

ROCKING RIVER STREET.

On Monday the rocking of River street from Wall was begun in real earnest and will be completed down to the bridge, about one mile, and will take nearly two months of busy work. The county is to furnish the rock and the work of hauling and laying it will be paid for by the generous subscriptions of a few of our most enterprising citizens. The business men who are making the donations of time and money for this most necessary improvement are Eakin & Bristow, Baker & Johnson, Griffin & Veatch, J. P. Carrin, R. W. Newland, James Miller and others. It will cost these gentlemen about $75 each, but they are not counting the cost, and are only bent on having a road that will be passable in and out of town at all seasons of the year.

GOING TO CALIFORNIA.

On Monday last W. H. Beagle and wife bid adieu to their many friends here and took their departure for California by wagon route over the mountains and valleys of Southern Oregon and into the golden state. They will make the journey by easy stages and feast on the panoramic beauties of picturesque nature as they go. After disposing of the bulk of their holdings here their necessary belongings were loaded into a light but strong spring wagon behind a stocky team and their faces turned to the southland. A long residence in this town has endeared them to many warm and loving friends and their presence will be missed by all of their intimates while dwelling here. A pleasant trip and safe anchorage is the wish of all their friends.

NEW SIDEWALKS.

Under the ordinance passed some time since for the construction of new and full width sidewalks from the depot to the bridge along both sides of Main street, the first to comply with the new order of things was the enterprising firm of Lewis & Veatch, and then came John Sherwood with new boards all around the Hotel Sherwood; then E. R. Case, N. H. Martin and Hemenway and Burkholder. Let the good work go right along. Nothing in the line of public improvement has been more necessary and nothing will prove a better drawing card to the intending investor who thinks of making a home here.

LEMON GONE.

The fine bird dog owned by Colonel Blair of the Sherwood Hotel and which had for so long been such a favorite with the many guests and traveling men who visit that hostelry, has passed over to dog heaven. He had been sick for some time, having in some manner got hold of and eaten a slow poison. Everything that could be done to alleviate his sufferings was done by the Colonel, but to no avail. Lemon will be missed and long remembered.

NEW AND NEAT.

Ben Lurch is having his fine residence newly painted by those eminent artists Jenkins & Lawson. When the finishing touches are completed Mr. Lurch will be the proud possessor of decidedly the most handsomely painted residence in the Grove. His beautiful lawn and nicely laid grounds form a fitting setting for the house and he can be congratulated on having an ideal home.

MICROBE KILLER.

Read the new ad of Adam's Microbe Killer in another column. A. F. Howard is the local agent and will only be too glad to explain its merits to all who favor him with a call. It will be a revelation to you to see Mr. Howard and it may be the means of bringing to you happiness and health through all your future days.

TO BOHEMIA.

The departures on Monday by Chrisman & Bangs' stage line for Bohemia were: O. G. Gilbertson and brother, Jack James, W. M. Griffith, W. M. Reed and Ben Sanford from the Grove, and J. W. Cook and C. A. Coats from Wildwood.

IN JUSTICE COURT.

Last Saturday the usual calm serenity of the classic precincts of Justice Vaughn's domain of peace adjudicator was agitated into quite a breezy whirl. A case of minor assault was on the tapis wherein C. H. Stone was defendant and Luther Van Fleet the aggrieved party. It seems that a not too pleasant feeling has existed for some time between the parties to the action, and one day last week the young scion of the house of Van Fleet was encroaching upon the preserves of the defendant, and was ordered to get hence, which the youngster refused to do, thereby causing the ire of the defendant to mount high and a spirited little clash was the result. Young Van Fleet was not harmed to any appreciable extent, but the majesty of the law had been violated, the injured sought redress and the arrest of the defendant followed. The trial was expected to have been an aggressive one on both sides, but on sober second thought the defendant pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs for allowing his temper to get the upper hand of his better nature.

YANKED IT OUT.

Professor Kendall was in town this week and made the Nugget a friendly call. He brought to town several fine specimens of grasses and shrubs that grow about his mountain home to present to parties making inquiry as to the flora and fauna that abound in his neighborhood. The professor relishes a good story and always has a few on tap. Living much alone he has acquired a resourcefulness in many things, and sometimes stands by the biblical text "If thine eye offend pluck it out." A few nights since he was awakened by one of his eye teeth going on the rampage with rag-time accompaniment. He immediately arose, groped around in the gloom until his hand clutched a pair of forceps and he didn't do a thing to that rebellious tooth. Since that hour his paths have been of pleasantness and peace. Come again, professor.

LOBBYING O. O. F. INSTALLATION.

At a recent public installation of Lorane Lodge No. 122, I. O. O. F., the following officers were installed: A. B. Tait, D. D. G. M.; J. P. Prady, N. G.; F. Oment, V. G.; E. S. Addison, Secretary; Ed Farman, Treasurer; Sam Hartley, R. S. N. G.; W. L. Coleman, L. S. N. G.; Martin Foster, Warden; S. G. Lockwood, Conductor; L. Ward, R. S. S.; S. F. Jackson, L. S. S.; Ben Lee, L. S. G.; A. D. Addison, O. S. G. At the conclusion of the ceremonies an oyster supper was spread for the delectation of all present, which was thoroughly enjoyed and a most pleasant evening passed.

MERRY-GO-ROUND.

R. H. Wiley came to town on Monday with his merry-go-round and pitched his tent on the corner of Main and Fourth. He got up steam and started the machine and pipe organ Monday afternoon and it was not long before he had the people coming from all directions. Young and old alike took a whirl under the canvas. The fun has kept up all the week and has been a source of pleasure to all the little ones and many of the big children.

SOCIAL DANCE.

On Tuesday evening an invitation social dance was held at the Masonic hall. The youth and beauty of Cottage Grove were there in goodly numbers and a most enjoyable evening was passed in the evolutions of the mazy dance to the strains of sweet and inspiring music. Quite a number of elders lent their presence to the happy event and all had a splendid time.

W. O. W. EXCURSION.

Under the auspices of the W. O. W. an excursion to Portland and return will be given on August 2d to 5th inclusive. Round trip tickets will be $4.00. Everybody invited to attend and a splendid time will be had. Secure your tickets before July 21st. For full particulars call on C. H. Van Denburg, Secretary.

Personal Paragraphs.

Prof. Briggs and family go to Monitor for a short visit to old friends.
B. E. Curry is down from Bohemia and is registered at the Imperial.
Mrs. John Akin has gone to pay a visit to her mother at Toledo, Oregon.
Ben Pearson went into Bohemia on Monday to work on his mine near Twin Rocks.
G. Meadow came down from Bohemia this week and is registered at the Sherwood Hotel.
W. J. Robinson left Wednesday morning for Bohemia, where he goes to work for E. E. Lilly.
Country Assessor D. P. Burton was in town on Monday shaking hands with his many friends here.
Messrs. Rame and Geor of the Coast Fork sawmill were in the Grove on Monday on a business trip.
George Sears, who was recently partially paralyzed, is again well enough to take pleasant rides abroad.
L. A. Sutherland was in town on business this week from the Black Butte mine and put up at the Imperial.
Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine of Eugene spent Sunday last in the Grove as the guests of W. H. Abrams and wife.
E. C. Lockwood and Tom Medley left Wednesday morning for Bohemia. They will do contract work on Helena No. 2.
Mrs. J. I. Thomas departed for Portland Saturday last to join her husband, where they expect to reside henceforth.
Messrs. Campbell and Alexander of the lumber firm at Alta were in town on Monday looking after business interests.
Goodman has a new brand of cigars that has money in the wrappers. The printer man tried one and they are all right.
The Benson Drug Company's store is receiving a handsome new coat of paint, which will enhance the looks of that popular drug store.
H. H. Veatch returned yesterday from a 4-day hunt on Mosby creek. He had a most enjoyable outing and feels well paid for the trip.
B. M. Atkins of Independence is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Atkins, in this city this week. Mr. Atkins contemplates locating here.
Hon. R. M. Veatch is on a hunting trip on the head of Mosby creek. Uncle Bob will have great stories to relate when he comes back to town.
Charles Geiger of Alameda, South Dakota, is in town and looking for a suitable location for future operation. He is registered at the Imperial.
George Bohlman, the popular tailor, goes to the Bohemia hills on Monday next to work out the assessment on his mining claims. He will be gone about two weeks.
J. W. Cook and wife came down from Portland last week and went up to Hawley's ranch, the home of Mrs. Cook's father. Mr. Cook is now at the Musick mine.
The mother and sister of Charles Burkholder arrived this week from Newport. His mother will remain with him and his sister, after a short visit, will return to the east.
The family of Darwin Bristow departed this week to spend the summer in their cozy villa down where the blue waters of the Pacific lave the shining sands of Oregon at Newport.
A. Nelson went to Albany on Wednesday morning as a delegate from Camp 6121, M. W. A., to attend a convention of the order which will arrange for a 2-day carnival and picnic to be held this fall.
John Peterson, who has for some time past been over in the Blue River country, returned to the Grove last week and has gone to Bohemia to continue work on the Aurora mine, owned by himself and John Clucky.
R. W. Hastings of Roseburg has bought up the interest of E. R. Case in the barbering business. Mr. Case will shortly remove with his family to Albany, having interests there which require his attention.
John H. Potts left on Monday for Oklahoma. He is going to be in at the grand drawing for farms on the Kiowa reservation that is soon to take place upon the large tract of land thrown open for homestead entry.
The Misses Newland have removed their millinery store to the Benet building on Main street. U. S. Martin will occupy the Schiele building vacated by the millinery store, and Jenkins & Lawson will have one of the large show windows in which to exhibit their wall paper and paints and oils.
R. J. Jennings came down from Portland this week on a flying trip. He did not have time to go up to the Helena, but was not here by Superintendent Behne. Dick's bearing was cheerful and confident and it did his many friends here good to grasp his hand.
Little Ben Sanford, the joy and pride of his fond mother, Mrs. Pet Sanford, went out on Monday's stage to the Bohemia hills to spend his vacation with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, who keep the boarding house at Benson.
S. F. Wheeler presented this office last week with a big egg. It was not quite so large as the previous one brought in by another party, but it came from that measurement. The very near that measurement. The poultry family in this neighborhood seem to have entered into a friendly rivalry for the first prize in hen fruit.
The Misses Eva and Florence Akin of McMinnville and Grants Pass, respectively, are here to visit their brother, John Akin. Both young women have been instructing the young how to shoot and during their vacation will find theylvan shades of the Coast Fork a most delightful place to rest and savor the summer breezes.
Mr. Ashby, as usual, is the first in the market with green beans. He called at this office on Saturday last to show a large basket full of them, and they were indeed fine, but he didn't leave them. Oh no, they were too rich for the printer man's blood, and besides other gormand had the pleasure of digesting those green beauties.
