C. J. HOWARD - - - EDITOR.

FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1901.

The gutters on Main street are in an unkept condition. Why not clean them up a bit?

The citizens of Cottage Grove should discuss ways and means by which an effort might be made to interest those who are now coming into the state with the view of permanent location. It would be a good idea to follow the steps of other towns and organize a board of trade or a commercial club whereby the numerous advantages of this section of Lane county could be presented to the homeseekers. In order that our community may grow and prosper, it is apparent that an increase in population must be secured. Homeseekers, many of them well-to-do, are now on their way or contemplating a visit to Oregon. This section should secure a representative number, and if we lay out a little effort at the proper time we can get it.

The last rites over the inanimate form of ex-President Harrison have been said, and he sleeps in the tomb. A few months since there was some comment as to what we should do with our ex-presidents, ex-President Harrison has solved the problem. Respect and honor them during the years they remain with us. Speak gently of them. Keep not our kisses for their "dead cold brow," but show our appreciation of them while yet in life. When the angel, Death, reaches down and beckons them, let us lay them in the tomb with the honors due them, and cherish their memory for the good offices they performed.

Too much encouragement and support cannot be given such men as Geo. W. Lloyd, the well known mining engineer, who is now operating in Bohemia. He is a man of well established reputation, whose judgment in mining circles is unquestioned. Again he is a man who has unbounded faith in the future of Bohemia and Cottage Grove. He has come quietly and with no blast of trumpets and has gone steadily to work developing his properties and advertising the district. The good judgment of the gentleman has been demonstrated to us not only by the recommendation advanced by those who have operated with him elsewhere, but through the showing made upon his property now under rapid development, which already shows substantial prospects.

Again we find ourselves viewing marvelously rich specimens from the Vesuvius mine in Bohemia. The samples brought out are almost beyond the most sanguine expectations. This is the mine that one Park, now operating in Blue river, bonded and who failed to make his bond good. As soon as he found that some of his amateur work on the property did not pay and his money was not forth coming it is alleged that he run not only the famous Vesuvius property down but spoke disparagingly of the district. Not later than three weeks ago, it is said that he admitted that he made a mistake in his judgment on the Stock Harlow-Brush property (which he also bonded at the same time and afterwards threw up, and upon which the owners made a wonderful strike running as high as $249,000 to the ton,) but that he wouldn't take the Vesuvius as a gift. Again the Nugget wishes to remind Mr. Park that his judgment is no better in the one case than in the other, and that if the comments alleged to have been made by him are true, he has also displayed poor judgment in choosing his language.

WILL MOVE LARGE MILL.

The Eugene Register is authority for the statement that the Booth-Kelly Co. will shortly move their large saw mill, known as mill No. 1, from its present location to a convenient place to be used in the large timber tract on Mosby creek which they recently purchased from Messrs Jones & Cook. The premises around mill No. 1 will be turned into a piling, pole and wood camp. The plan of operation and the new location has not yet been decided upon.

Cottage Grove should by all means secure the location of this great enterprise in or near the city.

The entertainment at Martin's Hall last Saturday evening demonstrated that Cottage Grove has a good supply of talent in the musical and dramatic line. An opera or play could be put up here with very little effort.

There is some talk of running Hon. S. H. Friendly of Eugene for mayor of that city the ensuing term. A better selection could not be made. Mr. Friendly is one of the most progressive and enterprising citizens in Lane county. A man always awake and interested in the projects calculated to be of worth to his city, county and state. A man who believes that when a certain thing is worth doing it is worth doing well. A man who can entertain and be entertained. A man who will reflect credit upon the town which honors him. Eugene couldn't do better.

A very disagreeable and disgusting feature of Cottage Grove hoodlumism was apparent at the entertainment at Martin's Hall last Saturday night. The back seats were filled with boys all the way from 10 years of age to 21—young men who ought to know enough to at least be gentlemen in public whether they are endowed with gentlemanly instincts or not—who continually kept stamping their feet and whistling, to the disgust and mortification of those who were unfortunate enough to have paid their money and have seats near them, say nothing of the unpleasantness administered to those who were trying to entertain. If young men have not the decency to go to public gatherings and behave, they should be put out, and the proprietor of Martin's Hall will confer a lasting favor upon the public if he will hereafter station an officer in the rear of the house with such authority.

ENTERTAINED.—

Mrs. Herbert Eakin entertained the C. P. Endeavor Society at her residence Friday evening. After the business of the society was dispensed with, the evening was devoted to social amusements. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served and the Endeavorers went home after spending a most enjoyable evening.

TO DRUG PATRONS.—

To do justice to your physician and at the same time relieve the suffering of the sick, to much consideration cannot be given the quality of drugs used in the compounding of prescriptions. Benson Drug Co. takes particular pains in the selection of the best drugs in the market, and realize the necessity of careful attention to all prescriptions. Remember the place—Benson Drug Co.

ABOUT THE ESTRAY LAW.—

The new law in reference to taking up estrays needs to be studied, as there is a provision for a fine of $10 to $100 for taking up an estray without complying with the provisions of the act. When an estray is taken up three notices have to be posted. It is provided though that no estrays shall be taken up during the months of May to November inclusive except breachy of vicious animals which may be taken up in any month. Within ten days the owner may claim and secure the animal upon the payment of $1 fee and a reasonable price for keeping it. After ten days the county clerk is notified and the animal is appraised and sold, being advertised in a newspaper if over $15.—Guard.

DIVIDE ITEMS.

School opened a week ago with a small attendance.

Mr. Tucker and part of his family of Silk Creek moved over here to stay during the spring and summer.

The rock crusher which was started up here during the winter, was being overhauled last week by Mr. Good-enough preparatory to being placed in position for use.

The Divide Literary Society disbanded last Saturday night.

Died, Thursday night at his home here James Monroe Miller, aged 32 years, and 1 month. He was born Feb. 16, 1869 in Grayson county, Kentucky, being the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller. Deceased came to Brownsville, Ore., in 1891, from there he moved to Eugene, then to Covate Creek, and finally moved here with his parents over a year ago. He has been in the employ of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., and was considered one of their best timber fallers. He worked for them until he met with the accident last November which cost him his life. He has been bedridden since that time, but patient and uncomplaining. He leaves one little boy to mourn the loss of a loving father, his wife having preceded him to the great beyond. Shortly before he was injured he joined the Modern Woodmen. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. The funeral was held Saturday.
