

A VILLAGE BLACKSMITH SAVED HIS LITTLE SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. SIX FRIGHTFUL FAILURES.

Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, including Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Croup, Whooping Cough, 50c and $1.00. BRAVE EXPLORERS

Like Stanley and Livingstone, found it harder to overcome Malaria, Fever and Ague, and Typhoid disease germs than savage cannibals; but thousands have found that Electric Bitters is a wonderful cure for all malarial diseases. If you have chills with fever, aches in back of neck and head, and tired, worn-out feeling, a trial will convince you of their merit. W. A. Null of Webb, Ill., writes: "My children suffered for more than a year with chills and fever; then two bottles of Electric Bitters cured them. Only 50c. Try them. Guaranteed. Sold by BEXSON DRUG CO., Druggist.

EDITOR SEES WONDERS.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. Try it. Continued from First page. here than in Cripple Creek and of a much higher commercial value. But the prospector here is compelled to throw over his dump ore of a better value than the average worked at Leadville. Then there is the fluxes to be shipped in. Let me say to you there is but a very little of that required that is not produced in our own camp and as is proven, by proper management, this can be made a paying business. The merchants here will profit by creating a market for their supplies. The miner will profit by being furnished a cash market for his product, enabling him to do more development, increasing the value of his property while he is getting money enough out of it to live on. The smelter will pay a dividend to its stockholders instead of levying an assessment.

The miners will form an agreement to furnish the ore graded, so there can be no possible show of loss to the smelter people. There is now an assured amount of ore to keep a 20 ton smelter in operation for two years, and in that time there will be enough development to require more capacity if a market is furnished.

THANKSGIVING ON THE FARM.

Oh! the farm was bright, Thanksgiving morn, With its stacks of hay and shocks of corn, Its pumpkin heaps in the rambling shed, And its apples brown, green and red; And in the cellar, its winter store In bins that were filled and running o'er With all the things that a farm could keep, In barrel and bin and goodly heap, Hung to the rafters, and hid away— Oh! the farm was a pleasant place to stay!

And here and there was the Jersey stock, The sheep and horses,—old Prince and Jock,— The turkeys and geese and awkward calf, And the goats that made the children laugh; A pair of mules that a friend had sent Out to the farm on experiment, Pigeons and fowls and a guinea pig, Dogs that were small and dogs that were big, Chickens that were white and black and gray— Oh! the farm was a pleasant sight that day!

Out back of the house the orchard stood, Then came the brook and the chestnut wood, The old saw-mill where the children play, The fodder-barn with its piles of hay, The walnut grove and the cranberry bog, The woodchuck hole and the barking dog, The wintergreen and the robber's cave, (Wherein who entered was counted brave.) The skating-pond with its fringe of hay— Oh! the farm was a pleasant place to stay!

The big home barn was a place of joy For the romping girl and the climbing boy, With beans and mows and ladders to mount, Horses and oxen and sheep to count, Hunting of nests of shy old hens, Tunelling hay and fashioning dens, Helping the men to do up the chores, Shutting windows and locking the doors, Letting some work come in with the play— Oh! the farm was a jolly place to stay!

Oh! the pantry shelves were loaded down With cakes that were plump and rich and brown, With apple pies and pumpkin and mince, And jellies and jams and preserved quince, Cranberry sauce and puddings and rice, The dessert dishes that look so nice, Vegetables, breads and bonbons sweet, A great brown turkey and plates of meat, Sausages fixed in the daintiest way— Oh! 'twas a glorious sight that day!

Oh! the farm was bright, Thanksgiving morn, The sun shone clear on the hay and corn, The guests came early with laugh and shout, And the boys and girls scattered about, Seeking the pets they had known before, Climbing through window instead of door, Racing from barn to corn-crib or mill, Shouting and laughing with glee, until The dinner-horn sounded. Oh! I say, 'Twas pleasant upon the farm that day!

R. G. Dun, the head and front of the commercial agency that bears his name, died in New York on Saturday last.
