The Boston Bloomers, Ladies Champion Base Ball Club will play the Cottage Grove Club, This will be one of the most interesting and exciting games of the senson. The Boston Bloomers consist of twelve ladies from various metropolitan cities, who have been engaged to travel with this organization. Each of these ladies is a ball player in every sense of the word, and all who witness the game will be surprised to see the manner in which these ladies handle the ball. They are traveling in their own special car under the management of W. Needham. They carry 1,500 feet of side wall to surround the grounds, and will erect a canvass canopy under which there will be comfortable seats. This will be the event Bass a Specialty. of the season and will afford the or American method. amusement seekers of this city the only opportunity of witnessing this truly novel, exciting and interesting game. Admission 25c and 5oc.

A WONDERFUL MIRACLE.

Trent, Ore., June 11, 1901. Dear Editor of the Bohemia Nugget: Please grant me space to publish this wonderful miracle in your paper. Mr. R. Garhan's of Trent, Ore., little son two years and a hair old was taken very ill on Monday June 3rd. The parents immediately sent to Eugene for a doctor, the doctor arrived and stated that the child had brain fever and said he could not sure the child on no other doctor. not cure the child or no other doctor. They sent and consulted a second doctor of Eugene and he could do nothing. of Eugene and he could do nothing. The parents believing that there was hope as long as there was life immidiately sent for Mrs. C. Wolfer the home healer of Comstock, Ore., and Mr. T. Hansaker of Zion, Ore., who has been a udying the science of healing for some time. When the healer arrived at the bedside of the child all present had given the child all present had given the child all signs of life had gone from the child. The healer requested all to leave the room but the mother of the child. They commenced their healing power on the child at once. Within fifteen minutes after the healers their healing power on the child at once, Within fifteen minutes after the healers began this work the child came to life and saked for a drink of water. The day after sat up at the table and ate dinner with the family, and is now almost sound and well.
