

CAN'T PLAY BALL.

The Boston Bloomer Girls and Bohemian baseball teams crossed bats on the Stouffer field Tuesday. It was plain to be seen from the time the first ball was thrown that the girls were not in the game. They have a little scheme by which they manage to run in a few scores and that is this, their catcher, a man, is a very fine batter, never failing to punch out a "two or three bagger," and whenever the bases are full, whether it is his turn at the bat or not, he bats. The home team played fair ball, considering that they had not practiced since the game with the Eugene Ramblers, a month ago. The following is the line up of the two teams:

Table with 2 columns: BOHEMIANS and BLOOMERS. Rows include player names and positions like c, p, ss, 1b, 2b, 3b, lf, cf, rf.

The following is the score by innings: Bloomers 0 1 0 0 1 3 0 1-7 Bohemians 3 3 0 4 0 4 3 0-17. The only feature of the game was Carrie Nation, the smasher, smashing the ground once, in left field. James Potts umpired the game.

COMPLETED.—The grading and macadamizing of Main and Wall streets is now completed and the streets present a good appearance. Mr. Lea the contractor informed a Nugget reporter that he had gone behind something like $200 on the contract which is very much to be regretted. He has done a first class job from beginning to end and in many instances going beyond the requirements of his contract in order to do so. The streets are something that our little city should be proud of, for there are many towns of twice our population that do not have as good streets. They will last for many years and will require very little work to keep them in good shape. Such improvements speak well for any city.

Wm. Hemmenway formerly identified with Mr. Burkholder of this city in the general merchandise business, and who recently sold his interest to his brother, D. H. Hemmenway, returned from a visit to Seattle last Sunday. While in Seattle he identified himself with the Seattle Cracker and Candy Co., and has accepted a position with the firm as city salesman. He will remove his family to that city, leaving here next Sunday. Mr. Hemmenway and family have many friends here, formed through an association of some ten years, who will regret to see them depart for their new home, at the same time wishing them happiness and prosperity.

THE GENIAL FRANK HAMBRICK has been seen on the streets the last week the first time for three months. Frank is pretty much of a stayer at any thing he undertakes, hence his absence for the specified three months. He has been working at the Geer and Rouse saw mill most of the time and just now has completed the contract for delivering 6,000 ties from that mill to the S. P. Co. here. Mr. Hambrick got his ties down without mishap and says he cleared $4.00 per day on the deal.

A COMPLIMENT.—The Southern Pacific Co. as well as the O. R. & N. Co., have issued passes to many of the prominent farmers of the valley, soliciting their attendance on a series of lectures to be given this week at the Agricultural college at Corvallis, with the view of interesting them in the advanced methods of farming, stock raising and dairying. Among those honored are to be found the names of Alex Cooley, Felix Currin, Ira Conner and J. I. Jones of this city. The gentlemen left for Corvallis Wednesday and expect to return Friday.

MEET AGAIN.

Several years ago there lived in this little city two young ladies, Misses Clara Wiley and Carrie Wagner, who were the dearest friends. It was seldom one was seen without the other. As time rolled by bringing forth many changes, the girls were separated. Miss Wiley moved with her parents to Salem and was married to Mr. C. Hughes, while a few years later Miss Carrie Wagner became Mrs. James and has since resided at Los Angeles. Neither one had heard from the other for several years until last Sunday, when they met here in Cottage Grove, each having returned to visit their old home.

OFF THE TRACK.—Wednesday morning the north-bound overland was setting off the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" special car at this place, in some way the signal of the brakeman was not observed by the engineer and the train smashed into the bank car of the work train standing on the switch. No particular damage was done, except one pair of trucks on the bank car was derailed. The boys who were sleeping in the car were pretty well shaken up.

SOCIAL AT CRESWELL.—The Epworth League gave an ice cream and strawberry social at Creswell last Friday evening. A musical and literary program was rendered, which was well gotten up and a credit to the little city. A large crowd was present and all seemed to enjoy themselves to their heart's content. The people of Creswell know how to have a good time.

HEAVY LOSS.—Geo. H. Small, well known here, arrived from Eastern Oregon Tuesday. Mr. Small brought a band of horses to the valley with him coming via the military route. Near Kitson Springs he met with an accident which resulted in the death of six of his best horses. The county bridge near the Hill place broke through with his horses, which resulted in the death of six of them as stated above.

LECTURE.—Rev. Green, of the Eugene Divinity School, also a graduate of the Phenomenological School of San Francisco, lectured on phrenology at the Christian Church last Friday and Saturday evening to a small audience. His lectures were interesting and deserving of a crowded house.

BLACKSMITH SHOP RENTED.—Mr. Miller, of Eugene, has rented the Hemmenway blacksmith shop on Main street and will continue the business. Mr. Miller comes highly recommended and as one who thoroughly understands his business. He has been employed for some time in the Frazer Iron works at Eugene.

TO THE HOSPITAL.—Master Guy Van Riper, who has been seriously ill with an abscess on his back, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland this week, where an operation was performed. The doctors pronounced the disease consumption of the vertebra. At last accounts he was getting along nicely.

MOVING.—Jenkins and Lawson have fitted up the Deamett building on Main street preparatory to moving their shelf goods into the same from the Lurch building on Fifth street. They will still retain the Lurch building for a shop.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral services of the late John B. England was held Sunday at 11 o'clock at the C. P. church in this city. Rev. Wooley, of Fairmount, preached the funeral sermon to a large audience.

NEW REGISTER.—The Imperial Hotel has a fine new register. It is one of the latest designs for hotel registers and is very nicely gotten up.

NEW FENCE.—Mr. A. Nelson has erected a new picket fence on his residence property, which adds much to the appearance of the place.
