AGOOD LETTER.

A Well Known Mining Man's Opinion About Things in General

The author of the following article is deserving of considerable credit for his observations along this line and while no one is guilty of trying to give Bohemia a black eye intentionally, it is quite often that many make remarks that do not encourage people who are making inquiries of the camp, and the following may serve to put them on their guard:

"There are those about Cottage Grove, even the merchants and business men, who are becoming discouraged concerning the outlook for Bohemia. They think that because a few men sell out here and go to some other place, that the camp is done. Not so, for mining men are not a fixed class as farmers, but go here and there where the outlook is best or where there is more stir.

Now the greatest fault to be found with Bohemia is the actions of these same business men. They do not take the trouble to make themselves acquainted with the Bohemia mines and facts concerning them.

When a stranger comes into town, the only advertisement of the mines he can see anywhere is a little unlabeled rock in a window here and there. If he goes into one of the hotels, he sees no advertisement of the mines. If he asks about the mines or what is being done up there, he is told, "O, I don't know, they have been scratching around there for ten or twelve years, but I don't know whether it amounts to anything or not." The stranger on hearing such talk as this, asks when the next train is due, so that he can get out of town. Many a man has come to Cottage Grove and from the talk he hears he never sees Bohemia.

If Bohemia had had enterprising people behind it, it in my opinion would have been one of the largest and richest camps on the coast before this time. But the claims have been taken up and held by men who know nothing of mining except as they have learned it in the slow school of experience. When a mining man comes to look over the country, he finds it all located for miles around and the claims held at such prices that they can't be touched. Because one man has used poor judgment on bonding a claim, the whole camp is scared for a year and afraid to bond another claim.

I offered $18,000 for an undeveloped claim, $4,000 was to be paid down and the balance at the end of one year. $5,000 was to be expended in one tunnel within the year and the present owners were to be given work at $3 per day. The offer was refused. $20,000 net within 30 days was the price asked. This kind of work is against the camp.

Look at other camps. Go into a hotel, you need ask no questions, just take up a paper or look about the room; you will learn about every mine; how many men are employed; every stage line; when they leave and arrive; and whatever else the camp is doing that will be of interest to you.

What does a man find here to inform him concerning Bohemia? Let the business men answer.

How does the ore here compare with that of other camps? Look at Iron Mountain, Shasta county, California. Their average is not above $4 per ton. They have five smelters, the least of which has 700 tons capacity. Their net profits last year amounted to $2,500,000, besides employing 900 men.

What could be done in Bohemia with the high grade ore to be found there, where the average of the developed ledge is not less than $20 per ton. I am not leaving Cottage Grove because I have lost faith in the camp. My old home and property is at Redding, California. I have succeeded in selling my claims here and have a better offer to go there than remain here. My wife and I have many friends we hate to leave. We wish them all good luck and are sure the day is not far distant when Bohemia will be a mining camp that will give employment to hundreds of miners at good wages, giving wealth to the mine owners and make a fine city of Cottage Grove.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LAGRIPPE.

George W. Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Bessos Drug Co., Cottage Grove. LYONS & APPLEGATE, Drain.

The bill to establish a bureau of mines in Oregon was killed by the legislature. The correspondent of the Evening Telegram at Salem makes the assertion that the bill was killed by a representative of a mining county because he was afraid a political rival would receive the appointment. By the time another two years roll around the mining industry of Oregon will have grown to such proportions that not even the jealousy of a politician can prevent its receiving the treatment by the lawmakers that it deserves.—Mining Journal.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular banker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Bessos Drug Co., Cottage Grove. APPLGATE & LYONS, Drain.

WHAT'S YOUR FACE WORTH?
