Disorders incident to the human frame, of which a majority are caused or promoted by impure blood.

The worst cases of scrofula, the most agonizing sufferings from salt rheum and other virulent blood diseases, are conquered by it, while those cured of boils, pimples, dyspeptic and bilious symptoms and that tired feeling are numbered by millions.

HOMERUN PHILOSOPHY.

Observations on Commonplace Things by the Atchison Glob. Man. A new girl's popularity is as short lived as that of a bride.

Marriage is a good deal like gambling; everybody who plays, loses.

A genuine whist crank prefers a whist game without prizes or refreshments.

When a married couple do not "get along," it is a sign that they never paid the preacher.

So many are going to the devil as to cause some wonder if he has new invitations out.

Don't abuse the men; abuse nature. It was intended that men should be the jays that they are.

When it rains on a reception, the women who are not invited feel that the Lord is on their side.

It is the polite thing to say of a girl whose hair is rough that she dresses it in the chrysanthemum style.

Doesn't a man have to work hard enough with his head all day without sitting up late to play whist?

People are always willing to hear a local elocutionist for the first time, that they may make comparisons.

Every one who visits a great deal, is a gossip. This can be set down as a rule, and everyone measured by it.

When a pretty girl comes to town, the town girls say, "Yes, she is awfully nice, but—"and then roast her for an hour.

A woman doesn't put the photographs of the friends she likes best on the mantel, but those that take the prettiest pictures.

Some people have a reputation of being great whist players because they frown and look deeply preoccupied in playing the game.

Always remember that if a man knows where you can make a dollar, he will not tell you about it; he will go after it himself.

More than half of the men who make money, lose it in middle life, by investing in schemes. Only one scheme in fifty pays expenses.

It is easy for a woman to be original simply by not claiming when something happens to her that she dreamed it was going to happen.

If people use all the new fangled bread and butter plates, knife rests, etc., which are the craze now, there will not be room on the table for a man to put his elbows.

Every day the telegraph relates how some old husband was poisoned by his young wife, and every day old men continue to get in front of the engine by falling in love with young girls.

"Use your own judgment," an agent said to a man he was trying to work. "I have no confidence in my own judgment," the man replied. "I have tried using my own judgment, and it failed me."

It is related that an Atchison man murmured "I see angels," when on his death bed recently, and that his wife, who was attending him, said through her tears that it was the first compliment he had paid her since they were married.

No visitors are welcome in any place of business except on rainy days. A business man may not say much when visitors come in when he is busy, but neither does a woman say anything when a caller drops in and stays till the dish water is cold.

The young men are crowding a new pretty girl so hard she doesn't get time to eat on Sunday. However, she will have opportunity to eat three full meals a day, and sleep between times without interruption in a few weeks. The young men are very tickle.

In one particular no stove does what is advertised for it. Pictures of a new stove always represents a woman with a white apron on and her hair curled, the picture of neatness, engaged in cooking the meal. As we said before, no stove does all that is advertised for it.

WONDERFUL CURE IN A STUBBORN CASE OF RHEUMATISM. The Evidence is Furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Trade of Wellsburg, New York, and Cannot Be Doubted.

The popular secretary of the Wellsburg, N. Y., board of trade is Mr. W. J. Dalton, and his statement to a reporter regarding one of the most important events of his life carries with it the greatest weight.

"I had been troubled with rheumatism all my life, even when a boy. It attacked me in the legs, arms and shoulders. The pain in the latter was particularly severe. I, of course, took medicine for it, but did not obtain permanent relief.

One day about three years ago while reading a newspaper, I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and determined to give them a trial.

I had taken but three boxes of the pills when the trouble, which had been my affliction from childhood, entirely disappeared.

About a year later I had another attack of rheumatism which was brought on by working in a damp place. I remembered well what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People had done for me, so I immediately purchased some. Strangely enough, just three boxes again cured me, and I have been entirely free from rheumatism ever since.

I have told a number of people about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and they have taken them with most beneficial results."

Why a Woman is Able to Help Sick Women When Doctors Fail.

How gladly would men fly to woman's aid did they but understand a woman's feelings, trials, sensibilities, and peculiar organic disturbances.

Those things are known only to women, and the aid a man would give is not at his command.

To treat a case properly it is necessary to know all about it, and full information, many times, cannot be given by a woman to her family physician. She cannot bring herself to tell everything, and the physician is at a constant disadvantage. This is why, for the past twenty-five years, thousands of women have been confiding their troubles to us, and our advice has brought happiness and health to countless women in the U.S.

Mrs. Chappell, of Grant Park, Ill., whose portrait we publish, advises all suffering women to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it cured her of inflammation of the ovaries and womb; she, therefore, speaks from knowledge, and her experience ought to give others confidence. Address Mrs. Pinkham's Laboratory, Lynn, Mass.
