing to the eye and later on its flavor will be tested.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The City Council met pursuant to call at 8 p.m. on Monday, October 1st.
Present—Messrs. Bennett, Martin, Taylor, Lurch and Vanoumburg.
Absent—Messrs. Christman and Stone.
After the previous minutes were read and approved and routine business disposed of the following new business was transacted:
New sidewalks were ordered laid in front of lots 1 and 2 in block 3, Perkins addition, and lot 2 in block 10 of Wynne's addition.
Bills were audited and allowed as follows:
City Attorney's salary, $113.58
Griffin & Veatch Company for cement, nails, etc., 6.65
J. M. Durham, hauling, 4.85
Cottage Grove Water Company, water for September, 5.00
J. H. Warner, building crossings, 22.35
A. Nelson, electric lights, 67.00
W. McFarland, salary as marshal and collecting water rents, 28.20
E. E. Workman, taking down bridge and putting in new, 4.00
Bohemian Nugget, for advertising, 1.00
Erwin Holman & company, street of city hall, 11.25
J. S. Medley, salary as recorder, 9.65
Warrant amount shown in favor of J. H. Perkins for $123, being contract price for grading A and Second streets on the west side.
The city attorney was instructed to prepare ordinances providing for private road work for street improvements on Fourth street, Second and A streets, Main and Wall streets, also to prepare an ordinance fixing the water rates to be charged for city water.
The ordinance was referred to meet on the 8th day at 8 p.m.

BOHEMIAN CRUSADE.

Saturday afternoon last the weather was perfect; the women and children were out in force and the crowds were augmented by a steadily number of people from the country side. Colonel Holt, the temperance lecturer, while holding forth during the week among other things organized a drill corps of all the boys and girls he could gather, instructed them in various evolutions and on Saturday paraded them on the principal streets of town. They were ornamented with red, white and blue regalia and armed with sticks and showed much proficiency in drill for so short a season of training. There were nearly 100 in line and they made a nice display and enjoyed it fully as well as the onlookers.

SEEKING TAXID.

Ed Hebard, the popular and debonair salesman in Ben Lurch's big establishment, has gone this week to Drain and Yoncosols to visit former familiar scenes, renew old friendships and form new attachments, and has taken with him a choice lot of the latest styles of feminine trappings to exhibit and sell to the stately mesdames and budding maidens who dwell in those classic environments. Ed's portly form and winning ways, together with the fine raiment he carries, are sure to give him a passport into the most select circles and flood him with the wave of trade for his house he conscientiously labors to attain.

BONDED AND FINED.

The outcome thus far of the small fracas that occurred at the Helena mine recently between two mining men was officially voiced in Roseburg on Saturday last by Justice Robinson. V. H. Behne was put under bonds of $500 to keep the peace and Herbert Leigh was fined $10 and costs for carrying concealed weapons. As to the merits and demerits of the case the reporter is not in a position to state, but it is fair to presume that the justice to whom the story of the troubles was unfolded rendered an impartial decision and dealt fairly by both of the participants.

SWINDLED.

Old man Hopkins and his wife who are deaf mutes, were hocus-focussed out of $14.75 recently by a one-armed pretended deaf mute who came from no one knows where and who disappeared as silently as he came. Out of pure sympathy the old folks parted with their money, and afterward learned to their sorrow and dismay that the fraud could prattle glibly and guzzle "booze" as though it had been his nourishment from infancy. The next deaf mute that applies for help at the Hopkins home, if without proper credentials, will get a club or scalding water.

All About You.

Dr. Hallinger, Dentist.
W. B. Dennis, manager of the Black Butte mine, was in town this week.
Chas. Brunson of the Helena, who has been visiting Portland, returned last week.

J. M. Williams of Eugene came to town in the early part of the week and returned home.

Uncle Joe Garoutte and wife will leave this week for Moscow, Idaho, for a month's visit.

Mrs. S. E. Wilbur (Aunt Sally) has sold out her little store here and gone to live in Elkton.

O. E. Knox of Eugene was here this week looking after the interests of his farm and other matters.

Thomas Gardner and wife were in town on Saturday last visiting friends and making store purchases.

J. W. Cook left this week for Portland on business and he may prolong his trip to San Francisco before he returns here.

Mrs. P. Sanford and children drove to Waller on Sunday to visit friends and enjoy the beauties of nature enroute.

Frank Henderson, who recently moved to Condyville, has been a very sick man for some days. He is now slowly recovering.

James Hemmenway is laid up from a bad cold and is a very sick man. His many friends hope to soon see him in his accustomed walks.

Theodore Jennings came back from Portland last week and went into the Bohemia hills this week. He enjoyed his carnival trip much.

Jose Martin of Lynx Hollow called at the Nugget office this week. He reported things in his vicinity in active movement and good coming to all.

Miss Maggie Witchett of Walker, who has been very ill most of the summer, is now much improved and is in town as the guest of Mrs. John Holland.

R. S. Smith had a large invoice of the best watermelons that ever came to this market on Saturday last. They came from Hilliard and were beauties.

Ned Strong is home on a short visit with his mother. His wife, who has been visiting here for some weeks will accompany him on his return to Baker City.

John Clay came out from Bohemia on Sunday. He has been in charge of the Golden Slipper property and reports it looking well. He goes east to Illinois for the winter.

J. E. Noland, ex-sheriff of Lane county, now living at Grissell, was in town this week on business and to meet old friends, and was registered at the Cottage Grove Hotel.

J. E. Wheeler arrived this week from Des Moines, Iowa, and will likely stay here all winter. He is the father of Frank Wheeler of the new hardware firm of Wheeler & South.

S. E. Lander has returned from the hop fields after six weeks' absence, and here is great joy among his lady friends again beholding his ruby-eyed visage and basking in his winning smiles.

John Holland, that prince of Bartons who guides the masses of the Cottage Grove Hotel, has completed his contract of hop-holing at the Hays yard, and is now in the enjoyment of home comforts.

Charles Vink, who has been in Bohemia all summer, is now homeward to the water to enjoy the comforts of domestic bliss and gather strength for renewed exertions when the storms of winter shall have passed.

Thomas K. Campbell of the lumber firm of Campbell & Alexander near Constock, was in town on Sunday last. He is an agreeable gentleman and his call at the Nugget office was much appreciated. Come again.

Captain O'Brien came in from Saginaw this week. He has gone hence to his ranch on the Snake to remain until about Christmas, when he will proceed to Salem to mingle with the solons in their legislative troubles.

Ira Beidler, who for the past six months has presided over the cutting blocks of McFarland & Sons meat market, has returned to his home near Oakland, Oregon. Ira is a first-class boy and his many friends will miss him.

Miss Ada Smith, teacher of the school at Divide, called at the Nugget office on Saturday last with the information that she has 30 pupils enrolled, and order, system and instruction are working in harmony in the seat of learning over which she presides.

Yes Veatch called at the Nugget office last Saturday and said he had recently sold 20 of his fine Angora goats for $5 each. Five years ago they only commanded $2.50 each. He is using the difference in prices now and then as a campaign argument among his democratic friends.

E. M. Smith came down from Bohemia on Sunday. He has been working assessments all the summer on the seven claims of the Riverside company and doing some prospecting on his own hook. Fine prospects were in sight where he left off work. He has gone to Grants Pass for the winter.

Hamilton Veatch suffered quite a loss the other day in the destruction of his dryhouse and all the fruit it contained. The fire started while the family was at dinner and before it was discovered it was beyond all control, and there was nothing to do but see it go up in smoke and regret the loss.

Thomas Kilpatrick arrived in town this week from Seattle and is registered at the Sherwood. Since he was last here he has been well over the northwest, but thinks the future of this town has the brightest outlook of any he has visited, and is now on the lookout for an opening proposition to tie up to.

W. H. Shane, one of Bohemia's faithful and devoted prospectors and mine-owners, is in town on one of his periodical trips and registered at the Hotel Sherwood. Mr. Shane, always a conservative man, cannot help feeling elated over the wonderful strikes made of late by his neighbors. He has this property also and knows what a good thing it is.
