

I. O. O. F. OFFICERS.—

The officers of Cottage Grove Lodge No. 68, I. O. O. F. were regularly installed by Deputy Grand Master A. B. Tait last Saturday evening. The officers were: Mr. Hubbard, N. G.; A. Cruson, V. G.; Alta King, Cor. Secy.; J. W. Gowdy, Per. Secy.; C. Stevenson, Treas.; Wm. Cumming, warden; Winters Wallace, conductor; S. S. Shortridge, O. S. G.; L. Archibald, I. S. G.; C. H. Wallace, chaplain; Mr. Seward, R. S. N. G.; Dr. Schief, L. S. N. G. After the installation the members enjoyed a lunch and a general good time.

GUN STOLEN.—

A shot gun was stolen from the Helena Saloon some time Saturday night. The gun belonged to Mr. Barker the proprietor of the saloon. It is thought that some one was hid in the saloon, upstairs, and waited until Mr. Barker closed up, then came down and escaped through the side door which was open and could only be opened from the inside. Mr. Barker says he is sure he locked the door and the nightwatch also says he remembered of trying the door and it was locked.

BOATING PARTY.—

The young people enjoyed a boating party on the river above town Saturday evening. The boats were taken above the mill dam and the party rowed up the river about a mile to the falls just below Latham. It was a beautiful moonlight evening and all enjoyed a pleasant time. The place is an ideal one for rowing and it is probable that boating parties will be numerous this summer. More boats are needed to better accommodate those who attend.

MAKING HAY.—

Bake Stewart was in town from his ranch on Row River this week. Bake was after a new hay rake and could find none in stock with the merchants here and had to send to Eugene for one. He expects to put up over 100 tons of hay for his own feeding, as he has at present 175 head of cattle and will probably carry fully that number or more over the coming winter. Bake never looked better and his sunny smile shed a radiance all over town.

FOURTH OF JULY SHOOT.—

The following is the score made at the clay pigeon shoot on July 4 out of a possible 10 birds:

Picher	5	Fredrickson	4
Veatch	7	Pleunard	7
Barker	7	Wooley	5
Hull	6	Newcomb	3
Teeters	5

Veatch, Barker and Pleunard killing 7 birds each out of the possible 10, shot off the tie which was won by Veatch. Hull received second prize.

A GOOD JUMP.—

Mr. Horace Harms of this city, took first place in the broad jump at Roseburg, on the Fourth, winning on 19 feet 8 inches against 19 feet 4 inches, which was made by a student from the O. A. C. at Corvallis. Horace also won second place in the high jump, making 5 feet against 5 feet 1 inch, by a Roseburg man.

SAW MILL SOLD.—

It is reported that the Rouse-Geer saw mill, on the Coast Fork has been sold to Campbell and Alexander, of Comstock, for the consideration of $1,000, timber land included. It is said that the mill will be moved to Latham through this report cannot be verified at present.

THE HENS CELEBRATED.—

Mr. Carl Boren of the Warehouse brought a hen egg to this office Friday evening which measured 6 by 8 inches in circumference. Mr. Boren says his hens are very patriotic. This large egg was laid on July 4th.

THE S. P. TIE PLANT.—

The S. P. Co's tie preserving plant has finished its work at Latham and has moved to Dietz Spur, near Dunsmuir, Calif. Several Cottage Grove parties who were working with the plant went with it.

VINERD.—

One Mr. McCumber was arrested and taken before Mayor Veatch Friday for striking Mr. Drew, and it was said unto him, $5 and costs, all of which he complied with. Emma Pickrel and Fannie Horner were taken before Recorder Young and fined $10 and costs, Tuesday for running disorderly houses.

TO THE MOUNTAINS.—

Messrs. Geo. Wilson, of Portland, Tom Brown, E. A. Briggs, W. G. Gardner and C. M. Johnson, of Roseburg, left Sunday morning, for Bohemia. Mr. Brown expects to start the men to work on his claims, after which he and Mr. Wilson will spend some time hunting.

PROPERTY PURCHASED.—

W. D. Garman has purchased the W. F. Hemenway residence property on Third street and is moving into the same this week. The residence vacated by Mr. Garman in the McFarland addition will be occupied by Mrs. Newland, formerly of Sodaville.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LECTURE COURSE.—

Dr. T. A. Boyer, "That Time Is It, And Where Are We? Rev. W. L. Gaston, "Humorous on Yosemite" Prof. J. H. Hudson, "Golden Age of Oratory," Prof. M. R. Wallon, "Hawaiian Islands, Illustrated," Dr. Wm. Rader, "Uncle Sam."

TUMOR REMOVED.—

Saturday Dr. R. B. Job removed a fatty tumor from Al Parkers head which has been bothering him for some time. It was about as large as a walnut. The doctor says they are not serious but if allowed to grow will sometimes become quite large.

FOUND.—

On July 6th in the Fashion Stables at Cottage Grove, a combination K. of P. and I. O. O. F. pin. The owner can have same by calling at the Nugget office and paying for this notice.

DIED.—

SHIELDS—James P. Shields, aged 69 years, 2 months and 4 days passed away at his home west of town Wednesday morning at 10 a.m.

Deceased was an early pioneer of this country coming with his father Wm. Shields in 1851 and settled on a portion of the land now occupied by Cottage Grove. He was born in Indiana in 1832. He leaves a wife, two daughters and one son.

COFFMAN—At the home of her parents in this city, July 10, 1901, at 8 p. m. Miss Blanche Maria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coffman, aged 21 years, 8 months and 10 days.

Blanche Marie Coffman was born at Ute, Iowa, October 28, 1879, where she lived until a few years ago. She came to this city in February, 1900, with her parents, with hopes of benefiting her health. Her illness took a serious turn some 10 months ago and she has been confined to her room since that time.

Deceased was a member of the Baptist church and her gentle Christian character and her great patience during her suffering has been influential among her companions and associates. She had no fear of death and a few moments before the gates of Heaven were opened, her face brightened and she said she could see her sisters, who had gone before, waiting for her.

The funeral will be held at the Christian church at 11 a.m. today, Rev. Wallace officiating. The interment will take place at the Walker cemetery this afternoon.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

A considerable business of importance was transacted at an adjourned meeting of the city council Tuesday evening.

The bids for grading 5th street were read and rejected, and the Recorder instructed to advertise for new bids. On recommendation of the street committee all sidewalks on Main street were ordered rebuilt, to conform with ordinance.

The proposition of the Cottage Grove Water Company for the sale of its plant for the consideration of $3,300 was read and accepted and the recorder authorized to enter into a contract with said company for the purchase of the plant.

The police were ordered to strictly enforce the ordinance regulating houses of prostitution. On motion the council adjourned.
