What to Wear!

When women see a stylish, handsome jacket, you often hear them say: "Oh dear, I wish I had one like that, but I'm sure it costs so much."

Now it's the surest thing in the world they're not familiar with the PALMER GARMENT.

They're absolutely correct for style—none made any more perfect as to that, and the price is within reach of any woman's pocket-book.

My! if every one could see them, how easy it would be to settle the question of WHAT SHALL I WEAR?

OUR RIGHT TO HOLD THE PHILIPPINES.

Hon. John K. Richards, the solicitor general of the United States, delivered an address before the Pennsylvania Bar Association at Cambridge Springs, Pa., on June 26, in which the right of the United States to establish courts and civil government in the newly acquired territory of Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands was thoroughly examined.

Such right is incontestably shown in the decisions of the supreme court from the time of the acquisition of Louisiana by Jefferson to the present day. The supreme court has been equally clear on the right of the government to receive new territory by cession, purchase or otherwise. In conclusion he says:

"We have the new territories. We are responsible for them. We have entered upon a new epoch. The old sense of security and indifference which a policy of isolation gave us is gone. We have become one of the world powers, sharing the burdens they must bear. Even now our marines, shoulder to shoulder with the men of England and Germany and Russia and France and Austria and Italy and Japan, are at the gates of far-off Peking to enforce the just demands of civilization.

"The path of duty before us is plain. May we not walk in it? Does the constitution forbid? Is the constitution a trap, caught in which we shall excite the pity of our friends and the derision of our foes? I refuse to believe so. The constitution is no mere declaration of denials. It created a nation which has become the greatest on the earth. When it conferred power, it took care not to cripple action. It still remains the most perfect instrument ever struck off by the hand and brain of man, under which we are armed for every emergency and able to cope with every condition."

RALLY ON THE CENTER.

The campaign is over. The long roll has sounded; the bugles have called boots and saddles; the boys have fallen into line, touched elbows, and wait with eager impatience to charge the enemy and route them.

The outposts have all been called in, and from Maine to California they are rallying on the center with a courage that is invincible and a determination that presages victory.

There is not a coward in our ranks, not a living soul who does not feel that when the polls close next Tuesday night the Bryan-Tillman-Altgeld-Crocker party will be routed horse, foot and dragoons, and will be scurrying hither and yon, utterly demoralized.

If the campaign could continue a month longer democrats would become as scarce as snakes in Ireland.

WE ARE ALL EMPERORS HERE.

Speaking to the Twentieth Century Club in New York, Bird S. Coler said:

"Our government is not going to be converted into an empire. Looking into the horizon of our political future, there is no danger more remote than the possibility that the people will surrender their rights and powers into the hands of one man. We may, in time, create an empire of liberty, equality and prosperity that will reach around the world, but while American manhood and love of freedom and justice endure it will remain an empire where every citizen is an emperor."

INCOME TAX IS BRITISH.

Bryan has always been very insistent that this country should not adopt the policy of any foreign nation. We should be independent and not "ask the aid or consent of any other nation" for anything.

Yet one of the chief articles of his faith is for an income tax, which is in the highest degree peculiarly British. It was invented by William Pitt about a hundred years ago, after every other conceivable form of taxation had been exhausted, to raise money to carry on the Napoleonic wars.

Bryan rejects the gold standard for the reason that it was adopted by England, and has since been accepted by all the greatest commercial nations of the world, but he would have the income tax, one of the most inquisitorial forms of taxation ever laid upon a free people.

He would copy England in one of her most hateful forms of taxation, but he scorns her lead in a monetary policy that has placed her at the head of every commercial nation, and which made London the exchange and counting house of the world.

Mr. Bryan may be a plausible orator but he is neither a consistent logician nor a wise statesman.

The mind of the people is now made up. The fight is over. Another campaign of education is finished and it only remains for the workers to get out the votes in order that McKinley's administration be gloriously vindicated at the polls.

Mr. Croker's Hoffman House dinner to Mr. Bryan was a great success as an exhibition of oriental magnificence. It cost $50 per plate and the taxpayers of New York doubtless feel that their money is being recklessly expended.

The only valid argument thus far advanced against expansion is that the admission of Hawaii gave the democrats the one vote necessary to put 16 to 1 in their national platform.

The Kansas banks have over $61,000,000 they are unable to loan. Yet Mr. Bryan complains because we are loaning money abroad at a good rate of interest.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. Try it. For sale by Bessons Drug Co., Cottage Grove, ORE. LYONS & APPELGATE, Drain Druggist.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Bessons Drug Co., Cottage Grove, ORE. LYONS & APPELGATE, Drain Druggists.
