FOR PRESIDENT
WILLIAM MCKINLEY
OF OHIO

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
THEO. ROOSEVELT OF NEW YORK.

"In war or in peace, whether dealing with the whites or blacks, foreign or natives, President McKinley's course has been dictated by a singleness of purpose—that of faithfully administering the trust placed in his hands. Uninfluenced by prejudice, unmoved by ill-advised clamor, and unruffled by captious criticism, he pursues the even tenor of his way, adhering steadfastly to the right as God gives him the light to see the right, vindicating day by day the judgment of his supporters, and presenting to the nations of the globe the perfect embodiment of the typical American." Charles H. Grosvenor.

Ex-United States Senator John H. Mitchell will address the citizens of Cottage Grove on the vital issues of this campaign at Masonic Hall this (Friday) evening. The Senator is a gifted speaker and you will enjoy an hour with him. This will be the closing speech of the campaign for the continuance of prosperity and the election of McKinley and Roosevelt. A big house should greet the speaker and all should attend.

The South has already disfranchised the Afro-American. Bourke Cockran and other prominent northern democrats favor the repeal of the Fifteenth Amendment. The democrats of both sections of the country have agreed to this proposition.

The democratic test of loyalty is that one must be willing to starve and stagnate under democratic mismanagement, rather than endorse by his vote one of the most magnificent administrations ever enjoyed by the American people.

As soon as McKinley was elected in 1896 confidence was restored and we have had prosperity ever since. Why change conditions to the hard times in vogue from 1892 to 1896?

Bryan may talk all right, but if elected his acts will be in accord with the men who made him a presidential possibility; and these men are all against the black man.

Maryland gave Bryan a cordial reception, but will cast her vote for McKinley, thus indicating both her hospitality and her judgment.

The Lincoln candidate can now commence to sharpen his pencil and get ready to write "The Second Battle; or How It Happened."

The democratic thugs may continue to throw stones at Governor Roosevelt, but they cannot affect the opinion of the American voters.

Better keep the mills open than to open the soup-houses.

You voted for prosperity and got it. Will you now vote against it?

Yes, we'll yell, "All is well!" the night of the sixth of November.

PAXTON SPEAKS.

A LARGE AUDIENCE GREETED HIM AT THE OPERA HOUSE

An Able Showing Made for the Administration and Much Enthusiasm Aroused.

The afternoon train on Monday brought to Cottage Grove the Hon. O. F. Paxton of Portland, who is before the people on the republican ticket as presidential elector of Multnomah county. He was met at the depot by a committee and escorted to the Hotel Sherwood, where a levee was held with the party leaders. He was billed to speak at 7:30. By that hour the hall was nicely filled, many ladies being present. Darwin Bristow was the chairman of the meeting and in a graceful and easy manner introduced the speaker to his audience.

Mr. Paxton is a forceful and ready talker and before he had been on his feet three minutes he had the entire attention and confidence of his hearers, and for the next two hours interest never lacked while he unfolded in a masterly manner all the live issues that confront the American people in this campaign. He made many telling points against the opposition by reading now and then an extract from utterances in speeches made by the democratic leader four years ago and comparing them with the wild and senseless mouthings of that same leader now. The fallacies of democratic theories on financial lines were exploded and the insincerity of the Bryan howl against trusts was clearly proven by the records of congress, inasmuch as the only measure to regulate trusts was put upon the statute by republican votes against the united opposition of the democratic force in that body.

The great democratic bugaboo of imperialism was dissected and the speaker asked his audience where could be the great fear of military ascendancy to a people of 76,000,000 with a handful of 27,000 regulars and 35,000 volunteers that will be disbanded as soon as the traitors at home are relegated to a back seat by the votes of American patriots.

Many topics of inside administration history were touched upon and made plain and the able discourse was often warmly applauded.

Mr. Paxton on Tuesday went north to Albany and thence he goes into Eastern Oregon and will continue his speaking tour until election day.

If the private letters from officers serving in the Philippines could reach the public there would be no doubt of the fact that the insurgents' present activity is caused entirely by the hopes they have of Bryan's election. To say the least it is an unfortunate position for a candidate to be placed in when his words and avowed policy give hope and encouragement to the armed foes of his own government.

This talk of corruption in view of the proposed expenditure of about $2,000,000 by Tammy in New York City, and the methods that prevail in the solid South, ought not to make much of an impression among the people. It is the same old cry that has been heard in every campaign in which the republicans have won.

As an evidence of what democratic editors really think as to the result of the election, it may be noted that they devote considerable space to speculations as to who will constitute McKinley's next cabinet, while they are not even guessing about Bryan's advisers.

Mr. Bryan says the talk of the full dinner pail is an insult to the intelligence of the American laborer. Yet there are some very intelligent laborers who regard it as a great improvement over the democratic free soup house.

S. M. YORAN.

An Eloquent Speaker, a Sound Reasoner and an Able Advocate of Progress and Prosperity.

On Wednesday evening Martin's Hall was well filled and the audience for over two hours was eloquently entertained by Hon. S. M. Yoran of Eugene. He discussed the expansion policy of this government from its inception to the present day, gave the most profound and logical reasons for every step in advance that this nation had ever taken, proved the justification and wisdom of the addition of every piece of territory now under the folds of the flag, cited the immense strides of commerce and the tremendous building up of the arteries of trade and traffic to the glory and honor of this country through the statesmanship and far-sighted genius of the leaders of the republican party, and prophesied a glorious victory for McKinley and Roosevelt on Tuesday next.

He was listened to in earnest attention throughout and was enthusiastically applauded. His object lessons were terse, sharply pointed and went directly home to his auditors, and throughout his manly and masterly effort never once did he utter a coarse or uncomplimentary epithet adverse to his opponents except to point out the unwisdom and false theories set afloat by the prophet of democracy.

He was introduced by C. H. Burkholder as chairman of the evening, who presided with dignity and effectiveness, and the meeting was in point of eloquence, instructiveness and the exemplification of the good work performed by the party of progress and prosperity, a genuine success.

Mr. Bryan recently attacked expansion and commended William H. Seward in the same speech. Seward was the first to carry our flag across the salt water, planting it in Alaska. Mr. Bryan endorsed the sentiment "He Was Faithful" Seward was; but not in Bryan's fashion.

Kentucky will fall into line this year. The republican national and state tickets will be elected by a majority which cannot be questioned.

The positive certainty of republican success is now assured and it is only a question of the size of the majorities that will be given for sound government.

When Bryan copyrighted his book he availed himself of the most extreme form of protection known to the law. No manufacturer has any such absolute and unlimited protection as Bryan has.

The heaviest frost of the season is recorded at Indianapolis. The expected great gathering of democratic claus from all over the country fizzled out so that on opening day barely 1,000 were present.

If Bryan is elected this country will have a lightning change of the worst character. We will have a good taste of his policy long before his inauguration and a bitter one it will be.

The men who are denouncing McKinley for imperialism and militarism now, were tuning against him two years ago as a peace-policy man who would stand any insults from Spain.

MOTHERS!

Don't Let Baby Suffer.

THERE IS ONLY ONE THING KNOWN for aiding the teething process and slow growth in infants and children, and that is, for very obvious reasons, called ANTIFRET. It stops the fretting, restlessness, general feebleness, colic and diarrhoea. Prevents brain troubles and convulsions. Relieves itching gums unaccountably. It has been estimated that five millions of babies die annually for want of mothers knowing what to do. Dentition is the dangerous period of child life, far too serious to be dismissed with the careless remark "Baby is cutting her teeth." Your child needs bone want. In tasteless, dissolves in milk and taken easily. One box will save your baby untold misery sent postpaid by return mail on receipt of 50 cents. Full instructions with each package sold in full for those returned with sending stamps in full for those returned within 30 days not over one fourth used.

Mr. Bryan can promise the country that there will not be many strikes when he becomes president. Idle working men do not strike; neither will employed labor strike on a falling market.

Bryan's patriotism is of that peculiar kind that would lead him to wreck every industrial institution in the country in order to make a practical experiment of his theories.
